

... for yourself, and having is in Limerick will then visit stern Europe' of 30,000 in-er passage—' However, nods the Bishop of Limerick ow him and his tantrums too nglish audience!—' and we accidental that he starts, or of this kind on the eve of Bishop of Limerick did not , but it is quite in keeping erations, and quite as wild.

t as many public-spirited ed" at it, including Canon ant member of the English Churches, who is leading a cross the Channel; as the 'boothiving' at it by some articles, and indeed, as you Archbishop of Dublin also show that it is by no means olical affair I might quote ords of approval written by a recent letter to a similar in London. But everyone d requested."

Cashel's Action.

... O'Hara Bishop of Cashel
he Very Rev. Dean Hackett, to the Citizens' Committee ation of being present and of the resolutions which are a public meeting to be held aterford, on the 14th inst., inst the sale of pernicious

... EN AT MOY HOUSE, ... HINCH.

November, 4.87 inches, which above November average for ere eleven days no rain half of month was very s and hailstorms and big seas ng lands much flooded. The dry and mild with frosty NDLESS.

... CORPORATION.

terly meeting of the Borough vened for Thursday evening y of business. It includes a tabulary Authorities for £57 ee expenses, owing to the e, also a recommendation of g Committee, to accept the oran, Electrical Engineer, ppointment of his successor.
presented to several citizens life from drowning.

... REY'S MISSION.

Sunday were at 3.30 and 8 lance at the evening meeting e Hall being packed and g Service commenced as usual dering some of the favourite at considerable length the jury returned a verdict that death was due to hemorrhage from a gunshot wound on the leg, inflicted by Martin Quilty.

Subsequently at a late hour Quilty and Michael Dennehy were brought before Mr. J. E. St.
George, R.M., at the Bruff Police Barracks, and charged with the murder of Downes. They were remanded.

Mr. R. Fox, solr., Kilmallock, represented the accused.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GALE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Maria Gale, wife of Mr. John Gale, who passed away on the 30th ult.
at her residence, Grattan Villas, in the 68th year of her age, took place on Sunday last, when at two o'clock the remains were removed for interment at St. Munchin's Cemetery. The funeral was very large and representative, and was ample evidence of sympathy and respect.

The chief mourners were:—Messrs. William, Thomas, Harry Gale (sons), T. Hassett (brother-in-law), W. Ormston, J. Burrowes, H. Eakins (sons-in-law), George Hill, Norman Gale, Harry Gale, C. Burrowes, F. Ormston, R. Hill (grand children), H. Hassett, J. Hassett (nephews).

Amongst the general public were—Rev. J. T.
Waller, M.A., E. G. Fitt, A. J. Eakins, W.
Marshall, J. Forrest, P. Forrest, T. Fennell, P.
McCoy, J. Sheehan, George Wilson, J. Tuite, J.
Leddan, K. O'Brien, P. B. Malone, H. Powell,
C. Baldwin, G. C. Baldwin, Con Fitzgerald, R.
Gullen, M. Hartigan, J. Shannon, H. Byrnes, T. O'Dwyer (Banaha), M. Martin, J. A. Baldwin, W. Griffiths, T. Brown, C. Brown, J. Hayes,
H. Guinane, J. Bartley, M. Ford, J. Foley, F. Lawlor, T. Leahy, J. O'Gorman, M. Sadleir, M. Dooley, J. Cunningham, C. O. Jones, M.
Hayes, M. Riordan, J. McMahon, J. Purcell, M.
Moloney, G. Ruttle, W. Forde, T. Keane, J.
O'Donnell, T. Burke, W. Horne, J. Hayes, T.
Lunn, J. Blake, M. O'Brien, J. Hickey, J. Daly, E. Lysaght, J. Manning, T. O'Connell,
J. Vance, T. Lane, A. Woodhouse,
P. Hurley, T. Looney, P. Frewen, M. J. Guerin, J. Lee, H. Nestor, A. Nestor, H. Ferguson, M.
Kelly, P. Riordan, J. Murnane, R. Gleeson, W.
Gleeson, J. Forde, — Warner, W. Coulter, R.
Coulter, C. Gleeson, W. Leech, W. South,
J. Quirke, M. Collopy, J. Clarkson, J.
Singleton, W. Croston, J. Maloney, P. Fahy, R. H. Allister, R. Hetherington, M. Coghlan, J. McCarthy, D. Gleeson, R. H. Croker, J. P.
Hurley, J. Hurley, J. M. O'Sullivan, J. Caball, W. Logan, M. J. Hickey, P. Waldron, J.
Waldron, A. O'Brien, J. Coller, M. Caffry, R. Ryder, R. Byrne, J. Enright, R. Reid, P.
Murray, P. McAuliffe, E. O'Neill, P. Curran, F.
J. Humphreys, D. Kelly, D. O'Keefe, M. Ryan (junior), M. Ryan (senior), P. Nash, P. Melay, J.
Blake, J. Auchmuty.

