Rule, although there are hundreds of people who do not like it—that Home Rule is a thing that is going to happen. Our obligation and our duty—and it is a great obligation and a great duty—is to see that it does happen, and that Mr Asquith is not interfered with or thwarted by dissolution or anything of that sort until the time has arrived when the Parliament Act comes into operation, and a measure, the full justice of which we are prepared to maintain and support, becomes the law of the land, subject to such exclusion as good sense and good feeling may induce the people to accept. Our obligation is clear, and we shall steer right on. "We ask for the assistance and level-headed and full support of the electorate of this country, who should not be led astray by wild cries and by the newspapers, but be convinced that self-government never has harmed a nation yet. After all, to talk about civil war because you have to obey a Government or a new Constitution out of which you can vote yourselves if you like is never likely to recommend itself to the good sense of the great body of the Irish people, the good sense of the electorate of this country or of the civilised world" (cheers).

Late Captain Leslie

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY (FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

At the sitting of the Petty Sessions Court at Tarbert, the Justices present being—Dr. Irwin, R.M. (chairman), and Messrs Thomas R. Hill and M. J. Nolan, chairman Kerry County Council—the following resolution was proposed by Mr. Nolan, seconded by Mr. Hill, and adopted—"We, the magistrates presiding at Tarbert Petty Sessions, beg respectfully to tender to Major Leslie, J.P., and the other members of the family our sincerest sympathy and condolence on the death of their highly respected father, Captain Leslie, D.L., and our colleague for a great many years past. He was certainly a very conscientious and upright magistrate and constant attendant at the Petty Sessions. We feel sure that the whole district will mourn his loss, and we adjourn the Court as a mark of respect to his memory. We direct our Clerk, Mr. Smyth, to forward a copy of this resolution to Major Leslie."

The magistrates, Mr. Windle, solicitor, and Mr. Smyth, C.P.S., spoke to the resolution at length.

SYMPATHY FROM TARBERT COURSING CLUB.

At a specially convened meeting of the Tarbert Coursing Club on the 21st instant, the following resolution of sympathy with Major C. Leslie and family was unanimously adopted—"That we, the members of the Tarbert Coursing Club, tender our sincere sympathy to Major Leslie and the other members of the family on the death of their father."

Clare Assault Case

APPLICATION IN KING'S BENCH

ACCUSED ADMITTED TO BAIL

On Friday, in the King's Bench Division, before Mr. Justice Gibson, in the case of the King v. Michael Halpin, Mr. Lynch (instructed by Mr. John B. Lynch) applied for an order that Michael Halpin, who was in custody in Limerick Jail, should be admitted to bail. The accused had been charged at Carramore, Co. Clare, with having assaulted Henry Bridgeman, causing him grievous bodily harm. The matter arose over the trespass of sheep. Bridgeman was 40 years of age, and the accused was over 70. Bridgeman had struck him with a stick, and in the row that followed Bridgeman lost one of his eyes.

Mr. Longworth (instructed by Mr. F. F. Cullinan, Crown Solicitor), opposed the application on behalf of the Attorney-General, and said the assault was a very serious one.

Mr. Justice Gibson granted the application, and directed that the accused be admitted to bail, himself in £50, and two sureties of £25 each, to appear at the next Assizes for Clare.

Attempted Suicide

John Tynne, a labourer, and inmate of the Limerick Workhouse, made a deliberate attempt to take his life on Friday evening. He was in the vicinity of the labour yard when he was seen to produce a knife and draw it across his throat. Assistance was readily at hand, and Dr. M'Donnell, resident medical officer, was summoned. He put six stitches in the wound, and subsequently Tynne, on being certified of unsound mind was removed to the lunatic Asylum.

Mr. Kearney—And say that you don't like to punish the good with the wicked. They are our friends though being in the North.
Chairman—I think it is better to mark it read.
This was accordingly done.

