Popular Lectures,

SEASON 1913-14,

AT THE GAIETY

(No. 5)

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 14th, at 8 o'clock.

THEODORE LAWSON

(Solo Violinist, Queen's Hall, London), in a high-class Musical Lecture-Recital, entitled—

"TONE-POETRY"

or, "The Inner Beauty of Music without Words," with Violin and Pianoforte. Illustrations by the Lecturer and Mr. Davidson Wilson (of London).

Mr. Lawson has the faculty of making quite unmusical people take a deep interest in what he has to say about music and of instilling into his audience a keener appreciation of all that is best in musical art. The illustrations will include a description and performance of a Tone-Poem of Beethoven Op. 98 in G. Johannes Brahms, Op. 108 in D minor.

Chairman—Rev. Wm. O'Leary, S.J.
(Mungret College.)

Opening Selection by the Gaiety Orchestra.
Admission—Front Seats, 1s 6d; Middle Seats, 1s; Back Seats, 6d. Front Seats may be reserved without extra charge at M'Carthy's Music Warehouse. Doors open at 7.30. Recital at 8 o'clock. (9-12)

Late Mrs. Davin, Kilfinane

At the monthly meeting of the committee of the Commercial Club, Mallow, Mr. J. O'Hagan, chairman, in the chair, a vote of condolence was passed to Mr. N. F. Davin, Mallow, on the death of his mother, Mrs. Davin, Kilfinane, County Limerick.
