

mausen amptorist

IN IRELAND

date September
Wm. Hartigan,
ford, appeared in

n The Standard
ntrolled by four ved in Ireland
citing the Na-
open rebellion.
torist told me
e men had shot
corridors of their
d-blooded murder
and Germany, to
of bishops and
be remembered
agandists set to
and imperil
e Rule.—Yours

M HARTIGAN."

WEATED MADE HAN AN IRISH OTLY AT N'S

If the Provisional
ational they pro-
for it. Regarding the Unionists,
very properly in Unionists. He
uld not get those urpose of making
very well to be had heard those e, but they were
s, but to do work
of the Volunteers.
y politics on an
in view the main e efficiency of the ar).

ot want to make
f the Provisional
ame of the Irish Volunteers. He
nt and he simply ations. The Pro-
absolutely over-
having sufficient
rs. No one in the oney at all for ere they had not understand the
was in arrears.

r. Robinson said arms landed at
was a donation
y be distributed believed that was
of the Volunteers
gh Mr. Redmond, obtain arms was
ntary representa-
made for defray-Boards. Every
the Provisional
s self-supporting.
rd which collected
supported itself.
avy in Clare that cessary funds. He procedurp to be
s, holding of con-
Board had the
ative on the Pro-

he was somewhat
He thought they ness and not for
f the Volunteers
d speak through
have very little
They had a Pro-
with the sanction
i not think that osed at any of the
og in the nature

when they were
s the question of
to enter into it

D.C.; Islandgar, Kilmomona, had Patrick Hegarty, a farmer living at Kilmomona, summoned for having used threatening and abusive language. Mr. John B. Lynch, solicitor, appeared for the complainant. The defendant was present, but was not professionally represented.

Complainant said he was a farmer, living at Islandgar; on the previous Saturday evening he was returning home from Ennis when he was attacked by the defendant; his wife was with him in the car; near Fountain Cross, the defendant, who was riding a horse, came up to him and began to call him names.

Did he call you a grabber? He did.

Did you call him a murderer?

Witness replied in the affirmative; the defendant also said to Brooks, to whom witness was speaking, "Don't you know he is a grabber?" he called me other villainous names; the defendant rode his horse around to the side of the car on which witness sat, and with the ashplant he had struck witness with it on the hand; he was trying to strike him on the face, but witness put up his hand to save his face, with the result that he was again struck on the hand; the defendant drew several other blows at him.

As a matter of fact, did he break the ashplant upon you?

Witness replied the ashplant was broken upon him; witness continued on the road in the direction of home, followed by the defendant, who continued calling him names; he carried on that conduct until he went as far as Fountain Post Office; he was occasionally darting at him with the remains of the ashplant; the defendant rode on before him, until at Ballynealon Cross he renewed the attack by getting off his horse and leaving it on the side of the road.

What did he do to your horse?

Witness replied that the defendant came against him on the centre of the road; he caught witness's horse by the head, turned him round on the road, and thought to put the horse over the wall; only for the wall was high the horse would have gone over it; the defendant again caught the horse, which he turned round to the other side of the road, and he put the wheels of the car into a double-stone wall; he would not let the horse go until a man named Joseph Rynne came on the scene; Rynne caught the defendant and pulled him away from the horse; he did his best to knock the horse on the road and break the car.

And I suppose only for Rynne came up he would have succeeded? Well, he might, because he was determined to do it.

Did you give Hegarty any provocation for this assault? Not a bit in the world.

Chairman—Had you any dispute with Hegarty previous to this attack?

Mr. Lynch—I am going to deal with that. He called you a number of names? He did.

In addition to that, what did he say he would do to you? He said he would break my bones and that he would do for me.

Did he ever attack you before? This is the fifth time he attacked me within the last three or four months; I would not come here if I could avoid it.

Chairman—Had you any dispute with Hegarty about anything before that? I don't know what was the cause of it; he is always at me.

Chairman—Are you a neighbour of his? I never did anything to him.

The Chairman asked defendant if he had any questions to ask complainant, to which he replied he had not.

Chairman—He has sworn you broke the ashplant on him.

Defendant, denying he did this, said he had only an osier.

Mrs. Mary Maley, who was with her husband on the occasion, gave evidence in corroboration.

Chairman—Did he appear to be drunk? I could not say.

Did you ever see him sober? I did, sir.

You know what he is like when he is sober—is there any difference in him when he is drunk? I could not say.

You don't know what is the cause of it? I don't know, sir; he never attacked me before.

Joseph Rynne gave evidence that on the occasion he was returning home from Ennis, and he was behind Maley on the road; at Ballynealon cross he saw Hegarty having hold of complainant's horse, and the shafts of the car were stuck in the wall on the side of the road; he removed Hegarty from the horse's head.

