

TERRIBLE RASH BROKE ALL OVER HIS ARMS AND LEGS.

Carnacon, Ballyglass, County Mayo, Ireland:—
"A terrible rash broke out all over my arms and legs. The spots came out about the size of the points of pins and I suffered very much particularly after I went to bed. I was forced to scratch my arms and legs until the blood flowed from the sores. I took all sorts of medicine but without avail. Instead of getting relief I only got worse. The rash was always increasing. I used to feel worse after getting warm in bed, so much so that I dreaded going to bed at all. Never shall I forget the pain I endured all along. I would scratch the very flesh off as well as the skin.

"I wrote to a friend about it and he sent me a box of ointment, but it did no good. I read about the Cuticura Remedies in the paper, and I decided to give them a trial at any cost. I got two cakes of Cuticura Soap and 1 box of Cuticura Ointment, and began using them as directed. From the first there was an improvement, and in about three months' time I was completely cured, and am now able to sleep quite soundly." (Signed), J. E. Staunton, April 15, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by chemists everywhere. A sample of each with 32-p. book post-free from nearest depot: Newbery, 27, Charterhouse Sq., London; R. brought in, applied to have the appointment extended to a full grant. The deceased lady, Mary Studdert, who resided at Cooraclare, Co. Clare, died in April, 1911, having made her will in the year 1900. It appeared that in 1908, while she was away from home, the will was lost. Every effort had been made to trace it, but up to the present the document was not forthcoming. It was stated that the assets amount to £2,000, and that a principal portion consists of a farm situate in County Clare. Some of the people there, counsel said, were over-suspicious that nobody would take a title given by an administration when the grant was limited until a will was brought in. He was afraid there was little hope that the document would turn up.

Mr. Justice Madden allowed the application to stand until the first motion day of next sittings, and decided that in the meantime the will should be advertised for in the newspapers both in Co. Clare and in Dublin.
