

entrance to the Dublin and South-railway platform. With fixed bayonets ty men darted forward a couple of yards, were stopped when the crowd ran away, as could be ascertained, no person was that place.

orders resumed their march, and all hot street and North Earl street the demonstration was continued. As they to Sackville street and proceeded Bachelor's Walk the shouting of the high had become larger and larger, grew sity and volume. In Talbot street a of the men, by order of their officer, back as if to charge, but the disorderly ain fled down the side streets with all the ay could command.

achelor's Walk a good part of the big nterted themselves with merely booing ing, and cheering for the Volunteers.
 ately, many members of the crowd flung ad other missiles at the soldiers as they stepped out on their march towards their at Arbour Hill.

they reached the point at which Lower reet opens on the quay a party of the out twenty, stopped, and fired upon the Spectators of the incident say that two vere discharged.

as about twenty minutes past six. The in pell-mell in every direction, and when in the footbridge was cleared it was seen men and a woman were lying on the motionless and bleeding copiously.

SOLDIERS ATTACKED.

Flung into the River.

the hospital, two Borderers with cycles d the attention of the crowd, and were ately set upon, their machines torn from asp and flung into the Liffey.

r in the evening (says the Independent), a of the K.O.S.B. in mufti, came in for handling at Ormond Quay. He is alleged made an objectionable remark, which so l the crowd that they flung him into the

He was rescued by some police, who d him to a tram, the windows of which rken by the infuriated crowd.

he evening a Scottish Borderer walking girl, was attacked and badly beaten. On 7 night not a single soldier in uniform was een in the Dublin streets, all the soldiers ed in the city having been confined to rs.

National Volunteers and the Army.

Press Association telegram says that on y, at the summit of the Devil's Bit Mounin Mid-Tipperary, various Volunteer regi-assembled for the purpose of a grand re-

A large number of corps was equipped, me armed, and at the conclusion of the ry evolutions and grand march past, several were fired. Prominent members of the sional Committee from Dublin and else-
 ; with a number of Volunteer officers, add the Volunteers in impassioned language, course of which it was declared, if civil roke out, the Irish Volunteers will have the ct of the Irish regiments in the British angler who landed a trout near Ware something in its throat, and found that it allowed a small rat.

FUNERAL OF MRS. T. D. CLIFFORD, FEDAMORE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. T. D. Clifford, Fedamore, was of extremely large proportions, testifying to the widespread regret her demise has caused throughout the county, and the sympathy which is felt with her respected family in their bereavement.

Office and Requiem Mass took place at 11 o'clock, the celebrant being the Rev. Stephen Connolly, C.C., St John's, cousin of the deceased.
 The remains were taken to Fedamore graveyard, the family burial ground, and laid to rest amidst manifestations of sincere sorrow.

The clergy present were—Very Rev. Canon O'Kennedy, P.P., Fedamore; Rev J. O'Gorman, P.P., Manister; Rev D Bresnihan, C.C., Knockea; Rev F Bernard, O.F.M., Limerick; Rev F Leahy, C.C., Fedamore; Rev F Fitzpatrick, C.C., St Mary's; Rev F Feely, cousin of deceased; Rev M Treacy.