Chairman—You made him loose hold of the horse? Yes.

Had you to use some persuasion to get him to let the horse go? Well, not a great deal.

kind of willows is Silesia in Austria. Now that the supply has been stopped by the war, it is time that attention should be given in Ireland to the growth of suitable osiers. Another fact which has recently come to our notice makes the necessity greater. The Ardennes, between Belgium and France, are now the theatre of the war. It is from the Ardennes that osier rods for high-class basket making and fine wicker work come. The war, of course, has suspended the supply from this district, with the result that the price of osiers has risen recently. There are many parts of Ireland where this willow can be grown, plenty of waste marshy banks of rivers. Of course plantations could not be maturely grown for some time, but if rooted now could yield a limited supply in three years' time.

Death of Mrs. Geary, Avaheen, Feenagh

It was with every manifestation of regret that the news of the death of Mrs. Geary, relict of Michael Geary, Avaheen, Feenagh, was received throughout West Limerick, where the deceased lady was revered and respected by all creeds and classes. Her amiability and true sterling worth shall live long in the memory of her numerous friends and acquaintances. She passed peacefully away fortified by the rights of the Church and surrounded by her immediate family. This estimable lady gave three daughters to the cloister, viz—Sister Ita, St. Louis Convent, Monaghan, and Sisters Aida and Brandena, St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Paul's, Minnesota, and to those ladies and to the other members of the bereaved family we tender our sincerest condolence. The remains of the deceased were conveyed to Feenagh Parish Church, and placed on a draped catafalque before the High Altar. Requiem Mass was afterwards celebrated. The funeral cortege from Feenagh to the burial vault at Castletown was the largest seen in Limerick county for years, thus manifesting in a striking manner the affectionate esteem in which this highly respected family is held. The following clergy officiated:—Rev. Father L. Curtin, P.P., Kilmee; Rev. Father James Carroll, C.C., do; Rev. Father Hurley, P.P., Ballygran; Rev. Father Murphy, Rockhill (cousin). The chief mourners included—Thomas Geary (son), Mrs. Boyce (daughter), Mrs. Thomas Geary (daughter-in-law), Eugene Boyce and James Murphy (sons-in-law), Mrs. M'Donagha (sister), Patrick Noonan, Ballynealon, and Ed Noonan, Kilmihill (brothers); M. M'Donagha and John Geary (brothers-in-law), Mrs. Patrick and Ed Noonan, Mrs. Cronin and Mrs. John Geary (sisters-in-law); nephews—Patrick Noonan, Thomas O'Keefe, Kilmihill; D. Noonan, do; Michael Noonan, D.C., Ballynealon; Moss Noonan, Rathkeale; Cornelius Noonan, Balliniska; M. Maum, Dromin; P. M'Donagha, junr; R. Nash, P. and J. Flanigan, Cooliska; J. Donoghue, Kilmihill; —M. Geary, Pallas, Eugene Cronin, and Thomas Cronin, neices—Mrs. Charles M'Carthy, Feenagh; Mrs. T. Mullane, Mrs. J. Lynch, Rosbrien, Limerick; Mrs. P. Nash, Mrs. P. Ambrose, Mrs. Flanigan, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. James Short, Mrs. J. Hourigan, Mrs. T. Harrold, Mrs. Edward Murphy, Feenagh; Hannah and Bridget Noonan, Ballynealon; K. and Daisy Noonan, Rathkeale; Mrs. D. Noonan, Grange; Nan, Mary, Ellie Meagher, Ballygarry, and Bridget Geary, Pallas; cousins—Martin Geary, D.C., Gurteen; Martin Geary, Kilmurry; Mrs. O'Dwyer, John and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. and Mr. O'Connor, Downs; Mrs. and Miss Keating, Mr. and Mrs. Casey, Michael and Mrs. Geary, Ballinruan; John Geary, Patrick and Mrs. Gilburn, Patrick and Mrs. Geary, Cooliska; D. Geary, Mrs. Noonan, Grange; Mr. and Mrs. Dwan, Mrs. John Cussen, and Mrs. Flanigan, Newcastle West. It would be impossible to give anything like a complete list of those that attended the funeral cortege. Sufficient to say that numerous friends attended from Feenagh, Kilmee, Ballygran, Drumcollogher, Ballinagarry, Rathkeale, Castlemahon and Newcastle West. May the green sward rest lightly on her grave is the heartfelt wish of a wide circle of friends.

