

er, stares us in the face—continue much longer, trade about the country will be that will involve enormous as it has been already—... amount of enforced computed that, including here are considerably more half employes in numerous Britain and Ireland standing of others are working on order, then, that desti me more and more so that in some of ts, with the view of amongst the poorer classes, ve granted them permission mounds for common fuel. s own tale, and doubtless tances could be mentioned ry and privation which this brought about. And so it is that wise and pacific counsels e will allow this disastrous r. Masters and men must that the dispute is one that rn them alone, but that on terests of the Nation are he daily increasing pressure ot fail to bring this fact ng parties, and so prove an the direction of peace. If ary action will become an It is obviously impossible ch gravity and magnitude nger. The Government will some drastic step to end it.

PAVING SCHEME.

s well, and the citizens have tion that at long last definite n that will lead to the speedy ondition of the city thorou; h is not suffered when the rain offer, and the city was left estone, mud and pools of water of, no hope of remedy, no a change of management, ets, altogether dependent cn re evaporation, so tedious, y, rough the months when the Worst still, the putting of the streets in the shape of en metal, the discomfort of cyclists, and pedestrians, the latter, the subject of on the part of visitors not procedure of local mreadamis- practised for years and years. better state of things will, he more welcome, and the e meeting of the Improve- of the Corporation last night

Railway Servants, will learn with pleasure that he has been called to an important position in the North of Ireland. Mr. Glynn recently took his departure for his new sphere of duties. During his connection with his associates in the city of his birth he maintained the good wishes of a wide circle of friends, amongst whom his unvarying courtesy made him deservedly popular.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.

Organ Recitals.

At the Organ Recital on Saturday afternoon next Mrs. Knox will sing "How beautiful are the feet (Handel), and Recitative "Ye people read your hearts," and Air "If with all your heads" (Mendelssohn). Mr. F. Muspratt will play Overture in G (Wolstenholme), Andante in B flat (5th Quintett (Mozart), Intermezzo' Scherzoso, and Passacaglia (Rhemberger), (from 8 Sonata in E minor), Scherzo in E (Hollins), and Finale (op. 52), Schumann.

On Sunday next, St. Patrick's Day, there will be Festival Evensong at 3.30, at which special music, including Mr. Muspratt's setting of St. Patrick's Breastplate, will be sung by augmented choir.

THE LATE MR. HICKMAN SHINE, J.P.

On Saturday last the remains of the late Mr. James Hickman Shine, J.P., were removed from his residence, Ballymacreasc, to the family vault, Cahernarry. The funeral was largely attended, and was representative of all classes and creeds. The chief mourners were—Mr. J. J. Shine, High Park, Major Shine, Camas Park (cousins); Sir Hugh Lane, Mr. Charles Lane (brothers in-law), Mr. H. Lefroy, Mr. F. Hutchins, Mr. de Ros Rose (cousins). Amongst those who lent wreaths were—The widow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lane, Dr. A. S. Shine, Captain Rose Shine, Sir Hugh Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lane, Mr. Burley Shine, Miss Jem Shine, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins, Miss May Cox, All at Glenview. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Fry, Minnie, and Delia.

Rev. J. H. Moran, Rector of Cahernarry, officiated.

P.Y.M.A. LITERARY CLASS.

Mr. Steele's Great Lecture

The P. Y. M. A. Literary Class brings its winter session to a close to-morrow (Friday) night with a lecture by that brilliant lecturer, Mr. L. E. Steele, M.A., M.R.I.A., Dublin, entitled "The Exodus, from the Egyptian Standpoint." Mr. Steele is one of the most distinguished of Irish lecturers. He has a clear voice, and is a witty speaker. He will have the assistance of a large number of lantern slides taken for the most part by himself. It will be remembered that last year Mr. Steele had a very large audience at the P. Y. M. A., and many regretted having missed hearing him.

ACCIDENT.

A young man named Carroll was admitted to Barrington's Hospital yesterday suffering from loss of the index finger of the left hand. He was employed at a local saw mills, and accidentally sustained the injury while engaged tending one of the cutting machines.

HARLAND AND WOLFF.

Control to Pass to a Scottish Firm.

the men left without replacing the same, and when Mr. Alhusen came the next morning he found that it was so. The defendants admitted the offence in the circumstances.

In answer to Mr. Kelly.

Mr. Alhusen said the maximum penalty was £10.

Mr. Blood-Smyth said that was the maximum penalty, but he would ask to have the minimum. The Company had been there 20 years, and there never was an accident. In fact the belief among the men was that this particular fencing was rather a source of danger than otherwise. A fine of 10s and costs of court 2s 6d was imposed.

Some other cases were heard, and the Court adjourned.

THE PEERESS'S LARDER.

One of the comic phases of the strike, says the club window gossip of the Liverpool Post, is the way in which housewives have been laying in supplies. One peeress confesses she has fourteen hams, enough flour to last her until August, and enough candles to illuminate for a week when the strike is over—this in a house lighted by electric light, and only possessing old silver candlesticks of candelabra shape and weight.

KILMALLOCK FATALITY.

A Kilmallock correspondent writes—A sad discovery was made on Tuesday at Ardkilmartin, Kilmallock, when the body of a labourer named Daniel M'Carthy was found in a heap of manure. It would appear that he had been engaged in turning the stuff, and had passed a quantity to one side, making a deep channel, on which he stood between it and the main bulk, which toppled in and buried him alive.

HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP.

A meeting of the Limerick County Gaelic Board was held last evening for the purpose of considering the question of the venue for the All-Ireland Hurling final. The Chairman (Mr. J. O'Riordan) explained what had taken place at the meeting of the Central Council, which decided to fix the venue for Thurles on 21st April. After considerable discussion, the resolution of the Castlecoonnell Club of the 4th March, to the effect that the venue for the final be the Cork Athletic Ground, was adopted unanimously.

IRISH WOMEN'S FRANCHISE LEAGUE.

"The Legal Disabilities of Women," formed the subject of an instructive paper and discussion at the meeting of the Limerick Branch of the Irish Women's Franchise League, in the Savings Bank, on Tuesday night. Mrs. R. Gibson presided, and the paper which was contributed by an outside friend of the movement, dealt very logically and lucidly with the subject. Cogent reasons were advanced in favour of the enfranchisement of women, and emphasis was laid on what had been achieved in the placing of the Married Women's Property Act on the statute book. It was a well reasoned paper on the whole and a convincing contribution to the many that have been given by the Limerick Branch in furtherance of Women's Suffrage.

LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL.

A special meeting of the Limerick County Council is convened for Saturday at 11 o'clock in the Council Chamber, George Street. The agenda paper contains the following items:—To consider