approval of all our stockholders, the necessity being self-evident in an emergency, such as now exists, of conserving liquid assets to meet eventualities which at present we are unable to foretell. As usual, the directors have great pleasure in acknowledging their indebtedness to the staff and employér of all branches for the energy they have displayed in promotion of the company's interests. As to the distribution of profits, you will notice that we have placed the sum of £200,000 to reserve, and £35,000 to depreciation, and that it is proposed to pay a final dicidend of 7 per cent. on the Ordinary Stock. This, with the interim dividend paid on the 2nd March last, will be equal to a dividend of 14 per cent., and we shall carry forward to our next account the sum of £194,232 17s 10d. (Applause.)

The Hon. A. E. Guinness, D.L. (vice-chairman of the company), seconded the resolution, which was passed.

On the motion of the Chairman, the dividend, as recommended in the report, was adopted, after which Lord Revelstoke, G.C.V.O., the Hon. R. E. C. L. Guinness, C.B., M.P., and the Hon. W. E. Guinness, M.P., were re-elected as directors of the company.

The audito s also having been re-elected, a vote of thanks to the Chairman and directors was enthusiastically carried, and Lord Iveagh briefly replied.