ever come before them. The defendant, who ought to be a respectable farmer, came into court on the charge before them, and he had no defence whatever for his conduct except that he was threequarters drunk. Complainant seemed to be a decent man, and his wife a quiet woman, and it was a monstrous thing that they could not go home from the market at Ennis without being waylaid by an outrageous fellow like that. Hegarty said he had some doubts about Maley, but whatever his doubts were, conduct like that could not be tolerated.

at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon of the day and from day to day at the same hour for the Revision of the Parliamentary Lists of Voters and Local Government Supplements for the Borough of Limerick, and also for the Revision of the General Jurors' Lists and Special Jurors' Lists for the City of Limerick, until same are completed, and that a like open Court for the Revision of Parliamentary Lists of Voters and Local Government Supplements for the Borough of Limerick will be held at the same place on the evening of Friday, the 18th day of September next, at seven o'clock. And all persons objected to or who have lodged claim or objections as regards the Parliamentary Voters' Lists and Local Government Supplements will be required to attend, as also the Town Clerk of Limerick, the Clerk of the Limerick Union, and all Collectors of Rates and Taxes.

Dated this 26th day of August, 1914.

W. M. BEAUCHAMP, Clerk of the Crown and Peace for County Limerick and County of the City of Limerick.

Crown and Peace Offices, Limerick.

County of Limerick—To Wit. COURTS OF REVISION

Of Parliamentary Voters', Local Government Supplements, and Jurors' Lists for 1914. 13 and 14 Vic, cap 69, 31 and 32 Vic, cap 11, 35 Vic, cap 2, 48 Vic, cap 3, and 48 Vic, cap 17, and 34 and 85 Vic, cap 65, and Registration and Local Government Acts, 1898, and Acts amending same.

NOTICE is hereby Given that Courts will be held at the following times and places for Revision of the Parliamentary Voters' Lists for the County of Limerick, to be in force for the year 1915, viz:—

Revision of Parliamentary Voters' and Local Government Supplement Lists.

At Limerick, on Tuesday, 15th September next, at 11 o'clock a.m., for the Revision of the Voters' Lists for the Parliamentary Polling Districts of Ballyneety, Castleconnell, Fedmore, Murroe, Newpallas, and Patrickswell.

At Newcastle, on Wednesday, 16th September next, at 11.30 a.m., for the Revision of the Voters' Lists for the Parliamentary Polling Districts of Abbeyfeale, Ardagh, Ashford, Athesa, Ballygarry, Ballygran, Bruree, Drumcollogher, Feenagh, Monagay, and Newcastle.

At Rathkeale, on Monday, 21st September next, at 11 o'clock a.m., for the Revision of the Voters' Lists for the Parliamentary Polling Districts of Adare, Askeaton, Ballyhahill, Croagh, Glin, Kildimo, Pallaskeenry, Rathkes and Shanagolden.

At Bruff, on Wednesday, 23rd September next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the Revision of the Voters' Lists for the Parliamentary Polling Districts of Bruff, Croom and Hospital.

At Kilsnane, on Friday, 25th September next, at 1.30 o'clock p.m., for the Revision of the Voters' Lists for the Parliamentary Polling Districts of Ballylanders, Kilbenny, Kilsnane and Kilmallock.

Revision of General and Special Jurors' Lists. At Limerick, on Tuesday, 15th September next, at 11 o'clock a.m., for the Revision of the Lists for the Baronies of Pubblehrien, Clavilliam, Ownybeg, Coonagh, and North Liberties.

At Newcastle, on Wednesday, 16th September next, at 11.30 o'clock a.m., for the Revision of the Lists for the Baronies of Upper Connelloe, Glenquin, and Shanid.

At Rathkeale, on Monday, 21st September next, at 11 o'clock a.m., for Revision of the Lists for the Baronies of Kenry and Lower Connelloe.

At Bruff, on Wednesday, 23rd September next, at 12 o'clock noon, for Revision of the Lists for the Baronies of the Liberties of Kilmallock, Coshlea, Coshma and Small County.

The Secretary of the County Council and the Clerks of the respective Poor Law Unions in which the different Polling Districts, Barony or part of Baronies in said County are situated will be required to be in attendance when the same are being revised, as will also be the several Poor Rate Collectors, with their books and papers. Their non-attendance in due time will subject them to the penalties imposed by the Statutes.

W. M. BEAUCHAMP, Clerk of the Crown and Peace, for the County and City of Limerick.

Crown and Peace Office, Limerick, 26th August, 1914.

County of Limerick

THE County of Limerick Committee of Agriculture and Technical Instruction will, at their meeting to be held in the Court Chamber, 82, O'Connell-street, Limerick, at 11 o'clock a.m., on 27th SEPTEMBER 1914,