His lordship made no reply.
Pleasance Pendrel was ordered four months in the second division.
Jane Short and Sarah Bennett, who stated that she was one of the six who did the Edinburgh to London march, each received six months in the second division, and a similar sentence was passed upon Clara Lambert, who declared she would hunger strike.

P. Y. M. A. LITERARY CLASS.

Lecture by Rev. St. John Seymour B.D.

The Rev. St. John Seymour, B.D., M.A., delivered a lecture before the P.Y.M.A. Literary Class last night on "The Rock of Cashel." He dealt with the subject from the historical as well as the archaeological standpoint, and gave some interesting stories connected with some of the famous personages who lived on "The Rock." The rev. lecturer was much assisted by a large number of excellent slides, which were made for the lecture by Dr. George Fogerty, R.N. The President (Rev. T. F. Abbott, B.D.) conveyed the thanks of the meeting to Mr. Seymour, as also to Dr. George Fogerty for making the slides.
On next Friday, Mr. Wm. Fry, J.P., of Dublin, will give a lecture, entitled "Impressions of Australia."
