

and the magnificent efforts of that minute the situation, but there is a the numbers of Unionists outside the peculiar risks to which they are ay be so completely overshadowed ay eventually be overlooked, and that omise may be arrived at by politicians backs, which must inflict upon them ation and terrible losses. It is to be this aspect of the present situation to those Unionists who have not as ed to the special appeal. No one can a Home Rule Parliament, in new one, would in a single year deprive sums many times greater than those d to bring our cause to a successful

LECTION OF OFFICERS.

uquin was re-elected President, amid r the ensuing year, and Mr R R r elected Vice-President, in the place Lord Dunboyne, who had filled that oe the foundation of the club.

references to the late Vice-President by several members.

. MacNamara was re-appointed Hon. and the old Committee were re-

RESS TO MR. BONAR LAW.

ident was deputed to present the ad, the County Clare Unionist Club to Mr on the occasion of the forthcoming ion in Dublin, on November 28th, and ng ten special delegates were chosen nt Clare at the meeting—W. C. V. I. W. Paterson, Capt. Molony, R. R. P. Wakeley, Col. Tottenham, Dr J. H. Rev. E. H. Crawford, and M. A. a.

ress to be presented to Mr Bonar Law ered and approved.

3. W. W. A. FITZGERALD.

W. A. Fitzgerald proposed the following

— "That we, the members of the are Unionist Club, and other Unionists at Dromoland, to-day, declare again, h time in three years, our steadfast rable opposition to Home Rule; for we lieve that if it were put into operation it productive of untold misery in Ireland, urbances of the gravest kind in Great nd strike a disastrous blow at the the Empire. We also desire to record felt gratitude to the brave men and Ulster for the sturdy and gallant fight vaging in defence of the Union under land intrepid leaders."

Fitzgerald said he was well assured that a the South of Ireland was the gravity isis that confronted them more fully han by the Unionists of Clare. Mr. and his friends have overlooked or one all-important and supreme factor. ie of reform, be it small or great, can to be successful unless it has behind it land enthusiastic support of all sections s of the people. Mr Redmond has not d never will have. (Hear, hear).

MR. RHYS.

ys said when he was asked and consented ver to Ireland he realised that he was er to learn and not to teach, and now ad come he realised very much more the people in England and Wales knew a less about the question than they ought, hear)—and he should certainly make ations in headquarters when he got at it would be a very good thing numbers of English people were r to the South and West of Ireland information first hand. (Hear, hear).

imitable way. Miss Moore's pretty voice was heard to great advantage in some tuneful melodies. Master Collins danced with great spirit an "Irish Jig." Mr. C. W. Baker, the well-known black and white artist, sang "Rafferty's Racing Mare," and well deserved the rounds of applause for his sketch, "The Dandy." Mr. Tom Bennett also gave a fine rendering of "The Man from Snowy River." The accompaniments were beautifully played by Miss Higgins. Special thanks are due to the latter lady, as the success of the musical part was in no small measure due to her. At very short notice and great personal inconvenience she placed her talents at the service of the Committee. Nice views shown by Magic Lantern and lent by the Society in Dublin, were produced by Mr. W. O'Brien Donovan, who otherwise also gave valuable help in connection with the entertainment. Thanks are also accorded to the President, the Hon. Mrs. Baring, who lent chairs, palms, pot-plants, etc. Canon McNamara, who lent his piano, also Mrs. Bennett (Rathancy), Miss O'Meara, Mrs T. B. Bennett, Miss Fogarty, etc., who worked indefatigably, and decorated the room and stage which were greatly admired, to Messrs Healy, O'Shaughnessy, Casey, etc, who lent chairs, lamps, focus, etc., and to the Nuns and Christian Brothers. The Hall was crowded to its utmost limit. Mr. Hunt kindly acted as door keeper. Messrs W. and H. Hunt rendered great assistance. All present were delighted with the entertainment which was in aid of the Nursing Fund. Quite a nice sum was realized.—COM.

FUNERAL OF MR. MARTIN KELLY.

The funeral took place on last Sunday from St. Michael's R.C. Church of Mr. Martin Kelly, Carr Street, whose death occurred at St. John's Hospital after a few days illness. The interment took place at Parteen Cemetery, and the attendance of mourners was very large and representative. The deceased, who was only 29 years of age, leaves a wife and four young children to mourn his early demise. Great sympathy is felt with Mrs. Kelly, who is a daughter of the late Mr. Mathew Larkin, G.P.O., Limerick, in the keen sorrow which has overtaken her and her little children.

GOOD LITERATURE BARROW.

Michael Benvis, of 5 Grattan street, was the only claimant for the prizes offered last Sunday, being the lucky holder of the winning coupons for two of the four prizes offered, securing the special prize and the second prize. On next Sunday a number of new booklets will be on sale dealing with social problems, which in view of current labour troubles and unrest will be found to be timely publications, valuable, informative, and interesting.

LIMERICK HARBOUR TIDE TABLE

OCTOBER.

CHANGES OF THE MOON.

Last Quarter, 22nd 10.35 p.m.

New Moon, 29th 2.29 p.m.

TIDES.

		MORNING.				AFTERNOON.
		Time.	Height.	Time.	Height.	Time.	Height.	Time.	Height.
		H. M.	F. I.	H. M.	F. I.	H. M.	F. I.	H. M.	F. I.
Sat.	25	1 59	17 6	2 34	18 1
Sunday	26	3 3	18 10	3 28	19 8
Monday	27	3 51	20 1	4 13	20 8
Tues	28	4 35	21 1	4 57	21 8

OSRAM LAMP

Users of Electric Light c
LARGE SAVI
in present quarter, an
BETTER LIG
with small outlay, by OSRAM LAMPS wherever

R. W. WILLY, Electric
17 O'CONNELL ST., LI

IN THE MO

We All Love Our C

WOODFO

TEA

REFRESHING!! DEL

5 lbs. of 2s. or 2s. 6d. Po

WOODFORD, BOURI

LTD., LIMERIC

LADIES' TAILO

FIRST CLASS DIPLOMA,
Art, Drury Lane, and Fir
Anglo-Parisian School of Dress C

MRS. HALLINAN, 7 C

NOTICE

THE Demesne of Curra
adjoining lands, bogs
property of Mr. De Vere, are s Any person found trespassing of game or rabbits will be prose

HOUSE TO I

GRINAN VILLAS, Ballin
seven apartments with
and cold water, w.c., garden
with entrance back and front
Hannan, 31-32 O Connell Stre

COUNTY BOROUGH C
LIMERICK.

LAND FOR BUILDING

THE Council are prepared to
as building sites, or for th
ng factories, etc., thereon, port
New Corkanree, comprising abc and conveniently situated to the Full particulars can be had on undersigned.

By order,
W. M. NOLAN.