The chief mourners were—T D Clifford (husband), Mary Clifford (daughter), Mrs Clifford (daughter-in-law), W P Clifford, D.A., T.I., Strabané; M Clifford, T J Clifford, and John Clifford (sons), M O'T Hartigan, D.C., J O'T Hartigan (brothers), Joseph Keane and Denis Hogan (nephews), May Keane and Anastasia Horgan (nieces). The relatives present were—Martin J Hartigan, D.C., Rathmore Castle; James R Hartigan, Boher House; Mrs Hartigan, D.C., Tarbrook, Croom; Martin Hartigan, do; Patrick Clifford, Kilderry; Wm Clifford, N.T., Carnane; Wm O'Callaghan, Cloghadoolarty; Wm C Bourke
 Tory Hill; John Enright, Ballymartin; Thomas Hartigan, Cahir; Wm Higgins, do; Timothy Hartigan, Patrickswell; Timothy R Hartigan, C R Hartigan, Madeline Hartigan, Boher
 House; C T Hartigan, William-street, Limerick; T A Hartigan, Secretary Technical Instruction Committee, Limerick County; J P Hartigan, County Council; Timothy Hartigan, Crean; Michael Costelloe, Clarina; John Costelloe, Ferry-bridge; John C Clifford, J W Clifford, John D Clifford, Patrick O'Brien, Superintendent, B.D.P.; Michael O'Brien, Highpark; Michael Healy, Castlequarter; T O'Brien, Rochestown; P J McCarthy, Glenogra; John McCarthy, Kilpeacon; Wm Enright, Skule Hill; T McCarthy, Kilpeacon; Thomas Connolly, Stephen Gleeson, Boherageela; Joseph Shiels, Drombanna; Michael Slattery, Camass; P Clarke, Greenhills; J Harty, Inch St Laurence.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs T B Mitchell, J.P., Ballybricken; John George Kelly, J.P.; Jeremiah Quain, John Kerr, Manister; David Punch (Todd's, Limerick), David Kelly, Ballybricken; George Ryan, Cloghadoolarty; J Carmody, Fedamore; E Clancy, Patrick Clancy, John Clancy, Joseph Clancy, E Tracey, Grange; R Meany, P.O'Donnell, Loughlinstown; Richard Leonard, Castle Erkiné; J Coleman, J.P., Croom; D S O'Connell, D.C., Grange, J Power, Fedamore;
 Wm Gleeson, Fedamore; P O'Grady, J O'Grady, Cappamore; James Ryan, Dromalty; Ed Noonan, Michael Noonan, Lickadon; T O'Donoghue, Ballyneety; Sergeant Leng, Patrickswell; Sergt.
 Healy, Fedamore; P O'Callaghan, T Kennedy, P Carmody, J Hayes, Fedamore; James Conway, Clerk of Union, Croom; Pat Conway, Patrickswell; John O'Neill, Limerick; Charles O'Neill, D.C., Drombanna; John Hurley, John Hynes, Michael O'Callaghan, P Connolly, M
 O'Brien, Fanningstown; P Lysaght, M O'Leary, N.T., Fedamore; Stephen Gleeson, Fedamore;
 R O'Brien, Garryduff, etc., etc.

Mrs O'Brien, South Hill, sent her carriage.

Kodeo (Miss D Lambert), Mr
 Bedena (Mr J Cowhy), Mr J G Hollymount (Mr P Fox), Mr A Sainly Lady (Mr J T Millett), Crean (Mr T A Hartigan), Mr
 tigan Lord Amanda (Mr W Murp
 Murphy
 Huntsman VIII (Mr B Persse), Scapegoat II (Mr A E Bar
 Moss
 Morning Glory (Mr A E Ba
 Moss
 Red Sapphire (Miss Holdroyd
 Private
 Rathleague (Mr P Rogers), Mr
 Second Prize (Mr G Magner)
 Harty
 Hill of Camas (Mr W Moloney) Beaulvharrig Clug (Mr T Barry) Lock Chime (Mrs L Brasier C
 Moss
 Aunt Alice (Mr Geo Harty)
 Harty
 Manister Cherry (Mr J P Ho
 Hogan
 Our Park (Mr W Murphy
 Murphy
 Blackwater Lass (Mr M O'
 Private

Train Arrangement

Excursion tickets will be issue all ordinary trains (except mail) On race day a passenger special at 9 a.m., calling at Kildare Limerick Junction, returning at at Limerick Junction, Thurles, M Kildare. Special trains from C returning at 5.50; and Waterfor ing at 6.10; and Tralee, at 9.
 5.25.

FAIRS.

FIXTURES FOR MUN JULY.

Wednesday, 29th—Tipperary:
 Cork: Coachford (pigs), IDu Clare: Kilrush (pigs). Kerry:
 Thursday, 30th—Clare: Bal Clonroad (pigs). Tipperary: Car Cahir (pigs), Templamore (cs).
 townbere (csh), Mitchelstown Limerick City (h.p), Kilfinane (p Friday, 31st—Limerick: Lim Kerry: Castleisland (pigs).
 (c s p), Millstreet (pigs).
 In places marked thus (†) a pi the week day previous.

LIMERICK HARBOUR

JULY.—AUGUST CHANGES OF THE M

First Quarter, 29th

TIDES.

MORNING.

	Time.	Height.
	H.	M.	F.	I.
Tues. 28	9	43	20	2
Wed. 29	10	31	19	3
Thurs 30	11	22	18	4
Friday 31	—	—	—	—
Sat. 1	1	9	17	5
Sunday 2	2	31	17	6
Monday 3	3	44	18	1

These tides are influenced by