GOOD FRIDAY.

Yesterday being Good Friday it was observed with all solemnity and impressiveness befitting the occasion. Special services were held in the City Churches of all Lenominations, and were attended by large congregations. In the evening at St. Mary's Cathedral the anthem, "Out of the Deep" (Martin) was sung, and later on, "He was despised," and "Surely He hath borne our grief" (Handel). The hymns were—"There is a green hill," and "Rock of Ages." The preacher was the Precentor. The other officiating elergy were—The Bishop, the Dean, and Succentor.

The day, though cold and with some heavy showers was on the whole favourable for outdoor exercise, and being, as usual, a general holiday in the city, a large number of citizens spent the day in the country.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN C. HANRAHAN.

The death took place yesterday morning at his residence, after a lingering illness, of Captain Charles Hanrahan, who was for some years master of the river steamship "Shannon." He was a general favourite, and his demise is greatly regretted by a large circle of friends. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon from St. Michael's R.C. Church for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.

Finance Act Burden

The Daily Telegraph Racing cor Hotspur," writes—I am in a posi nounce—and the statement is made regret—that the Duke of Devonshire to retire from active participation in r racehorses and breeding stud are there dispersed. I understand that the reas act of financial economy are not uncon the burdens imposed under Mr. Lloy Finance Act of 1911. His Grace is ar landowner with large outgoings, as with big income which alone seems to popular imagination. He has reheavily charged in connection with House in Piccadilly, and it must not be that the estate of the late Duke of Dev called on to meet considerable de Thus the present holder of the title, I feels that under the harsh legislat Government he cannot any longer maintain the racing, and breeding s have done much in contributing t general welfare of the turf, and of thoroughbred.