Funeral of Mrs. Patrick Carroll, Croom

On Sunday, the 19th inst., the funeral took place of Mrs. Patrick Carroll, relict of Mr. Patrick Carroll, late Master of the Workhouse, Croom, and mother of the present Master, Mr. Eugene Carroll, at whose residence she departed this life in the early hours of the previous Friday morning. The remains were removed on Saturday evening to Croom Parish Church, where they lay overnight enclosed in a massive oak coffin. On Sunday, after twelve o'clock Mass had been celebrated in the Church, the funeral started for the family burial place at Shanavogha. The clergy present were:—The Very Rev Michael Canon O'Donnell, P.P., V.F. Rathkeale; the Very Rev Michael Canon Cauty, P.P., Dromin; the Very Rev James Cannon O'Shea, P.P., Kilmallock; Rev Michael Murphy, P.P., St. Patrick's, Limerick; Rev Timothy Curtin, P.P., Croom; Rev Jeremiah O'Gorman, P.P., Manister; Rev Martin J. Carroll, Rev John J. Carroll, Rector, Banksome, Plymouth; Rev Cornelius J. Carroll, Rector, East Harptree, Clifton; Rev Michael Carroll, Colemanswell; Rev James Carroll, C.C., Kilmee; Rev Mortimer M' Coy, C.C., Ballingarry; Rev Stephen Connolly, C.C., St. John's, Limerick; Rev John Rea, C.C., Ballybrown; Rev William Dwan, C.C., St. Michael's, Limerick; Rev James Foley, C.C., Glin; Rev William O'Dwyer, C.C., Rathkeale; Rev Timothy Murphy, C.C., Rockhill; Rev Charles M'Carthy, C.C., Croom; Rev Patrick Ryan, C.C., Crough; The chief mourners were—Rev. Martin J. Carroll, Rev. John J. Carroll, Rev. Cornelius J. Carroll, Eugene Carroll, Master of Workhouse, Croom; E. Carroll, Croom (sons); Miss Jane Sheahan, Croom (sister); Miss Maggie Sheahan, Croom (cousin); A. J. MacDonald, V.S., Kildorrery (son-in-law). The others relatives present included—Very Rev Michael Canon Cauty, Rev Michael Murphy, Rev Timothy Murphy, Rev James Carroll, Rev Michael Carroll, John Carroll, J.P., Dromocomer, Bruree; John Carroll (junr), do; Martin Feore, Kilmallock; John Feore, do; Mrs Michael W. Clery, Bulgaden; Miss Helena Clery and Miss Hanny Clery, do; Michael Ryan, Balline; Thomas Carroll, L.P.S.I., Kilmallock; John Sheahan, Demesne, Adare; Frank and Mrs O'Sullivan, Catherine-street, Limerick; John Kennedy, Hartstonge-street, Limerick; Patrick Kearney, Mrs Kearney, and children, Croom Workhouse, and many others. The funeral cortege was accompanied by a vast concourse of the general public, and the remains were consigned to their last resting place amidst the most profound manifestations of sorrow on the part of all those congregated around the graveside.

Death of Mr. Thomas Hogan, Carr-street

We regret to announce the death of the above citizen, who, after a short illness, passed to his reward. He was a member of an old and respected family and was himself beloved by all who came in contact with him through business or otherwise. He was one of the oldest members of the "Michael O'Dwyer" Branch of the '98 Association and was also an ideal follower of the principles of Charles S. Parnell. We tender to the members of his family and relatives our sincerest sympathy in their sad bereavement. The funeral took place on yesterday from St. Michael's R.C. Church for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery and was very largely attended. The officiating clergy at the funeral were Rev Father Hannan, C.C., and Rev Father Dwan, C.C., St. Michael's. The chief mourners were—Frank, William and Peter Hogan (brothers), Patrick Ryan (uncle), T and J Ryan (cousins). Amongst the general public were—William Frost, P.L.G.; Patrick Bourke, P.L.G.; Daniel Griffin, B.C.; Timothy Ryan, J.P., ex-Mayor; M. O'Shea, O.Lavalle, F. Bethell, Edward Bethell, W. Creamer, D. Doyle, W. Doyle, Wm Hinchy, M. Spring, M. Gilligan, J. Quaide, W. Hogan, P. Hogan, J. Ryan, J. Cahill, D. Barry, J. Ryan, Ed. Wallace, H. Matthews, M. Shiels, M. Hughes, M. M'Grath, W. Sadlier, J. Nealon, D. Nunan, P. Clancy, J. Moloney, M. M. Garry, W. Browne, J. Burns, G. Burns, W. Burns, A. Collopy, P. Wood, T. Tobin, W. Beecher, D. J. and D. Hanlon, P. Conlon, M. Hayes, Wm B. Smith, T. O'Donnell, J. O'Donnell, J. O'Connor, etc.

