from the men's meeting with the Government next Tuesday, a special Council meeting of the National Federation will be held on Tuesday afternoon. In an interview Mr. Gosling said the men wanted honourable peace, and it now depended on the masters whether there would be a national stoppage or not.

Attitude of Sailors and Firemen.

Father Hopkins to-day stated no official representative of the Sailors' and Firemen's Union would attend to-day's Conference to consider the question of a national stoppage. There would be no national stoppage of sailors and firemen.

MR. ORMSBY GORE, M.P.

Mr. Ormsby Gore, M.P., had a fairly comfortable night, and was better to-day.

THE "MEDINA."

The P. and O. liner "Medina," which conveyed the King and Queen to India for the Coronation Durbar, left the Clyde to-day for London, to commence sailings in the service of the company.
Since the conclusion of their Majesties' voyage the "Medina" has been transformed by Messrs.
Caird and Co.

DEATH OF MR. P. GLYNN.

His colleagues at the General Post Office, Limerick, and his old city friends have learned with very great regret of the death of Mr.
P. Glynn, on the 3rd instant, at Chicago, from pneumonia, after a brief illness.
Mr. Glynn, who was a brother of the late Mr. Stephen Glynn, District Superintendent of the Great Southern and Western Railway, was at Chicago for some years back, and the news of his unexpected death came as a surprise to all who knew him, frank, genial, and open-minded as he was.

DEATH OF REV. JOHN HOLMES.

We regret to announce the death of the Rev.
John Holmes, for 56 years Minister of the Scots' Church, Tipperary. He had been ailing since the last week of April, but had rallied, and the end came suddenly yesterday evening. He was a man of great ability, sound judgment, fearless courage, inflexible uprightness, and unchanging kindness.
By all who knew him in town and country, his demise will be sincerely lamented, all classes and creeds holding the deceased clergyman in the highest respect and affection. Funeral takes place on Monday next at two o'clock from the Manse.

MR. CARNEGIE ARRIVES AT LIVERPOOL.

The Presidential Election.

Among the passengers landing at Liverpool to-day from the Celtic were Mr and Mrs Carnegie.
The millionaire, who seemed to be in the best of health, said he had come to the conclusion the safest and most agreeable manner of crossing the Atlantic was in one of the old boats. They had gone far South, almost to Azores. Asked about the Presidential election, he remarked his heart was grieved over the humiliating spectacle going on between Roosevelt and Taft. In regard to State trade, he said all is at present well.

CHARGE OF SHOOTING AT.

Excise Officer Committed for Trial.

At Galway to-day, Mr. Thomas Townsend, Excise Officer, was committed for trial on a charge of having shot Martin Keady on March 15th, on the occasion of a surprise visit paid by Excise officers to a private still, where it was alleged illicit spirit was being manufactured. Keady was shot in the thighs. It was said Townsend made arrangements to fire shots if he wanted police assistance. He was admitted to bail.

DEATH OF MR. DENIS O'KEEFFE

It is with very much regret we have to announce the death of Mr. Denis O'Keefe, late Superintendent of the Telegraph Department of the Post Office, the melancholy occurrence taking place at his residence, Ascot Terrace this morning. Mr. O'Keefe, who was in his 68th year, severed his connection with the Post Office some nine years ago. For some time past he had been but in indifferent health, the death of his good wife a little over a year ago, naturally affecting him very much, and adding to his illness. He grew gradually weak, however, despite the devoted attention of his children, who left nothing undone to cheer him and ameliorate his condition, but every care proved unavailing, and the end came towards noon, deceased passing peacefully away in the presence of several members of his family. Mr.
O'Keefe was 43 years in the Telegraph Department, 40 of which were passed in Limerick to which he became greatly attached. On his retirement from duty under the age clause of the office of superintendent which he held for 33 years, the staff of the Limerick Post Office presented him with a souvenir and illuminated address, to recall pleasant and long standing relations. The remains of the deceased will be removed to St.
Michael's Roman Catholic Church to-morrow evening at 9 o'clock, and the funeral will leave from there at noon on Monday for Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery.

The monthly meeting of the Corporation will be held on Friday evening next, instead of Thursday (Corpus Christi).
