Mr. O'Brien—I propose you divide the position,
 and have a master and a storekeeper.
 Mr. Kenneally seconded Mr. O'Brien's proposition.
 Considerable discussion ensued.
 Mr. Linnane thought they ought to fix the Master's salary for the present. He would not be for appointing a store-keeper (hear, hear).
 Mr. Tierney seconded Mr. Linnane's amendment.
 It was finally decided not to have a storekeeper.
 The age was fixed at from 21 to 35, and the salary of the incoming master at £60.
 Adjourned.

THE LATE MRS. MAUNSELL
 NEWBOROUGH.

Sincere regret is felt by all classes and creeds in the district at the death, which occurred on the 20th instant, at her residence, Newborough, Patrickswell, of Mrs. Elizabeth E. L. Maunsell, widow of the late Mr. Edward H. P. Maunsell.
 The deceased lady, who had been in failing health for some time past, was of a most kindly and charitable disposition, and was held in the highest esteem and regard by a wide circle of friends.
 The funeral, which took place at eleven o'clock on Tuesday morning for the family burial place at Adare was very large, and representative of all classes and creeds.

The chief mourners included—Messrs. James and Edmond Maunsell, sons; Mr. Hunt (Mallow), brother; Mrs. and Miss Hunt, Mr. George Mooney, Miss Mooney, nephew, and niece; Mr.
 C. Maunsell, Miss E. Maunsell, Mr. George Beere, Mrs. Beere.

The clergy present were—The Dean, Archdeacon Gabbett, Precentor Adderley, Rev. H. A. Orpen, Rev. T. F. Abbott, and the Rev. G. L. Swain.

It will be only possible to give a few names of the general public, amongst whom were—Mr. and Mrs. Harding, Mr. T. Browning, Mr. G.
 Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fitzgerald, Mr.
 George Fosbery, Mr. A. White, Mr. R. R.
 Ballingall, Mr. B. Corneille, Mr. J. Corneille,
 Mr. G. Meredith, Mrs. Meredith, Mr. C. Mills,
 Mr. T. McCreavy, Mr. J. Dodds, solicitor; Mr.
 R. Hanna, Mr. D. R. O'Brien, Mr. Morrogh
 O'Brien, Colonel Rielly, Dr. Clifford, Mr. James Hewson, etc.

Very many people sent carriages.
 The Rev. Mr. Orpen, Rector of Adare, officiated, and in the Church delivered a very touching address, in which he alluded to the many excellent traits of character possessed by the deceased lady, and the great help that she gave to Church work and in the promotion of the cause of charity. The Service closed with the singing of the beautiful hymn "Book of Ages," and at the graveside the committal sentences were read by the Rev. Mr.
 Orpen.
