RED, ROUGH HANDS MADE SOFT AND WHITE.

For red, rough, chapped and bleeding hands, dry, fissured, itching, burning palms, and painful finger-ends, with shapeless nails, a one-night Cuticura treatment works wonders. Directions: Soak the hands, on retiring, in hot water and Cuticura Soap. Dry, anoint with Cuticura Ointment, and wear soft bandages or old, loose gloves during the night.

These pure, sweet and gentle emollients preserve the hands, prevent redness, roughness and chapping, and impart in a single night that velvety softness and whiteness so much desired by women. For those whose occupations tend to injure the hands, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are wonderful.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by chemists everywhere. A sample of each with 32-p. book post-free. Address: F. Newbery & Sons, 27, Charterhouse Sq., London, or Potter Drug and Chem. Corp., Boston, U.S.A.

GREAT MUNSTER FAIR.

For perhaps the first time in the history of the Great Munster Fair, there was no fair held yesterday in Limerick, owing to the scheduling of the district for the prevention of the spread of foot-and-mouth disease.

POLICE COURT.

Mr. P. J. Kelly, R.M., presided at the City Police Court to-day. Rupert Scott, an old offender, was charged with being drunk and riotous on the streets last night, assaulting Night Constable Hannan, who took Scott into custody, and also with assaulting Night Constable Kennedy when the latter came to the assistance of Night Constable Hannan. The accused, on the three charges preferred against him, was fined in the cumulative penalty of 60s. 6d., and in default ordered to be imprisoned for seven weeks.

Christina Massey, an old offender, was sent to gaol for a month, on failing to pay a fine of 40s, for disorderly conduct on the streets.

DROWNING FATALITY.

The body of William Dorman, 30, a deckman on the SS. "Shannon" was recovered from the river this morning. The deceased is stated to be a native of Limerick. An inquest was held on the remains at the City Courthouse this afternoon when the jury returned a verdict of "found drowned."
