The Treasurer (Mr. Thomas Reidy) submitted his balance sheet which showed a very considerable sum to the credit of the Division. He said that in addition the Pipers' Band and furniture were "assets" worth at least £100 in all. They were in a healthy and progressive condition.

On the motion of Bro. T. Harte, Bros. R. Reilly and M. Spring were appointed to audit the accounts.

The Insurance Secretary, Mr. Collins submitted his report since the period when benefits began, just a year ago. In all, he said, they had paid 363 claims including maternity benefits to the amount of £192 15s. This money enabled the insured during illness to keep the wolf from the door, and, still more, it enriched their town and indirectly gave the poor a more independent mind and a feeling that the taint of pauperism was on its last legs, and that workhouses, those sad land marks of Ireland's famine days, would be in a short period only monuments of a time in the history of our country when their famine and misfortunes were without parallel in the civilised world. The Insurance Act had come to stay. It was the first direct force to make the workman independent. The members would be pleased to learn that the Insurance Section was steadily increasing, and whilst their members were adhering to their society a very big number of transfers had been effected during the recent month, to the A. O. H. An idea may be gained of the benefits from the fact that one of their deceased Brothers during the present year had only paid about 5s and his widow was sent immediately a death benefit of £10.

The Secretary's report was adopted, and the election of officers resulted in the following way unanimously:—President, G Reidy, T C; Vice-President, M Murphy, T C; Deputy Vice-President, B Reidy; Insurance Secretary, J Collins; Finance Secretary, J Moroney; Treasurer, T Reidy. The following were appointed on the General Purpose Committee—Bros. J Philips, Chairman; T Harte, John O'Donohoe, J Dore, James Hartnett, D Casey, P Ryan, M Spring. Visiting Committee—Bros. P. Walshe, J Philips, J Sparling, T O'Sullivan, D Casey, J N Hanly and J Liston.

After some routine business, the meeting adjourned.
