

in March—two months man—and will be distinct except that winners at will be expected to competitions at Feis addition to the usual there will be a large silver school. The Feis Committee considering designs—and manufacture—for the We hope to have a hurling tter in design and value given. In 1913 the medal three crowns of Munster d ground; this year the ae arms of O'Brien in their year the medal will carry each in its proper colour, tively, Munster and the tres—Clare, Cork, Lime-rary. Medals of like presented to the Senior History Compeing Championship. Last the Feis a triple suckeen competition, ex-lts. In 1914 the same trin achieved and in addition en made in smoothness of mmittee adopted several ent and management, all ctory results. We have more than once on the he arrangements at the I am all the more willing se they are taken entirely ther members of the coms the entries were as high ew schools from County om. County Tipperary en-ear. Just as in some com-years the all-round ex-Schools, Rathkeale, made tibe, so the great advance rd Girls' School gave it an of school class competi-ed, the competitions were An unexpected result was Silver School Shield by thkeale Convent Schools, r nine years in succession. en for granted that the mes—would now be the 's, and the committee was the getting up of a new shield for 1915. The profford in a year was extra-lies an answer to those impossibility of giving place in the school.
 League demands are willingness to work and siasm. Before giving an financial results, I must credit for some indirect Companies benefited by er of passengers carried to and May 23rd and 24th; nited by this large influx om money benefits, we are ag up of the Gaelic League ounty due to the coming ers at the Feis; and to ough the matches under have contributed to rest in Gaelic games.
 Feis financial statement I ss to make out two balirst deals with the first or the Thomond Hurling The profit of £105 4s 2d balance sheet, which deals hole, and includes receipts ng to the Hurling Final on those of a strictly per-. From that you see that 14 totals £177, of which Hurling Tournament first ce from the Hurling Final, usual Feis income after penses whatever. To put eceived from every source ear £488 and spent £311. r themselves. The items nment on are on y two tions"—formerly an im-ome—has practically dis-the money received for ublished in 1914. The orial is 10 per cent. on uring Tournament was is Committee's apprecia-they have always received Council. We have thus which we hope to have oc-ne future. opted.
 ION OF PRIZES

would be no harm if they taught those players a lesson that they would not readily forget.
 There was not the slightest reason for the first quarrel, which was due to the conduct of a player who has not for the first time this year committed himself, and has received the strictures of the spectators. The second encounter, which started between two of the players in the centre of the field, was most unbecoming, and were it not for the timely arrival of some peace-makers the result might have been serious. Indeed it is no pleasure to write in this strain, but it is hoped that by giving publicity to the fact, that hurlers will learn to understand that such conduct is most reprehensible, and that if they participate in our national games they must behave as Gaels and Irishmen. Apart from these two scenes the contest was splendidly fought out, and was as good an exhibition of scientific hurling as has been witnessed in the Markets Field for many years. Cloughaun emerged the victors by a substantial score, and, indeed, after the first ten minutes it was evident they were masters of the situation. Here again training was conspicuous. The Cloughaun men were in the pink of condition. They had speed and endurance in their favour, and their striking was most accurate. Maher and Kelly as backs, could not be surpassed, while in the forward line M'Grath and Gleeson never failed when an opportunity availed to find the net. Hayes, Hynes, Rochford and Caupion did marvellous work, and helped in a considerable degree to the victory. Their goal custodian, O'Grady, was a treat, and saved on several occasions what seemed certain scores.
 Castleconnell showed very much the want of training, especially in their forward line. In the first half their forwards were very faulty, and with a little judgment they might have easily made a few scores. In the second half again the forwards were lacking. Carroll and Tim Mackey had the leather all to themselves on several occasions, but delaying too long to strike they were deprived of possession. The defence of Rainsford, the Castleconnell custodian, was a feature of the game. He saved repeatedly, and on various occasions brought much needed relief to his men, but it was of no avail. Ned Carroll, Keane and Vaughan were conspicuous on the losing side. By their victory, Cloughaun are now this year's champions of the county, and on the form displayed by them on yesterday they richly deserve the title. Beyond question they were the superior team, and they deserved to win. The gate receipts amounted to £30 4s 6d. Details—FIRST HALF.
 The match was announced to take place at 2.30 o'clock but the teams had not lined out until thirty-five minutes after the scheduled time, and the game was set in motion at ten minutes past three. Cloughaun played towards the city goal with the sun at their backs. From the throw-in Danaher at once sent the ball into the Cloughaun territory where Maher raised and sent the ball to midfield. Keane met the leather and directed well to Carroll who, however, muffed, and having been robbed of possession Kelly relieved. Herbert sent the ball wide. From the puck out Hynes placed his forwards in a favourable position for Vaughan to clear. In the next minute Cloughaun were on the defensive and after a brilliant save by O'Grady, Hynes getting an opening with a well directed shot sent the ball to M'Grath who beat Vaughan for possession and sent in for a net goal amid loud applause. The players at both sides having settled down the game became fast and furious, and for the next five minutes either team could not score. After some exciting bouts in which Vaughan, Gleeson, M'Grath, Brennan, Carroll and Keane having taken part; Herbert raised the leather and sent the ball into touch. From the puck Caupion got possession and forwarded to Gleeson, who made a good attempt to score, but Vaughan in the nick of time saved well.
 Cloughaun again made some fierce attacks on the Castleconnell citadel, but Brennan and Vaughan frustrated them. Daly's doggedness resulted in defeating "Tyler" for supremacy, and his long pucks saw the ball at the mouth of the Castleconnell goal. Rainsford made a marvellous clearance. In the next minute the Cloughaun posts were in danger. Kelly, Rochford, and Daly worked hard, and, ably assisted by Maher, they effected a good many saves. The striking of the Castleconnell forwards was very wild, with the result that they sent over several wides. Cloughaun being penalised for a foul, Rose took the puck, and sent the ball well into the mouth of the Cloughaun goal. Kelly saved, but the ball was sent back again, and Carroll sent the ball wide.
 "Tyler" met from the puck out, and again sent his forwards attacking, and Tim Mackey meeting in a drop puck sent the ball again

