

LIFE-SAVING APP AT SEA.

DEBATE IN PARLI.

SPEECH OF ALDERMAN

The provision of adequate boats for the life-saving apparatus on the coast is a subject of great importance to the House of Commons on Tuesday.

On the Board of Trade Vote, Mr. H. H. Aspinall moved for a reduction of £100 to the Board of Trade to make the present ones being a speech of Alderman H. H. Aspinall on the subject of the life-saving apparatus on the coast.

and he agreed with every man who would not save many more lives.

DEATH OF MR. E. H. POE

HOSFORD, J.P.

We regret extremely to record the death of Mr. Edward H. Poe Hosford, J.P., which took place suddenly this morning at Corbally.

When he was taken ill at the Corbally side of Park Bridge. Some papers by at once came to his assistance, and Dr. Malone was on the scene with

At the County Petty Sessions to-day the magistrates presiding were—Mr. P. J. Kelly, R.M., Mr. Bryan O'Donnell, Mr. Wm. M. Nolan, Mr. S. B. Quinn, and Mr. N. Humphreys.

Mr. Kelly, at the sitting of the Court, said the magistrates desired to express their sorrow at the death of Mr. Hosford.

CURRENT COMMENT

The Registrar-General's Report. The average annual death-rate represented by the Dublin Registration Area and the twenty-one

Registrar-General's Report. The average annual death-rate represented by the Dublin Registration Area and the twenty-one

Registrar-General's Report. The average annual death-rate represented by the Dublin Registration Area and the twenty-one

The St. Michael's Rowing Club Annual Scratch Races have been fixed to come off on Thursday.

OUT AND ABOUT.

under two years of age. three from diarrhoea or enteritis of children from whooping cough, two from diphtheria, and causes for Belfast are one from scarlet fever, four from diarrhoea or enteritis of children under two years of age.

Registrar-General's Report. The average annual death-rate represented by the Dublin Registration Area and the twenty-one

Registrar-General's Report. The average annual death-rate represented by the Dublin Registration Area and the twenty-one