The "Faultless" Man

There is a very old and very wise saying—"Show me a man who has never made a mistake, and I will show you one who has never tried anything." There are plenty of farmers who boasts of never having made mistakes. But you will find the majority of them "back numbers," as the Americans say. These farmers will tell you that they never make mistakes in feeding their live stock, because they follow in the footsteps of their grandfathers. On the adjoining farm is the man who goes in for "Clarendo," and other modern-day necessities. His farm is a success, his horses, sheep, pigs, cattle, and poultry are fat and healthy. His old-fashioned never-made-a-mistake neighbour's farm is run down, out-of-date, farming utensils are in use, and his live stock are in poor condition. He doesn't wake up till he sees his enterprising neighbour driving his stock to market. "Why!" the old-fashioned farmer exclaims, "my stock won't be fit for the market for the next three weeks." "That's where I am ahead of you. I feed my animals on 'Clarendo,' and they thrive," answers the modern-day man. The secret is now explained. All mills stores sell "Clarendo."

members of those club that have not at any time competed in either senior or intermediate county championships. It was further decided that all intermediate and junior clubs affiliated to the Limerick County Board should pay an entrance fee of 2s 6d to the South Limerick League to qualify for participation in the competitions. For the winners of both intermediate and junior competitions the League Committee shall present valuable sets of Irish hand-made medals.

The following draws were made:—Intermediate hurling—Bruff v Kilmallock; Ballinvana v Kilmallock; Dromin v Garrenderk. Junior hurling—Kilmallock v Ballymack. Hospital v Kilmallock, Bruff v Ballinvana, Glenroe v Fedamore; football—Pallas v Kilmallock, Kilmallock v Ballylanders.

Bruff v Kilmallock and Kilmallock v Ballymack were to have played at Kilmallock on Sunday, June 14th, but owing to the field having been engaged for that date for a match, Dromin v Kilmallock Camogie Clubs, the fixtures had to be postponed.

As the draws for the Leagues' competitions are not yet closed it is requested that all teams that intend to compete should enter as soon as possible.

The next meeting will be held at the Castle Hall, Kilmallock, on Sunday next, 21st June; hour, 5.30 p.m. Every club is earnestly requested to send delegates to this important meeting.

Death of Mr. P. Casey, Woodroad, Castleconnell

We regret much to chronicle the passing away of the above much respected and widely esteemed member of a good old stock. Deceased was one of the last links of the Casey family of his period, who were widely connected for generations past in the Castleconnell and Newport districts. The late Mr. Casey was a kind and affectionate husband and parent, a true friend, and an obliging neighbour. His life was the true ideal of the Irish peasant, earnest, hard working and industrious. He passed away peacefully on Sunday last thoroughly reconciled and fortified by the rites of his Church. His remains were conveyed to the Parish Church on Tuesday morning where High Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. The following clergy officiated—Rev P M Inerney, P P; Rev Canon Howard and Rev Father Power, Newport and Rev J Heenan, C C, Castleconnell. The funeral cortege to the family burial place at Ballymackeogh on Tuesday was one of the largest and most representative seen in the locality for years past which testified somewhat to the hold he had on the public esteem. The chief mourners were—Mrs Casey (widow), Pat and Willie (sons), Margaret Mary (daughter), Mrs Hynes and Mrs Blackwell (sisters), Mr M Hynes and Mr Blackwell (brothers-in-law), Miss Sheehan, Mrs Lee, Thomas Sheehan, W F Lee, Pat Casey, Killeen; Michael Casey and Lizzie Casey, Newport; Miss Kearney, Pat, Tom and Martin Kearney, Thomas Casey and Michael Casey, Pollough; Mrs Reardon, Tom Reardon, Owen Ryan, William-street; Michael Ryan, Ned Hynes, John and Pat Hynes, New-garden; Michael Bourke, Newport; Corney Bourke, J Pierce, Bridgetown; J Pierce, Limerick; Michael Ryan, Murroe; Matthew Gleeson, Matthew Gleeson, J P; Bridget Gleeson, Gouig; Matthew Bourke (cousins), M M Namara, the Misses M Namara, Thomas and Michael Coffey, Pat Buckley, Ballina; John Buckley, Annaholt; Tom Ryan, Gouig; M Ryan. The Rev P M Inerney, assisted by the Rev J Heenan and Rev P Power, officiated at the graveside. (American papers please copy.)

Bro. M. Murphy, T.O., presided at the last meeting of the above. Bro. C. Hayes returned thanks to the Society for £5 received as a mortality benefit, though, he said, he had only paid in a few shillings. The Pipers' Band accepted a special invitation to play at Tralee Feis on 29th June. Mr. James P. Lavan, solicitor, was initiated a member and returned thanks for the privilege conferred on him, and said he was proud of being now a member and the movement in the past had his support and sympathy.

... Clare have a really good team, and a most exciting match is sure to be witnessed. Clare junior team always comes out on top over Kerry, but the latter county has gone in for hurling this year more than previously, and they are sanguine of knocking out Clare on Sunday.

Munster Council

A meeting of the Munster Council will be held at Ennis on Sunday after the above matches. Kilrush Football Club has an appeal lodged against the decision of the Clare Appeals Committee in granting a re-play of a football match between Kilrush and Cooraclare. Kilrush won the match and Cooraclare lodged an objection, and the Appeals Committee, by one vote, decided in favour of having the match replayed.
