Official Report:—Market continues steady; fair business done.

Private Report:—Fair business done at yesterday's prices.

JULY 22.

Official Report:—Market unchanged; good business done at previous prices.

Private Report:—Steady market; a good business done.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.

Prime beef, 33s to 35s per cwt; second quality, 29s to 32s per cwt; coarse quality, 22s to 28s per cwt. In the mutton section the supply was short, and prices advanced 2s to 3s per head. The Board of Agriculture restrictions preventing the removal of heads almost completely paralysed the cattle market, the only buyers being Dublin victuallers.