Permac, 1; Valdes Leal, 2; Closewood Beck, 3. Also ran—B and S, Loch Earn, Pinkeen, Macmerry, Royal Canal, Island Laddie, Sumurun, Stepdancer, Knowing Bird. Betting—11 to 10 Loch Earn, 4 to 1 Macmerry, 5 to 1 Perimac, 8 to 1 Knowing Bird, 100 to 8 others.
 The Himley Steeplechase Plate—Black Watch II, 1; The Hind, 2. Also ran—Earl of Whitney, Spanish Coin. Betting—7 to 4 on Black Watch II, 4 to 1 The Hind, 8 to 1 Earl Whitney, 100 to 6 Spanish Coin.

KILRUSH RACES

Under the Dunbar Rules a two-days race meeting has been, writes our Kilrush correspondent, finally fixed to take place at Kilrush on Wednesday and Thursday, 14th and 15th of October, next. A prominent committee, with Mr. T. Ryan as chairman, has charge of the arrangements which will be found to be perfect.

THE LATE MR. JOHN SHANAHAN

FUNERAL ON YESTERDAY

The funeral of the late Mr. John Shanahan, whose death we announced in our last issue, took place yesterday from St. Mary's R. C.
 Church to the family burial ground, Mount St.
 Lawrence. The Funeral Cortege was of immense proportions, representatives being present from the various public bodies, including the Corporation, of which the late Mr. Shanahan was for a number of years a prominent member for the Abbey Ward.

The clergy present were—Rev R Shanahan, P. P., St. Mary's; Rev D J Fitzpatrick, C. C., do; Rev J O'Gorman, C. C., do; Rev Father Bernard, O. F. M.; Rev Father Chrystom, do; Rev Father Flannan, do. Rev Brother Purcell and Rev Brother Priest, S. J., also attended.
 The chief mourners were—Rev Brother Sebastian, O. F. M., and Michael Shanahan (sons); T O'Connell, James O'Shaughnessy, P Shanahan, J Shanahan, M Shanahan, P Fennell, J O'Shaughnessy, J Gleeson, J Carroll, Cratie (relatives).

In the Franciscan Church this morning Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered up for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Shanahan.

Adjournment of Meeting

The half-yearly general meeting of the Ath-lunkard B. C., which was to be held yesterday, was adjourned as a mark of respect to the lamented death of Mr. John Shanahan, one of its most popular members, and for a number of years its worthy president.

Clare-street-Workmen's Temperance Club

VOTE OF CONDOLENCE

At a meeting of the above, held yesterday, a vote of condolence was passed—"That we, the members of the Clare-street Workmen's Temperance Club, wish to tender to Miss Shanahan, daughter of the late Mr. John Shanahan, our deepest sympathy in her sad bereavement on the death of her loving and respected father."

Railway Official's Death

MR. E. SCALES PASSES AWAY

Much regret is felt in Limerick and Foynes at the passing away on Friday of Mr. Edward Scales, the popular stationmaster at Foynes.
 The deceased gentleman was a native of Limerick, was in his 59th year, and was a general favourite with all who knew him. The late Mr. Scales commenced his career as a railway official when a boy with the Waterford and Limerick Company, and after the Amalgamation Act he was transferred from Listowel to Foynes, where he occupied the position of stationmaster up to the time of his death. Mr.
 Scales was a painstaking and zealous officer, and was immensely popular with his colleagues and the general public, who will, no doubt, miss him. The funeral took place to-day from Foynes for Loughill Cemetery, and was largely attended.

Leonard, T Brennan, J Keane, P Herbert, M Doherty, F Rose, M M'Carthy, T Mackey, J Carroll, T Joyce, and M Danaher.
 Mr. P. Flaherty, Rathkeale H.C., was a most impartial and satisfactory referee.

MARKET INTELLIGENCE