

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

AND IMMORAL ATURE.

Mr. P. J. Little sends a Freemans, which he has gton, relative to an article
#.

letter Mr. Little says—ok mob terrorised newssell Sunday papers, and he papers (other people's ce of the Decalogue, etc.
ance of the Decalogue, but nent with friendly news-bles were taken and used ration. There was no rights whatever. As to en, enthusiastic in a great
—this is only equalled by names 'hypocrisy,' and
to the whole movement.
young men of Ireland are
and for a clean, strong,
and they care not whether
netious' or otherwise.

of Limerick by your own
d. We all know the old
is true,' 'A friend told me note a friend, 'Not in the
ope is there a community more vacuous in mind than

Perhaps, Mr. Skeffington making serious charges
an English audience you for yourself, and having
in Limerick will then visit ern Europe' of 30,000 in-

passage—' However, no-
the Bishop of Limerick
him and his tantrums too ish audience!—' and we cidental that he starts, or f this kind on the eve of shop of Limerick did not out it is quite in keeping ions, and quite as wild.
as many public-spirited
" at it, including Canon
member of the English uroches, who is leading a ss the Channel; as the
'poor living' at it by some
des, and indeed, as you rchbishop of Dublin also now that it is by no means rical affair I might quote ds of approval written by recent letter to a similar n London. But everyone
'quoted."

SHOOTING AFFRAY NEAR BRUFF.

FATAL RESULT.

TWO ARRESTS.

Kilmallock, Monday.

About 9 o'clock last night Michael Dennehy was proceeding from Bruff to the residence of his employer, Martin Quilty, of Ballydaheen. When passing the house of Daniel Downes, a labourer, it is alleged he was singing and shouting against Downes. Downes, who was in the act of going to bed, came out, and Dennehy struck him with what is believed to be a stone and knocked him. Downes' mother-in-law separated them. A discussion was kept up between the men as far as Quilty's yard. Quilty, who was in bed, got up when he heard the row, and came out with a gun, and asked Downes what brought him into the yard, and, it is alleged, fired at Downes, shooting him between the knee and the ankle.

Sergeant Jones and some constables visited the scene at 9.15, and found that Downes had died. Downes also had wounds on the head, and the gun is stated to be broken. Quilty and Dennehy have been arrested.

The Inquest.

To-night an inquest was held by Coroner P. J. Cleary, M.D., at Ballydaheen, Bruff, on the body of Daniel Downes. After hearing evidence at considerable length the jury returned a verdict that death was due to hemorrhage from a gunshot wound on the leg, inflicted by Martin Quilty.

Subsequently at a late hour Quilty and Michael Dennehy were brought before Mr. J. E. St. George, R.M., at the Bruff Police Barracks, and charged with the murder of Downes. They were remanded.

Mr. R. Fox, solr., Kilmallock, represented the accused.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GALE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Maria Gale, wife of Mr. John Gale, who passed away on the 30th ult. at her residence, Grattan Villas, in the 68th year of her age, took place on Sunday last, when at two o'clock the remains were removed for interment at St. Munchin's Cemetery. The funeral was very large and representative, and was ample evidence of sympathy and respect.

The chief mourners were:—Messrs. William, Thomas, Harry Gale (sons), T. Hassett (brother-in-law), W. Orniston, J. Burrowes, H. Eakins (sons-in-law), George Hill, Norman Gale, Harry Gale, C. Burrowes, E. Cooney, P. Hill (sons)

CONNAUGHT WINT ASSIZES.

THIS DAY

PALMERSTOWN TRAGEDY

Four Prisoners on Trial

His Lordship Mr. Justice Dodd, entered County Crown Court at 10 o'clock this morning and resumed the business of the Connought Winter Assizes.

James Doolan, Lizzie Doolan, Margaret and Ellen Organ were indicted and pleaded guilty on Saturday to having on the 16th of last feloniously, wilfully, and with malice, thought killed one Jane Treacy against the act and statute.

Michael Doolan, who was stated by the Crown to be the principal actor in the tragedy, was on his trial yesterday, and after a hearing lasted the entire day the jury found a verdict of manslaughter.

The Crown was represented by the Attorney-General, Messrs. J. B. Powell, K.C., and Denning (instructed by Mr. J. S. Gaffney, C.S.), Messrs. M. J. Kenny, and J. O'Connell (instructed by Mr. H. O'B. Moran, solr.), defence—The following were empanelled to try the case—Charles Cross (foreman), David John McNamara (Catherine-street), John O'Mahony, William Clune, David Tidwell, Richard P. O'Connor, Michael O'Mahony, William Clune, Patrick Coonerty, James J. Ryan, Peter J. Hamilton.

The Attorney-General, in stating the case for the prosecution, traversed the same ground yesterday. It would be hard to find a precedent for such an awful deed, said the Attorney-General. There must be some case of enmity—a long-standing—but it would be for the jury to determine whether that was a fact, or whether this awful act was the result of frenzied or the deliberate act of men and women in possession of their senses.

Evidence was then called.

Bridget O'Connor was the first witness, and repeated the testimony given by her yesterday which inculpated the prisoners at the bar.

Thomas Treacy, son of the deceased, and William Kennedy were also examined, as was Colonel Stewart, who testified to the finding of the body.

Dr. O'Brien, Barrington's Hospital, deposed that the injuries sustained by the deceased, in his opinion, were the result of violence.

For the defence, John O'Loughlin was called and stated on the night in question M.