 that I am opposed to trades unionism. On the contrary, I am an upholder of properly constituted and administered trades unionism. In fact I am President this year of a registered trades union, comprising a very large membership, covering all Ireland, but I am resolutely opposed to Socialism, Larkinism, and Mooreism, the enemies of society, and the would-be destroyers of the relations existing between capital and labour, between employer and employe.—I am, yours, faithfully.

WEEKLY CATTLE SALE

THE AGRICULTURAL HALL.

On Saturday last Messrs. Ebrill Bros., Auc-tioneers, held their usual weekly sale of dairy cattle. The entries were quite up to expectation, 100 head being listed for the sale, with a few lots of calves and sheep in addition. A touch of milder weather put buyers in a better frame of mind, and trade ruled much stronger than at last week's sale, and prices were better and a readier clearance was effected.
 Many of the cattle unfortunately showed too evident traces of the recent hard times, and did not commend themselves to buyers; but any cattle with quality and condition were eagerly bid for and readily sold at satisfactory prices.
 Granted a continuance of the present fine weather a further advance in prices may be expected. The bawn of cows on sale attracted many buyers and sold to good advantage. The following are some of the sales:—Mr Gall-igan's first draft of incalf heifers from £14 12s 6d to £13 5s; Mr Murphy's second draft from £15 to £14 7s 6d; Mr Conway's first draft from £15 12s 6d to £14 7s 6d; Mr M'Sweeney's from £18 10s to £13 2s 6d; Mr Lane's from £18 to £15; Mr Gorman's from £15 5s to £14; Mr O'Brien's first draft from £17 to £15s 7s 6d; Mr Egan's second draft from £15 15s to £14 15s; Mr Kennedy's from £14 12s 6d to £12;
 Mr O'Donnell's from £16 to £14 15s; Mr Ryan's from £16 to £15 5s; Mrs Shine's from £15 10s to £14 10s; Mr O'Connell's from £15 10s to £14; bawn of cows £16 5s to £9; Mr Mooney's from £15 to £10; Mr Hanley's from £16 to £12; calves, £6 to £4; hoggets, 38s.

Auction of City Property

Mr. A. J. Sexton, auctioneer, held his sale at the salerooms, 5, Cecil-street, Limerick. There were two property lots for sale, consisting of a private dwelling, No. 1, Mount Vincent View, which, after brisk bidding, was withdrawn as the reserve was not reached. A licensed premises at Park Bridge, with four acres of land attached, were sold to Mr. Patrick Healy for £220 and fees. Mr. J. A. Doyle, solicitor, had carriage of sale.

City Gas Engineer's Position

The question of the City Gas Engineer's position came up for consideration at a meeting of the City Gas Committee yesterday, the Mayor presiding, and it was decided that the matter be adjourned until this day week, the 18th inst, when a special meeting will be held to discuss the matter fully.

Larceny of Tinned Salmon

Bridget Hayes, of Listowel, and a woman of the itinerant class named Mangles, were at the Listowel Petty Sessions sentenced to a month's imprisonment each for the larceny of three boxes of tinned salmon from the grocery establishment of Mr P. Corrigan, Main-street.

take over the place for the tenants at the same rent as himself, pending purchase.

Michael Hehir, a herd in the employment of Mr Studdert, gave corroborative evidence.

His worship, in returning prisoners for trial to the assizes on bail, said if the dispute were left in the hands of Father Quin and settled and peace restored, the Crown might not proceed further with it.

Two army airmen, Captain Allen, and Lieutenant Burroughs, saw a Central News wire, fell while flying at Netheravon, Salisbury Plain, this morning and both were killed.

Wm. B. Fitt's Land Sales

At his Salesrooms on Saturday Mr. Wm. B.
 Fitt, auctioneer, held his usual land sales, one lot being for disposal, namely, Castletown Conyers Rectory, Charleville, consisting of residence and about one Irish acre of land held free of rent. It realised £170 and commission, purchaser being Mr. Thomas Kiely. Mr. A.
 Blood-Smyth, solicitor, had carriage of sale.
