To this Messrs. Connolly and Co. replied as

"DEAR SIE-We are in receipt of your favour. of the 18th inst. We have read same for our elient, and have directed him to make a thorough examination so as to ascertain if everything that was ordered to be done has been done before finally closing. Let this be distinctly under-stood—Our offer was made in response to an appeal by your chairman. Mr. Coleman, in which he asked us if this case could not be settled. told him that we thought it could be settled on the terms of your clients paying our costs as between solicitor and client and the expenses that he had been put to himself. Mr. Coleman said he thought that that would be fair, and asked that we would communicate with you, and which we accordingly did, and in reply we furnished particulars which you have got, and as far as we are concerned all that you have got to de is this, that unless we have either your elients' cheque for the amount of these costs and expenses, or an agreement or undertaking to pay them as furnished, the case will go on forthwith, and we cannot afford to allow the matter to hang any longer, while the time is running out for the delivery of our claims, and your clients would be the first to allege that we delayed over the action, and that we were not in real earnest in our proceedings, -Yours faithfully, "P. S. CONNOLLY & Co."
