THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR—I would be glad if you will kindly set the following:—There are rumours being ulated that all the seats are booked for one ek, and that we have no vacant seats. I would e to intimate that we have quite a large number dress circle seats available for Monday night d during the week, which can be obtained at oCarthy's Music Stores, George street—Yours ithfully.

SITUATION IN DUBLIN TO-DAY.

AN UNEVENTFUL DAY.

Our Dublin correspondent wires this evening:—
 Up to the time of telegraphing it has been an uneventful day in the city. A feeling of greater confidence prevails.

The sailors and firemen on board the Wearwell,
 which is being unloaded by free labourers, remained at work as usual, although it was rumoured they were to strike last night. Messrs Morgan and Mooney paid off their hands to-day.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. A. BLENNERHASSETT.

The funeral of the late Mr. John Arthur Blennerhassett, managing clerk of Messrs E. H. P.
 Hosford & Co., whose sad demise we recorded in our last issue, took place this morning from his residence, 17 County View Terrace, for St.
 Munchin's Cemetery. There was a large gathering of friends as a mark of respect to the memory of one whom they highly esteemed in business and private life, and of sympathy with his widow in her keen sorrow. The blinds of the P.Y.M.A., of which the deceased was an old and valued member, were drawn and Institution closed while the funeral was passing.

The chief mourners were—Messrs Cornelius and John Groves, brothers-in-law of the deceased.

The clergy present were—Rev Canon Waller,
 B.D., and Rev W. R. Keillor, M.A., Trinity Church, and the Rev Precentor Adderley, M.A.

The general public included—Messrs H. Bindon Alton, R. T. Hogan, P. O'Dea (Messrs Hosford & Co.), J. Welpy, W. R. Welpy, C.E., P. Colbert,
