

Water Bailiff Attacked

SEQUEL AT POLICE COURT

At City Police Court yesterday, before Mr. James Quinn, J.P., a man named Thomas Kelly was charged with being concerned in an attack made on James Geary, a water bailiff, on Saturday night. Geary, seized a net alleged to have been illegally fixed at Corbally, and on returning to the city with the net in question, he was set upon and assaulted by some men. The accused was remanded, bail being taken for his appearance.

Third Order Pilgrimage

The Annual Pilgrimage of the Third Order of Franciscans will take place to Ankraton and Foynes on Sunday next. It promises to be a great success and to attract a larger number of participants in this great religious display than on any former occasion.

Limerick City Division (550) A. O. H.

QUARTERLY MEETING POSTPONED

The quarterly meeting of the above is postponed till Sunday evening, the 5th July, at 8.15 p.m. The meeting was originally fixed for Friday evening, July 3rd, but the date has been changed in view of the Volunteers' Fete.

Insurance Act in Ireland

Mr. Wedgwood Benn, replying in Parliament yesterday to Mr. Gretton, said the latest available figures showed that under the National Insurance Act there were 729,598 insured persons in Ireland, of whom 717,798 were members of approved societies.

Young Ladies Professed

Amongst a number of young ladies professed as nuns in the Convent of St. John of God, Wexford, are Miss O'Brien, youngest daughter of the late Mr. J. O'Brien, Lissard, County Tipperary, and Miss A. Ryan, third daughter of Mr. P. Ryan, Foilderrig, County Tipperary.

Late Miss K. Foley, Sixmile-bridge

THE FUNERAL OBSEQUIES

The remains of the late Miss Katie Foley, Sixmilebridge, were removed on Saturday last from St. Michael's Church, after High Mass, for interment in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The cortege was of large dimensions, and bore ample testimony to the popularity and esteem in which the deceased was held, not alone by the people of her native parish, but also by a wide circle of friends from the Counties of Limerick and Clare. The deceased was a member of one of the best known and most highly respected families in Clare, and her amiable and loving disposition and her kindly nature endeared her to all. Her passing away at such an early age evoked feelings of the deepest regret amongst all classes, rich and poor alike. The clergymen in attendance at the funeral obsequies were—Rev Father Daly, P.P., Sixmilebridge; Rev Father Hogan, C.C., do; Rev Father O'Connor, Adm., St Michael's; Rev Father Hannon, C.C., do; Rev Father O'Carroll, C.C., do; Rev Father Dwane, C.C., do; Rev Father Thornhill, C.C., do; Rev J. Foley, O.M.I., Belcarry, Dublin; Rev W. Scanlan, P.P., Tubber; Rev Father O'Mara, C.C., Doora; Rev Father Benignus, O.P.M., Limerick. The chief mourners were—Mrs A. Hogan, Mrs M. Flannery, Misses Delia and J. Foley (sisters), A. Hogan, M. Flannery (brothers-in-law), M. Foley, J. Foley, T. Foley, Louis Foley, T. Foley, L. and T. Ryan, W. and J. Ryan, A. Brennan, D.C.; T. Brennan, George Frost, D.C.; R. Frost, B.C., P.L.G.; S. Frost, T. O'Brien, R. O'Brien (cousins). Rev Father Daly, P.P., officiated at the graveside, and the funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. John Griffin. The funeral was of immense proportions, and it would be impossible to give anything like a complete list of those who attended, as every part of Clare and the most of Limerick City and County were represented.

MARKET INTELLIGENCE

LIMERICK MARKETS—JULY 3.

HAY AND STRAW—There was a fair supply. New rye hay, 54s 0d to 66s 0d per ton; old rye hay, 67s 6d to — per ton; old upland, 55s 0d to 65s 0d per ton; new upland, 50s to 64s; carcass, 45s 0d to 55s 0d per ton.

THURSDAY'S WEEKLY CATTLE MARKET—There were—cows, 38 sheep, and 5 lambs in ment, and added that the lock on the door was broken, and those men shoved it in; the men got no drink.

The publican was fined 40s and those found on the premises 5s each.

Mrs. Johana Ford, Upper Carey's Road, was charged with a breach of the Licensing Law on Saturday night, 27th June. Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor, defended.

Sergeant Hawkins deposed that on the night of the 27th June, at about 20 minutes to 11 o'clock he had this house under observation and at about 10 minutes later he heard a bell ringing and a man ran out followed by two others; witness stopped the men and took their names.

Replying to Mr. O'Sullivan, witness said he had the house under observation specially owing to information he had received, and it was absolutely necessary.

Mrs. Ford stated the men represented themselves as bona fide travellers.

The Bench convicted, and imposed a fine of 5s on the publican and 5s each on the three men.

Thomas Murphy, licensed trader, Wickhamstreet, was charged with selling drink within prohibited hours on Sunday, 28th ult.

Evidence was given by Sergeant McCarthy that he saw three men leave the premises, and one had a quart of stout.

Mr. Murphy admitted the offence, and a fine of 2s 6d was imposed.

Thomas Hayes, publican, 40, Parnell-street, was fined 20s for a violation of the Licensing Laws on Sunday, 28th June.

Acting Sergeant Brennan deposed to finding on the premises three men who were not travellers.

A fine of 2s 6d each was imposed on the men for false misrepresentation.

A licence transfer was granted to Miss Julia O'Brien, Edward-street, for licensed premises lately held by her mother, now deceased.

Granagh Volunteers

Next-Sunday's Meeting

All arrangements are now perfected for the great public meeting in support of the Volunteer Movement to be held at Granagh on Sunday next, at 2 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Messrs D. J. Madden, Rathkeale; T. S. Lawler, Limerick City; John Coleman, Co. C.; John Burke, Co. G., and local speakers. It is expected that the meeting will be a large and representative one. All the Volunteers of the parish turned out on Sunday last and marched to the Ballingarry meeting, headed by several musical instruments and their captains decorated in green sashes. They spent an enjoyable day at Ballingarry, and got a rousing reception from the people of De Lacy's town. It was splendid to see the great order and discipline shown throughout the march, and when the meeting was over they all marched home again in great order, the distance to and from being eight miles, which was a trying walk such a warm day, and no one was heard to complain of the long walk, which was in military form the whole time without a hitch occurring. The committee return their sincere and grateful thanks to the parishioners and those outside the parish for the magnificent and spontaneous way they subscribed to their collection on Sunday last. A good sum of money was made up without the people getting notice, they only being asked for it at the church gate at both Masses and each and every one responded to the call of the Volunteers without hesitation and subscribed generously to the collection, which shows that the Volunteer movement has come to stay and will be well supported in the parish both by young and old. All roads lead to Granagh on Sunday next.—CORNELIUS CAGNEY, JOHN MADDEN, Hon. Secretaries.

Sympathy With Popular Tipperary Man

Much sympathy is felt with Mr. E. J. Murnane, J.P., Chairman of Tipperary No 1 Rural Council, on the occasion of the death of his mother, whose funeral took place during the week from her residence at Kilpatrick to Lattin Church, and thence to Shronehill, for interment. The deceased's husband, the late Mr. John Murnane, was for many years a respected member of the Tipperary Board of Guardians before the Local Government Act came into operation, and her son, Mr. E. J.
