THE ATHENAEUM.

At the Athenaeum last night visitors were provided with a programme excellent in every respect. The outstanding feature of the bill was a dramatic subject entitled "A Soldier's Duty," a remarkably clear story brimful of sensation, incidents. Another excellent picture was "The Triumph of Innocence," while pick of the comic subjects was one designated "St. Valentine's Day."

BODY OF INFANT FOUND.

On Sunday afternoon the body of a male infant was recovered from the river near the docks.
 The infant was apparently about a week old, and the body was partially decomposed. The remains
