Colonel John DeCourgey O'Grady, C B. D L. Kilballyowen, Co. Limerick, was sworn in on Saturday as High Sheriff of the County before Mr P E O'Donnell, Commissioner for Oaths, and Mr Benjamin K Lucas, of Prospect. Corbally, Limerick, was re-sworn as Under Sherill of the County. The High Sherill has re-appointed Messrs William Leahy and Son, solicitors, Limerick, and 16, Molesworth street, Dublin, as his returning officers.

Mr. Quinlan said it was only fair to mention that they had a nobleminded trader in Tipperary, a Protestant, who had publicly expressed the toleration always shown him by the Catho-

Mr. Coleman thanked the Council for their action in attending and presenting an address. Sean O'Muirthuille, Gaelic League Organiser, also wrote inviting the Council to the public meeting to be held in Limerick on Sunday, 1st February, in connection with the furtherance of the Irish language movement. Mr. O'Shaughnessy said he had much pleasure in proposing, that as many as possible would attend the public demonstration on Sunday, 1st February, and that the Council in addition would present an address to Dr Douglas Hyde, who was the pioneer of this great organisation. If the Gaelic League had done nothing but to uplift the young men of the country and make them believe they were not serfs it had fulfilled its objects, and the least the Council should do would be to attend the meeting and present an address of welcome to Dr. Hyde.

Mr. Coleman seconded, and Mr. O'Shaughnessy's proposition was unanimously agreed to.

On the proposition of Mr. O'Shaughnessy, the Council decided to support the resolutions forwarded relative to the reinstatement by the Estates Commissioners of Mr. M. Whelan, Ballynanty, Bruff, to the holding from which his granufather was evicted, or that he get a holding equivalent to it on the estate acquired by the Commissioners,
