

the County Council had putation that they would build. A circular letter came assuring that the County Council by the Local Government with the building of a sanatorium alone were they to entertain but all persons, and the Union by the Borough Council and Council of all persons suffering from. Only for the difficulty in selecting the County Council, he thought, would building the sanatorium. He said that Mr. Bourke had speech in favour of the consumption the Board wanted to expend their condition in the work against it. The County Council adjourning the building of a twelve months, and the Guarant interfere. He said Mr. Donnellan's remarks (Mr. Bourke's) attitude were totally untrue. He voted the reports being kept in the work. Mr. Donnellan wanted to keep the County Council doing a sanatorium they would be for. Mr. Bourke seemed to be in favour of the resolution was then put and passed. A report from Mrs. Nix, who was in charge, and in which it was mentioned the master was absent on holidays inquired if Mrs. Nix was the matron and the master. Mr. Donnellan said it appeared so. He said it seemed that the business coming there when the resolution was allowed. Mr. Bourke, Lawlor, and the Chairman said that the finance sheets were not on the suggestion of Mr. Donnellan decided not to sign for payments for relief for a week. Mr. Bourke said that Mr. Byrne, although appointed as chief assistant clerk, in his resignation as junior clerk He should have handed in his resignation. Mr. Donnellan then proposed that as Mr. Bourke was appointed senior clerk, that he be issued for a junior clerk at the age of the candidates to be elected, and that the election take place hence. Mr. Donnellan proposed seconded. He asked was there any standard required from the candidates. Mr. Bourke said you have the clerk and assistant clerk. But the elected candidate must be a qualified person, as none of the Guardians are qualified. He proposed that a qualifying examination should be held before any person was appointed. Mr. Donnellan seconded, said the man who was appointed in the examination should be a qualified person. In discussion, the guardians decided to have a qualifying examination, but that those seeking the position should go to the office and see what duties were required, and assure the guardians that they were qualified to do the work, as the guardians would pay any instructor to teach the candidate. Mr. Donnellan proposed that Dr. James Brennan be appointed for four weeks' leave of absence, Dr. Donnellan being appointed as his substitute. Mr. Donnellan proposed sanctioning the payment of a week to Mr. John Stapleton as his services for a period of one week, with rations, for one week, to Miss M'Namara, for her temporary services as school attendant; to Dr. Devane for his services in relieving the duties of Dr. Donnellan as medical officer of the Workhouse; to the latter's illness; £1 10s a week to Mr. Hayes, R.O., while discharging the duties of the Relieving Officer Lane for a week; to Mrs. Donnellan for her services while acting as

PRESENTATION TO INSTRUCTOR
At the Drill Hall of the Limerick Volunteers where the Killarney competition prize winning company assembled for special exhibition drill, under their Instructor, Mr. John Canty, the men, through the President, Mr. James Ledden (who competed in the event), presented their Instructor with a suit of Volunteer Officer's uniform which they got made at the Limerick Clothing Factory.
The President, on presenting the uniform addressed the men and said it was a pleasure to him to see such unity and fellow friendship existing between them. Their Commander, Captain John Canty, through his capabilities and skill as an instructor, had, he said, brought credit to the city and honour to the ranks of the Limerick Volunteers. He then presented the uniform to Mr. Canty amidst loud applause.
Mr. Canty, on receiving the uniform, thanked the president and men of his company for their kind gift, and said:—I am proud to be associated with such a body of men. It is a great honour to receive at your hands the first suit of uniform worn in the Limerick Corps of the Irish National Volunteers, and I am proud to say the Killarney company is composed of men possessed of will power and drill qualifications second to none. If they had not, no matter what skill any instructor may possess, he could not bring them to what they are. During my association with this company, and not this company alone but any company, section, or individual in the battalion, it will be my ambition to do all in my power to bring credit to our ranks and to drive from the minds of everybody anything that may barr our harmony, so as to have unity and good-fellowship characterise the proceedings of our corps. I thank you, Mr. President and men, again, for your noble present (applause, and voices—"You are worthy of them and long may you wear them).
The company competed at Ennis on Sunday and won first prize in the physical drill competition.—COMMUNICATED.

VOLUNTEER DRILLS
Application by Feohanagh Labour League
TO LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL
At the meeting of the Limerick County Council on Saturday, Mr. W. R. Gubbins, J.P. (Chairman), presiding, a resolution was received from the Feohanagh Land and Labour Association requesting the Council to allow their labourers who were Volunteers to cease work an hour earlier on the evenings assigned for drill.
The Chairman said a notice of motion should be put in to change the present direct labour scheme.
Mr. Bourke—We can in the new scheme make provision for that.
Mr. Mackey appealed to the Council if possible to grant the request.
Mr. Coleman said without a notice of motion the Council could not accede to the request. Several young men in the country who were employed at farm work did not get an hour off to attend drills, and some of them had to walk three or four miles and were always present.
Mr. Daly—If it is not legal we cannot go into the matter.
Mr. Coleman—It is nonsense. I propose you take no action in the matter.
This course was adopted.

female lunatic keeper for one month; remuneration at the rate of £1 a week to Mr. John Stapleton while acting as labour master for a period of one month; payment at the rate of £1 10s a week and rations to Miss C. Laffan for her services as temporary maternity nurse, instead of remuneration at the rate of £1 a week and rations which had been already allowed by the guardians. They requested to be informed as to the guardians' reason for allowing 15s to William Mangan for each mattress repaired by him when the contract for the work was at the rate of 1s 11d a mattress.
The query was referred to the master.

the general public to the state of employment in our city at the present time. Employment of labour is indeed scarce, and many a workman finds it difficult to maintain his family, more especially as the cost of provisions has increased enormously. At the recent meetings of the Asylum Committee we read discussions on proposals to extend the building on the application of the Resident Medical Superintendent, on the plea that additional room is required. Notwithstanding the application, it would appear that the work has been deferred for six months. Has it ever struck any of the working representatives what a great injustice has been done to the tradesman and labourer alike? Has it ever appealed to them that such a work would give much-needed employment, and then feed the hungry? It is to be hoped that at the next meeting some member will consider it his duty to advert to the subject with a view to having the work go on without further delay. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for insertion and for past favours, yours faithfully,
JOHN BARRIE, Secretary, Limerick Corporation Workmen's Trade Union.
