Roxborough Electors Thanked

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK LEADER
DEAR SIR—May I beg the hospitality of your esteemed journal to publish and most gratefully thank the 389 electors of the Roxborough Division who did me the honour of recording their votes in my favour at the recent election, some of them, as I am aware, at great personal inconvenience. I also beg to acknowledge the great assistance I received from so many willing workers whose kindness I very deeply appreciate.

Lastly, I desire to thank the entire body of the electors who received me most warmly, and even those who were opposed to me regretted that they had not a second vote.

I also wish to congratulate my successful opponent, Mr. Chaney, M.C.C., and to assure him of my best wishes. I trust that any hasty words spoken or acts done which, as we all know, are inseparable from a heated contest, will be speedily forgotten, that old friendships will be renewed, and that we can fight these contests in a friendly spirit and as intelligent, patriotic Irishmen should, without leaving any bitterness in their track.

Yours faithfully,
JAMES F. McDONOUGH.

Castleconnell Petty Sessions

THE LICENSING LAWS

ALLEGED FISHING OBSTRUCTION

At the Castleconnell Petty Sessions on Monday, before Lord Massy (presiding); Messrs. J. G. Howley, S. B. Quin, P. K. Hogan, N. Humphreys and P. J. Kelly, R.M., Patrick Browne, publican, Mountpelier, was summoned for two breaches of the Licensing Act on Sunday, 17th ult., in having his licensed premises open for the sale of drink, and supplying same to Thomas Griffin and William Skehan. Evidence having been given, the defendant was fined in the cumulative penalty of £3 and costs.

William Tucker and Thomas Ryan were the complainants and William Rose and John Mackey the defendants in a summons charging the latter with having on 3rd May last, at Castleconnell, on the River Shannon, resisted or obstructed complainants while lawfully engaged in fishing. Mr. A. Blood-Smyth, solicitor, appeared for the complainants, and Mr. E. Coffey, solicitor, for the defendants. A question of title was involved, and after a protracted hearing the case was adjourned.

On Sunday afternoon the body of a male infant was recovered from the river near St. Michael's Rowing Club Boathouse. The infant was apparently about a week old, and the body was partially decomposed. The remains were removed to the Morgue, and on Monday an inquest was held and an open verdict returned.

support extended to him during his election fight.

The proceedings concluded with the singing of "A Nation Once Again" and "God Save Ireland."

Mr. Mackey has received the following telegrams of congratulation:—

"Limerick—A. Mackey, Castleconnell—Hurrah! Hearty congratulations.—M. Coffey."

"Grange, Limerick—Mackey, Castleconnell Fisheries—Heartiest congratulations from Touring Company."

"Murroe—Anthony Mackey, Co.C., Castleconnell, Fishery Proprietor—Congratulations—Walsh."

"Limerick—Anthony Mackey, Castleconnell—Ten thousand congratulations, victory over Covenanters.—Phelan, Newcastle West."

Several other messages of congratulation were received, amongst those being one from Rev. Father Mathew, Guardian, Athlone, and one from Rev. Father Galvin, Shirrone.

Mr. Mackey desires, through the columns of the LEADER, to return his sincere thanks to his numerous National friends who sent him telegrams and messages of congratulation on his victory, as he is unable to reply to all individually.
