

nts, Hayes (G) and Hopkins in C; rret in D; Hymn, 571; Introit, 365; n Service, Garrett in D; Preacher, Evensong, 3.30 o'clock: Chants, minor and major; Service, Garrett in em, "God is our hope" (Greene); 560 and 35; Preacher, Rev. T. F. D.

CHARL'S CHURCH.—13th Sunday after 1 a.m., Holy Communion, 9.50 a.m., Service; preacher, the Archdeacon. ., Morning Prayer and Holy Commu- acher, the Archdeacon. 6.30 p.m., rayer; preacher, the Archdeacon.

CHURCH.—13th Sunday after Trinity— Prayer at 11.30; preacher, Rev. Canon ller, B.D. Evening Prayer at 6.30; Rev. W. R. Keillor, M.A. Children's : 3.30.

N'S CHURCH.—13th Sunday after Trinity g Prayer, 11.30; Holy Communion, vening Prayer, 7.0. Preacher at both The Rector.

INCHIN'S CHURCH.—13th Sunday after Morning Service, 11.30; Evening Ser- 0. Preacher at both services, Rev. B. Robertson.

TRICK'S CHURCH (Parteen).—Morning nd Holy Communion, 11.45; preacher, . Abbott, B.D.

TRIBIAN CHURCH (Lower Mallow Street)— 11.30; preacher, Rev. R. H. Sempl-, ntab.). Evening, 6.30; preacher, Rev. usland, B.A.

DIST CHURCH (George-street).—Sunday, 25.—Morning, 11.30; evening, 6.30. at both services, Rev. W. Y. North-

EDY CHURCH.—Morning Service, 11.30; Service, 4.0 (in schoolhouse).

APTIST CHURCH (Military Road)—Morning 11.30; Evening, 6.30.

CONNELL CHURCH.—Morning Prayer and munion at 11.30 o'clock. Evening .30 o'clock.

PARISH CHURCH.—Morning Prayer at 1. Evening Prayer at 6 p.m.

Y OF FRIENDS (Cecil Sreet).—Sunday: r 1.—Morning, 11 o'clock.

KILKEE.

espondent writes:—Notwithstanding the ed reports of epidemics which were so usly spread in July, the only infectious s visible in Kilkee are those of light- aiety and innocent pleasure. Even the ldark and damp days have failed to in- ith the healthy feeling of enjoyment ; so delightfully characteristic of this lace. A number of most successful ments have been held, including one in a Victoria School, at which there was delightful and varied programme, and ded and enthusiastic audience. y visitors taking part worked splendidly ying vocal and dramatic talent. There or recitations of a high class by a nal lady from London, who kindly offered ces. Amongst those taking part were— Mrs H. Brazier Creagh, Mr. E. Creagh, . Miss O'Brien, Mrs. Ashley Oliver, The liver, Mrs. Markes and Miss Biedermann, yd, Miss Weldon Walshe, Mr. H. Mrs. and Miss Vickery, Miss Zoë Berkley, ennedy and Miss E. Kennedy, the Misses Messrs. F. and H. McCormack, Mr. W. and Miss Julia Huntsman. Kilkee is ly full and has been exceptionally free sickness, and a good many houses have en for September.

In a deposition, Sergeant Wellwood stated that the prisoner was brought to John Street Police Station on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. While in the cell she attempted to strangle herself, and was prevented executing the act by the timely intervention of two constables and himself.

District Inspector Craig said the woman had a bad head, and to save her he asked that she be bound over.

The magistrates bound accused to keep the peace for twelve months, or in default three months' imprisonment.

TRAVELLING WITHOUT A TICKET.

A young woman named Anne Howard was charged by the Great Southern and Western Railway Company with travelling from Templemore to Limerick without a ticket.

Michael Farrell, checker, stated that he demanded the ticket at Pallas, when she stated that she had not one. He reported the matter to the authorities.

The defence was that a return ticket was purchased, and the return half was lost.

A fine of 1s. and 10s costs was imposed.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MATILDA RYAN.

To-day the remains of the late Mrs. Matilda Ryan, whose death occurred on Thursday morning, were interred in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The deceased was wife of Mr. Robert Ryan, and by her kindly disposition and affable manner had endeared herself to a large circle of friends. Last evening, at 8 o'clock, the remains were removed to St. Michael's parochial church from Thomas-street, and this morning, at 11 o'clock, service for the dead was held in presence of a large congregation. The funeral to-day was of very large proportions, and was a striking testimony to the popularity and esteem in which the deceased was held in the city.

