command the procession re-formed, and the Durbar ceremony was held according to programme, the senior member of Council, Sir Guy Fleetwood Wilson, delivering his Excellency's replies to the addresses of the non-official members of Council and Lieutenant-Governor of the Funjab.

The medical report of his Excellency's surgeon is as follows:—A portion of the projectile struck the back of the right shoulder along the border of the shoulder blade. It passed upwards and came out through the skin along the upper line of the shoulder, causing a wound four inches long, exposing the muscle and bone. There is no injury to the lungs. A fragment osseed a small wound on the right side of the neck, but this is not serious. There are also four small wounds, caused by nails, on the back of the right hip. All these are slight. There has been a moderate loss of bloud, out the shook has been severe, and there is some deafness, caused by the explosion. His Excellency soon after his injuries lost sometiousness, but recovered quickly. The wounds have been dressed, and his Excellency is now fairly comfortable.

THE CROZIER CASE.

Justice of the Sentences.

Commenting on the 'Croziers' sentences, the Standard says :- The man was a cipher, a social and moral isilare, only secured against a miserable indigence by a small private income, and he was completely dominated by the servant whom he made his second wife. She was the head and front of the whole affair, and justice is only done in awarding her a sentence proportioned to the degree of her active criminality. She seems to have united an unusually positive character with etania and Caronia, now on a most unfeeling and callous heart. The type is the very standard of the common. It is met with in all

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES IN CLARE.

At a special court held yesterday, before Mr. John McInery, J.P., at Ennistymon, Martin Droney, from Kilfenora, was returned for trial to to the next Quarter Sessions on a charge of having obtained ten shillings by false pretences from persons in the town. One witness stated he gave the accused money because he said that he wanted it for a farmer, whom he named. Subsequently his suspicions were aroused when he saw the accused travelling by train to Ennia.

INTERVIEW WITH B.M.A. SECRETARY

Dr. Cox, Medical Secretary of the British Medical Association, interviewed to-day, replied to a statement accompanying the resignation of six prominent members from the Council. He said the question at issue was whether the majority or the minority were to rule. The vote of the profession had resulted in an enormous majority against secepting the present conditions. How could any democratic association come to any other decision than that of the repre entative meeting in face of the rote on the part of its constituents.