Rev. J. T. Waller officiated. As the coffin was being borne into the church "O Rest in the Lord" was played on the organ, and the touching hymn, "Abide with Me," was sung during the service. The "Dead March in Saul" was played as the coffin was being removed to the grave. Mr. Norman Gale, grandson of the deceased, presided at the organ.

THE ATTACK ON SIR MORGAN O'CONNELL.

The following were empanelled to case—Charles Cross (foreman), David John McNamara (Catherine-street), O'Mahony, William Clune, David T
Richard P. O'Connor, Michael O'Mahony
Clune, Patrick Coonerty, James J. Ry
Peter J. Hamilton.

The Attorney-General, in stating the the prosecution, traversed the same groun terday. It would be hard to find prevoc such an awful deed, said the Attorney-There must be some case of enmity—long-standing—but it would be for the determine whether that was a fact, or this awful act was the result of frenzied the deliberate act of men and women possession of their senses.

Evidence was then called.
Bridget O'Connor was the first witness.
repeated the testimony given by her y which inculpated the prisoners at the ba Thomas Treacy, son of the deceased, and Kennedy were also examined, as was C Stewart, who testified to the finding of t Dr. O'Brien, Barrington's Hospital, de the injuries sustained by the deceased, his opinion, were the result of violence.

For the defence, John O'Loughlen wa and stated on the night in question Quin had some drink taken.

Mr. Kenny, addressing the Court, sa yesterday his colleague, Mr. O'Connor self had given this case the most anx sideration. They had come to the e that it would be impossible for them, i the facts in the evidence given against Doolan to present their case. Under th stances he was prepared, and had so ad prisoners to plead guilty to manslaughter

The Attorney-General—You cannot You must submit to the verdict given y

Mr. Kenny—I am prepared to do that.

The Attorney-General, in reply to l ship, said he could not lose sight of the at the present moment the principal n was not in the dock. On behalf of the was willing to accept the verdict of mans

His Lordship, in his charge to the ju would not be in accordance with the ad tion of justice to seek a verdict other given yesterday when the main malef put on his trial.

The jury found the prisoners guilty slaughter, and sentence was deferred.

CLARE MURDER CHARGE.

William McLean, alias Roche, who wa and pleaded not guilty to the murder of Mary McLean, on the 4th November placed in the dock.

The Attorney-General, with Messrs Powell, K C., and H. Denning (instructe J. F. Cullinan, C.S.) prosecuted.

Mr. R. Naish (instructed by Mr. P. J van, solicitor) defended.

The following were sworn to try the Charles Cross (foreman), David Noh McNamara, J. P. O'Mahony, Williar
David Tidmarsh, Richard P. O'Connor, O'Mahony, James Clune, Patrick Cooner
J. Ryan, and Peter J. Hamilton.

The Attorney-General stated the cas siderable length. He said the prisoner married for a considerable time, and o November last he was lodging with his three children at Mrs. Boland's, in the Tulla, in the County Clare. He was b tion an itinerant barber, or a razor s About half-past ten on the morning in