The chief mourners were—Robert Ryan (husband), Jack, Innocent, Robert, and Gerard Ryan, (sons), John Phelan (father), Thomas Phelan (brother), Very Rev. Archdeacon Ryan, P.P., V.F., Fethard; Rev. E. Ryan, J. Ryan, T. Ryan, M. Ryan, and J. O'Malley (brothers-in-law).

The clergy present were—Rev. Father O'Connor, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Father O'Carroll, C.C.; Rev. Father Devane, C.C.; Rev. Father Thornhill, C.C.; Rev. Father Duan, P.P., V.F., Murroe; Rev. Fr. McGrath, O.S.A.; Rev. Fr. Creed, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Kinnane, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Hourigan, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Coughlan, S.J.; Rev. Fr. Powell, O.P.; Rev. Fr. McCormack, O.P.; Rev. Fr. Hennessy, O.S.A.; Rev. Fr. Nolan, O.S.A.; Rev. Dr. Connolly, O.S.A.; Rev. Fr. Bernard, O.F.M.; Rev. Fr. Magweeen, C.S.S.R.; Rev. Fr. Kelly, C.S.S.R., and Rev. Fr. Fitzgerald, C.S.S.R.

The attendance of the general public was extremely large, every interest in the city being represented. Several beautiful floral tributes were laid on the grave, and the last prayers were recited by Archdeacon Ryan.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mr. R. Ryan and family, Geary's Hotel, beg to thank all those who sent letters and telegrams of sympathy in their bereavement, and trust that they will accept this acknowledgment, as it would be impossible to reply to the numerous messages of condolence received.

CITY TECHNICAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Mr. J. Cronin presided at a meeting of the City Technical Education Committee last evening. The other members present were—Miss Doyle, provinces out of England, and as far as they hear the people of England would be only to receive the cattle over there (hear, hear). thought the action of the authorities was unreasonable in keeping on the embargo cattle.

Mr. M. Fitzgerald, Assistant Secretary County Council, as secretary to the m submitted the following resolution:—" inasmuch as the time has come for the dis- pan and store cattle, and the grass from this running short, we desire to convey to the l ment the absolute necessity for removi embargo from the South and West of I and all the unaffected areas, and have th of England and Scotland also opened for tra Failing this the country will be placed in grave and serious financial position."

The Chairman asked if that would su views of the meeting. The Home Departm regarded the ports was all right, but it was F ports they wanted opened.

Mr. Fitzgerald said it had been sugges him that the principal object for whi meeting was called was for the purpose pointing a deputation to wait on Mr. Russell to enforce the views of the represen of Munster to have the restrictions remove

The Chairman said his view of the matt that it was on the other side of the Channe should bring pressure (hear, hear). Mr. had done all he could in the matter, but powerless as far as across the Channel w cerned, if the people there did not Those people were treating Ireland in : unfair manner.

Mr. Mitchell said they should draw up lution on the lines suggested by the Chairm

Mr. Wm. O'Connell, victualler, Limeric he had been in Birkenhead recently, an was an American ring there, who wanted cattle at their own prices. He had cattl and he had to sell beef at 6 1-8d per pound they had the offal as a margin of profit. He strongly advise the people not to go to the but what could be done.

Chairman—That is where our grievance in. Mr. O'Connell's statement was borne the report of the previous day's meet Dublin, as it appeared in the Press.

Mr. O'Connell said a gentleman in Dublin a statement that beef was selling in England per pound. It would be a great blessing graziers of Ireland would keep up the catt fortnight or so, and starve those fellows ou had himself seen 200 cattle, American thir stall-fed animals, coming into that port.

Mr. Fitzgerald then read the followin lution, which was proposed by Mr. A and seconded by Mr. T. Bourke— this meeting, representative of public farmers, and stock owners, cattle trader merchants, desire to impress upon the G ment the immediate necessity of openi English, Scotch, and Welsh ports for the ad of cattle from unaffected areas in Ireland. time has come when shortness of keep is be to be felt, and unless something definite i immediately, a large proportion of the pe the country, who are dependent for their hood on the cattle trade, will be faced wit and further that it means ruin to of the cattle if they are compelled to be ke another month. That a copy of this resol sent to the Prime Minister, the Chief Se for Ireland, and to each member of Parlia

The resolution was passed unanimously.

Chairman—And we will send copies Lord Lieutenant, and the heads of the Bo Agriculture in England.

Mr. O'Connell—These are the people w to wake up.

Mr. Mitchell said that copies should sent to the Members of Parliament of all beliefs.

Chairman—That is included already, i will have it carried out.

Mr. Mitchell said it meant ruin to the of cattle in Ireland if the cattle were kept