

Sir,—We have under contemplation on of a grain store on opposite side of to dock premises, and similar to our d at present existing on the latter. To efficient, gangways would be required ie public roadway and connect the two

These gangways would carry grain-bands driven by machinery, and the n would be such as to satisfy the its of the Borough Engineer. (Two proposed.)

AMES BANNATYNE & SONS, LIMITED.
(J. ELLIS GOODBODY, Director).

(COPY).

Town Clerk's Office,
Town Hall, Limerick,

14th August, 1913.

SIR—I beg to inform you that, at the f the Improvement Committee last our letter of the 8th inst., asking per- erect two gangways over the Dock connection with your proposed new was read, as was also a report thereon ity Surveyor, stating he saw no reason rmission should not be granted. The , however, before coming to a decision er, decided to refer the application to ke, City Surveyor, to report on, and lan showing the height of the proposed over the roadway, the exact position proposed to erect the gangways, and articulars ort will come before the Committee at eting on the 27th inst., when I trust a sion will be arrived at.—Yours faith-

“ W. M. NOLAN, Town Clerk.
J. ELLIS GOODBODY, Esq., Director,
Messrs. James Bannatyne & Sons, Ltd.”

[COPY].

“ Limerick 16th August, 1913
James Bannatyne & Sons, Limited.
J. Peacocke, Esq.”

“ NEW DOCK PREMISES.

SIR,—Your letter with regard to above th thanks. We wish to avoid the ex- ands etc. if possible for the present, and d to hear if your Council could see its at us provisional consent to the gang- et to the plans when presented to you ved.

ould then be able to proceed, and have hatever of our ability to satisfy the thorities, before starting any actual regard to the points you mentioned. essed to do so we should prefer not to sider a subway.

uld entail much much more expense as difficulties arising from the existence of ind gas and water-main.

ind reply in course will oblige.—Yours

AMES BANNATYNE & SONS, LIMITED.
(J. ELLIS GOODBODY, Director).

[COPY.]

Town Clerk's Office, Town Hall,
“ Limerick, 28th August, 1913.
“ NEW DOCK PREMISES.

SIR,—Your further letter of 16th ne City Surveyor was considered by ment Committee at its meeting last a connection with the matter a de- dock labourers attended and objected ation by your firm being granted on that any extension of what they “soaker” would seriously injure them dockers in the city.

The delegates of the English Trades Council, who have returned to Dublin, sent a communication to the employers complaining of the breaking off of the conference negotiations.

The employers met yesterday, and sent a prompt reply, in which they point out that, so far as they could see, the conference did not contain the machinery for any lasting settlement, inasmuch as the means of making effective agreements did not exist.

ATHENÆUM PICTUREDROME.

As usual there is an engaging display at the Athenæum Hall Picturedrome of comic and dramatic films, and general subjects and last evening a large house thoroughly appreciated the bill of fare. It included the following subjects which will also be produced this evening:—“The Orphan” (drama), “Brother Bill” (W. drama), “Stolen Loaf” (drama), Alixe, or Test of Friendship” (drama), “Bloomer, Acrobat” (comic), “Physical Education” (Interesting) “Billy's Boxing Gloves” (comic), “Arabia Takes Health Cure” (comedy). There will be changes of pictures on Wednesday and Thursday; Friday and Saturday.

FUNERAL OF MR. THOMAS RYAN

The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Ryan, grocer and spirit dealer, Shaanon-street, an old and widely known citizen, took place on Sunday afternoon, for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. The extreme inclemency of the weather did not prevent a vast cortege assembling, which was in every respect influential and representative of the citizens and various parts of Limerick, Clare, and Tipperary. At 2 o'clock the coffin was taken out from St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, and the procession, which, as stated, was of large proportions, immediately formed up and wended its way to the cemetery.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Ryan (wife); John, Patrick, and Thomas Ryan (sons); William and John Ryan (brothers); Thomas, John, and Michael Ryan (nephews); Mrs S. Coffey and Mrs M. Coffey (sisters-in-law); Dr. D. Coffey and Dr. P. Coffey (brothers-in-law).

The clergy present were—Rev. Fr. Devane, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Carroll, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Dwane, C.C. (St. Michael's); Rev. Fr. Carroll, C.C. (St. Munchin's); Rev. Fr. Hennessy, O.S.A., and Rev. Fr. Power, S.J.

The general public included:—The Mayor (Alderman P. O'Donovan), Alderman M. Joyce, M.P.; E. Coffey, solicitor; T. Ryan, J.P.; J. Egan, George street; R. T. Hartigan, M. Egan, Patrick street; Dr. Roberts, M. Leahy, J.P.; R. T. Lavery, A. J. O'Leary, V.S.; A. Nestor, Dr. Devane, E. J. O'Riordan, V.S.; T. Cowper, R. Nunan, C.E.; D. Coffey, M. Coffey, C. Hartigan, J. J. O'Malley, C.E.; J. Barry, T. Bourke, B.C.; P. Roehe, M. O'Brien, B.C.; Kennedy O'Brien, M. Kelly, D. Hayes, Alderman P. M'Donagh, M. J. Kenihan, B.C.; F. Kiely, C. O'Donnell, B.C.; W. Thompson, J. Belshaw, W. Herriott, P. N. Treacy, T. O'Malley, etc.

Wreaths were sent from the wife and family of deceased, and from sympathising friends.

THE PADDOCKS SUPPLEMENTARY SHEEP SALE.

Saturday Last.

Mr Wm. B. Fitt, Auctioneer, held the usual Supplementary Sheep Sale on Saturday last.

the day it was decided by 213 remain at work. The decision is severe set back to the strikers.

Yorkshire Railwaymen Wapping.

Liverpool Later.—The Yorkshires at Wapping Dock Station came out afternoon after dealing with all goods.

Midland Railway

1,000 Men Out at Birmingham.

About 300 Midland Railway men, this morning, refused to handle merchandise and were told to go to receive their money. The situation rapidly and this afternoon 1,000 work.

It is stated 6,000 men will be out tonight.

SITUATION IN DUBLIN TO-DAY.

PROCESSION OF UNEMPLOYED.

Our Dublin correspondent wires that the situation regarding the strike is up to this afternoon. There was an addition to the strikers. The public had an idea of the number out by a procession of unemployed, which traversed the principal streets. It was accompanied by police. Everything orderly.

Larkin is expected to speak later.

FORTHCOMING INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE

In Limerick.

The initial step was taken by the Limerick Industrial Association this afternoon, when a meeting of the citizens of the Chamber of Commerce to make arrangements for the All-Ireland Industrial Conference held in the city on the 22nd and 23rd month.

The Mayor presided, and there was a large attendance.

Letters of apology for non-attendance were read from, among others—The Ven. Mr. Hackett, Mr. W. M. Nolan, J.P.; Mr. J. P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor; Mr. J. B. J. J.P., and Mr. J. S. Gaffney, C.S.

The objects of the meeting were stated by the Mayor to consist in the making of arrangements for the forthcoming Conference, which will be the ninth of the kind held in this country.

Mr. M. O'Callaghan, B.C., said that the conference was held in Limerick with a great success. These conferences were an integral part of the work of the industrial