night a very select programme was shown, opening with a drama view entitled "The Lord and the Peasant," being the story of a tragedy in which a fair maiden, a peasant lad, and a noble lord figure. The State industry was another fine picture, interesting and highly instructive, while comedy was represented in a film depicting the "Awakening of Jones."

The Rink.

A bumper programme is again provided at the above popular place of entertainment. Pictures and first-class variety turns are admirably blended, and the programme is calculated to please the most exacting patrons. The films are very good, and include a due admixture of the dramatic and comic element. The artists "Max and Meselle" appear in a screamingly funny musical sketch, entitled "The Lieutenant and Corporal Slippery." The couple are eccentric comedians of high merit, and their singing and patter go to make an excellent quarter-of-an-hour's enjoyment.

DEATH OF MR. M. A. HANRAHAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael Alfred Hanrahan, in his 68th year. The sad event took place at his residence, 8 Lower Mallow street, to-day. The deceased was the youngest surviving son of the late Bryan Hanrahan, a well-known and respected merchant of this city. His brothers, James Jerome Hanrahan, M.D., Surgeon Major, and Thomas Hanrahan, C.E., pre-deceased him many years since. Funeral on Thursday morning from his residence for Mount St. Lawrence at 10.30

Restrictions on Irish Cattle.

Action of Mr. T. W. Russell.

London, Monday night. I understand, says a correspondent, that the Vice President of the Irish Department of Agriculture has decided to remove all restrictions on cattle in Ireland with the exception of the district within a five mile radius of Mullingar, and has telegraphed orders to this effect to the officials in Ireland to-night. It is also expected that to-morrow Mr. Runciman will announce the removal of all the restrictions in England, with the exception of the 12 hours' detention.
