

Bannatyne's last Friday night. (Applause.) They did most excellent work under the able guidance of their chief, Captain Sheehan—(applause)—and he was sure they would do the same whenever called on (hear, hear). He had to thank also Mr O'Flynn, whose popularity was well attested by the fact that at the recent election he polled the highest member of votes ever recorded at such an election in the city (hear, hear). In conclusion he had to thank all the members for their great kindness, and to assure them he would do all in his power for the best interests of the city (applause).

HOME RULE.

Mr Johnson proposed, and it was seconded unanimously, a resolution reiterating the demand of the people for Home Rule, and earnestly trusting that the present year would witness the fruition of their hopes.

SHRIEVALTY.

Mr Johnson next proposed that the name of Mr Stephen O'Mara be placed first on the list for the office of City High Sheriff. He did not know if there were any words needed to support the resolution. Mr O'Mara was always a sturdy and consistent Nationalist, and was so for the last 40 years. He was also a large employer of labour and a good one, and taking all these things into consideration, they were in honouring Mr O'Mara but honouring themselves in having such a worthy citizen as City High Sheriff.

Mr. Cusack, seconded the resolution which passed unanimously.

Mr. J. P. Lynch, and Mr. J. Lalor, were placed second and third respectively on the list.
