- given a grant of £325 towards the cost of the
- restoration of St. Mary's Cathedral organ. This
- grant was given conditionally on a like sum being
- raised by public subscription. A few pounds
- more are still required to realise the necessary
- amount, and it is hoped that those who have not
- already subscribed will kindly do so as soon as
- possible.

rink, and large numbers are enjoying this ex-
-hilarating pastime. An attractive programme
- has been arranged for holiday makers. There
- will be skating each afternoon and evening, and
- on Thursday night a hockey match. Cork v.
- Eimerick, will be played. Friday will be lucky
- number night. There will be a band at each
- session. The floor is in capital order.

The Athenæum.

The best of a magnificent series of pictures
- presented to visitors at the Athenæum Picture-
-drome last night was "The Indian's Reconpen-
-se." It contained all the elements of adventure, and
- was typical of Oriental life, depicting courtship,
- cowardice, opportunity, and the fulfilment of a
- vow. It was followed with the utmost interest,
- and concluded with a portrait view of Yellow
- Hawk and Morning Star. Eight other subjects
- were thrown on the screen, one being particularly
- attractive, a coloured view, entitled an Excursion
- to Chateau Chombard. A very humorous and
- comic picture was one "Meals for Nothing,"
- which was highly appreciated.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. FORREST.

The remains of the late Mr. Jeremiah Forrest,
- whose death occurred with such tragic suddenness
- on Friday morning, were interred on Sunday in
- Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. On Saturday
- evening the coffin containing the body was re-
- moved from St. John's Cathedral, where it rested
- overnight, and service for the dead was held on
- Sunday morning. At 3 o'clock the casket was
- taken out, and the funeral, which was of very
- large dimensions, started for the cemetery, pro-
- ceeding by Broad street, Charlotte Quay, Patrick
- street, and William street. In the cortege every
- phase of city life was represented, and on all sides
- there were expressions of deep regret at the early
- demise of one who was a favourite with all who
- knew him. The proportions of the procession were
- a fitting tribute to his memory, which will not
- soon fade from the minds of his fellow-citizens.

The chief mourners were—Mr. James Forrest
- (father); Mr. P. J. Forrest, City High Constable
- (brother); Mr. W. Merriott, and Mr. J. Merriott
- (brothers-in-law).

The clergy present were—Rev. M. Murphy,
- Adm., St. John's; Rev. R. Fitzgerald, C.C., do.;
- Rev. T. J. McNamara, C.C., and Rev. J.
- Carroll, C.C.

Included among the general public, of which it
- would be impossible to give anything like a com-
- plete list, were—His Worship the Mayor; Ald.
- J. Joyce, M.P.; Dr. C. McDonnell, J.P., City
- High Sheriff; members of the Corporation, Harbour
- Board, Poor Law Board, and several prominent
- citizens.

A long array of vehicles brought up the rear of
- the sad procession, and many handsome floral
- tributes were laid on the bier.

Father Murphy officiated at the graveside.
