Mr. Hanes, District Manager, opened the proceedings, and was received with a storm of applause. He said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I thank you most sincerely for the grand reception given me to-night. During the past quarter of a century it has been my duty, my privilege and my pleasure to welcome you to our meeting to elect a delegate to represent Limerick at the Society's Annual Conference. To-night I welcome you with renewed pleasure, intermingled with feelings of friendship. The spirit of old and true acquaintance truly belongs in Limerick. According to the Society's rule I have now to retire, but before leaving the platform request that a chairman be appointed to conduct the proceedings."
