SANCTION.

The Local Government Board wrote sanctioning the payment of £1 12s to John Godsell for his services as assistant baker in the workhouse, and the continued employment of Mr. McNamara as substitute for the Labour Master.

Mr. Quilligan—Is there a notice of motion about that case?

The Clerk—There is, sir. It will be on this day week.

A DESERVING CASE.

The Local Government Board wrote stating that they were unable to alter the views contained in their letter of the 27th ult. respecting the Guardians' proposal to provide the artificial limb, at a cost of £10 10s., for a man named James Smith, who is by occupation a general handy man working on the railway.

Mr. Sheehan—I propose that the question be adjourned for a week. This is a most extraordinary case. This unfortunate man will have to come in here with his seven children.

On the suggestion of the Clerk, Mr. Sheehan proposed, and Mr. O'Halloran seconded—"That it is the unanimous wish of the Board to ask the Local Government Board to reconsider their decision."

The motion was agreed to non con.

TO BE SENT TO A SANATORIUM.

Dr. Brennan recommended that Patrick McNamara be sent to a sanatorium.

An order embodying this recommendation was made.

THE RACES.

A number of employes in the house applied for, and were granted a half-holiday for the races on to-morrow.

COOLEYCASEY, MEDICAL RESIDENCE.

Formal approval was given to the specification for the medical residence at Cooleycasey.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Mrs. Godfrey applied for her annual leave of absence, and intimated that Miss Nolan would do her duty without any expense to the Board.

Mr. D. O'Brien—That's very good.

Granted.

Dr. Ryan, of Castleconnell, applied for, and was granted his usual leave.

Mrs. Nix was granted sick leave.

Mr. Godfrey made a similar application, stating that Mr. Nix would do duty without any expense to the Board.

Granted.

SUBSTITUTES.

In the Master's journal it was reported that Mrs. Laffan being ill, Miss Nolan had been appointed to do temporary duty for her at 10s. a week.

Miss Barrington elicited from the Clerk that under the terms of the appointment it was part of Miss Nolan's duty to act as substitute. That, however, was rescinded by a resolution of the Board which did not appear to have received the sanction of the Local Government Board.

Mr. O'Regan said he thought they owed a debt of gratitude to Miss Barrington for eliciting that information.

Miss Barrington proposed and Mr. O'Regan seconded that Miss Nolan be not paid.

Unanimously adopted.