match, but it was refused. O'Connell was told to inform the Kilmallock Club that Saturday night of the Board's decision, and he did. A meeting of the club was convened, and they decided on carrying on the match. Mr. Jackson and Mr. M'Grath were there. That is the reason he saddled the blame on these men, as they were directly responsible for the crash, and he moved their suspension for six months.
Mr. P. Kelly—I don't see that it is proved that these men are officers of the club.
Mr. O'Connell—Mr. Jackson denied it.
Mr. P. Kelly—He is an officer of the County Board, but we have no evidence that he is a member of the Kilmallock Club.
Chairman—They will not give you any information.
Mr. P. Kelly said the admission of the secretary got Mr. Jackson out of it.
Mr. M'Sweeney said the only explanation given on behalf of the Kilmallock Club was that of Mr. Mehigan, which was not considered satisfactory.
Mr. P. Kelly said it was monstrous to hold these two men responsible for the whole association in Kilmallock.
Mr. M'Sweeney—They are members of the County Board and they are directly responsible for not carrying out the orders of the Board.
Mr. J. Ryan moved that Mr. Jackson's name be left out as he did not think he was in any way responsible.
Mr. P. Kelly seconded. There was no evidence against Mr. Jackson that he did anything in opposition to the County Board holding their matches. There was a rumour in the air that if Mr. Jackson and Mr. M'Grath were got rid of things would go right. He didn't see why the president of the association in Kilmallock would not be suspended if they suspended the other members.
Mr. M'Sweeney said that as far as the rumours in the air were concerned he did not want to put anyone out of the way. When members violated the rules he would deal with them.
Mr. Brennan proposed that both Kilmallock clubs be suspended, but he got no seconder.
Mr. M'Sweeney said he would move afterwards that unless the expenses of the teams which travelled to play at Kilmallock on the 26th April, the day of the crash, be paid within a fortnight by the Kilmallock Club, that the members of it be suspended for 12 months.
The Chairman said he had written to Kilmallock to send in their minutes of the meeting at which it was decided to hold the fixture, but he did not get them. It looked as if he wanted to perdition Kilmallock. That was not so, as he had any many, if not more friends in Kilmallock than any place in the county.
A show of hands was then taken as to whether Mr. Jackson would be included in the suspension, and by 8 votes to 7 it was decided that he should.
Messrs. Scully and Flaherty complained that several members did not know what they voted for.
A second show of hands was then taken as to whether Mr. Jackson and Mr. M'Grath be suspended, and it was decided by 8 votes to 7 not to suspend them.
A motion by Mr. M'Sweeney that unless £7 7s 6d, the expenses of the teams that travelled to play the matches at Kilmallock on the same day, be paid within a fortnight that the Kilmallock clubs be suspended, was unanimously adopted.
The meeting next took up the recent incidents at Rathkeale.
The Secretary (Mr. T. Hayes) said as Secretary of the County Board he thought it his business to attend at Rathkeale on yesterday fortnight at the match between Mungret and Newcastle West. He asked Mr. Carroll to attend but he could not and he asked other people to go as he (the Secretary) could not go his team wanting him to play against Clare. When he could get no one else to go he went out himself by the 12 o'clock train from Limerick and got out at Ballingrane and walked to Rathkeale where he arrived at about 2 o'clock when he was informed that the Rathkeale Club was taking charge of the gates. The first person he met was Mr. P. Flaherty who said he was surprised to see him and asked him what business he had coming out, and did he come out to take a £1 or 30s. He (Mr. Hayes) said if only 5 shillings was made it was his business to come out. Mr. Flaherty said the boys were kicking up a row. Mr. Scully then came up. Mr. Flaherty then referred to the last match played at Rathkeale, and said that £4 or £5 was swivelled. Mr. Scully then nudged him not to say anything. After some further conversation they said they were going to work the gate and let the members of the Board decide it. He (Mr. Hayes) did not know that there were members of the Board at Rathkeale. He (Mr. Hayes) went to a representative of the Mungret team and told him not to play on any account. Mr. Nix then
