tion, I was a member of the Fianna movement—which is supposed to be a different body—and which is governed by the Wolfe Tone Club. But, while connected with the Fianna, I was always and ever forced to recognise and single out the Wolfe Tone Club "as a cleverly set machine working with unceasing energy against the best and most sober interests of Ireland"; a destructive barrier to the progress of the National cause now triumphant—an organisation the aims and purposes of which were unsound, and a movement, Wolfe Tone in name, but conspicuously mantled with the cloak of Sinn Feinism. The only reason I can attribute for the sending of this humorous and ludicrous expulsion notice is that the secretary, directed and instructed by resolution of the Wolfe Tone Club, has made a "mistake," or, perhaps, was affected by some delusion.—I remain, dear Mr.
Editor, faithfully yours,
PADRAIG O'HICKEY.

P.S.—Members of the Wolfe Tone Club who identified themselves on the side of the Irish Leader in the Limerick Volunteer controversy latterly have received similar expulsion notices.

NATIONAL VOLUNTEERS

Tipperary County Board

SUPPORT FOR MR. REDMOND

At a meeting of the County Board of the Irish National Volunteers, held at Thurles on Friday, Mr. Pierce M'Cann, Ballyowen, Cashel, presided. Present—Messrs R M O'Hanrahan, Fethard, non treasurer; E Mansfield, Cullen; W Cleary, Cahir; J Mockler, Thurles; H P Ryan, M C C, Drombane; P O'Byrne, Roscrea; T Dawson, Tipperary, and J F Barry, Golden, acting hon secretary.

The manifesto issued by members of the old Provisional Committee, and correspondence from the Committee of which Mr. J. E. Redmond, M.P., is President, were considered, and after a full and harmonious discussion, a resolution proposed by Mr. R. M. O'Hanrahan, seconded by Mr. Hugh P. Ryan, M.C.C., deciding that in the best interests of Ireland the only course to adopt was to follow the leadership of Mr. John E. Redmond, was passed, the Chairman only dissenting. The proceedings were most harmonious throughout, and it was felt that very little difference of principle existed between the rival committees. The hope was expressed that before long complete unity would prevail in the ranks of the Volunteers. Mr. O'Byrne, Roscrea, had left to catch a train before the resolution was put to the meeting. It was decided that a Convention, representative of all the Volunteer Corps in the county be held in Thurles on 31st inst., and that all corps claiming representation thereat should immediately communicate with Mr. J. F. Barry, Golden, giving particulars as to the number of men enrolled, etc. Pending the holding of the Convention, all Volunteers in the county are earnestly requested to avoid anything likely to create friction, to be attentive to drills, and to ensure that proper steps are taken for the selection of representative delegates to the coming Convention.

EAST LIMERICK HAY BURNING

COMPENSATION CLAIM WITHDRAWN TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK LEADER

DEAR SIR—With reference to notice of application for compensation made before the Kilmallock District Council at their meeting re the recent unfortunate burning of my hay, and which report appeared in your issue of Monday evening, 5th inst, I beg to inform the public that said claim has been withdrawn, and I take this opportunity of conveying to my friends and sympathisers my best thanks for their kindness and generosity towards me.— Sincerely yours,
MICHAEL M'GRATH.

Kildromin, Killeely.

MILITARY DESERTER

On Thursday Constable Neylan, Charleville, pursued a young deserter through the open country near Kilmallock, and after a fast run for about two miles the constable placed him under arrest. He was handed over to a military escort.

Mr. M'Elroy—But is the warrant is illegal, there may be a civil action against the magistrates.

The Bench decided to adjourn the case for a week, to ascertain from defendant if the war prevented him from paying his rent.

Mr. Hunt, solicitor, said the defendant had two sons at the front.

ASSAULT ON WIFE.

John ("Siney") O'Loughlin appeared in custody, charged with assault on his wife.

Mr. J. B. Lynch, solicitor, was for the defence, and said that the defendant admitted with the greatest possible regret that he did assault his wife. He had been out all day at the horse fair, and had some drinks. It was 9.30 when he could come home, only to find his wife out, and no dinner before him. He lost his temper and assaulted the wife when she came in. He now apologised and promised it would never occur again.

Mrs. O'Loughlin then stated that she had been assaulted with a hatchet by her husband.
It was with the back he struck her. She produced an apron saturated with blood.

Sergeant Brien said the last witness made a complaint to him that her husband had attacked her; he went to the house, and defendant was then in bed; as he was going away he heard a scream and turned back, and heard a sound of a stroke; she told him she had been struck with the hatchet; the woman fell against the door; O'Loughlin had a hatchet in his hand.

The Chairman commented strongly on such a savage attack, and sent the defendant to prison for eight weeks.

Popular Pastor's Death

Rev. T. O'Dwyer, P.P., Sologhead, Passes Away

The death occurred at 3.40 on Friday morning in his 75th year of the Rev. T. O'Dwyer, P.P., at the Parochial House, Sologhead. Deceased had been for the past 27 years pastor of the united parishes of Sologhead and Oola.
Born in the parish of Clonoulty, in January, 1839, he had a distinguished ecclesiastic course at Maynooth, where he was ordained in 1868, forty-six years ago last Michaelmas. After his ordination he spent seven years in the diocese of Killaloe, principally at Castleconnell, and then coming to the Archdiocese of Cashel and Emly, he successfully ministered as curate at Galbally, Drangan and at the Thurles Cathedral. In 1877 he was appointed Administrator at Thurles, and remained so for ten years. In 1887 he was appointed pastor of the united parishes of Sologhead and Oola, in succession to a distinguished priest, the late Father Ned Ryan, as he was familiarly called. About fourteen years ago the deceased got a stroke of paralysis which rendered him unable to actively undertake parochial work, and confined him to the home all that time, but notwithstanding this the deceased was a constant and sympathetic adviser to his parishioners in regard to their moral and material welfare. He was specially noted as a good administrator, and an eloquent preacher. Before his illness he was of splendid physique, and in addition to being a whole-hearted patriot, he was a welcome and fluent speaker at Nationalist meetings. He was a personal friend of the late Archbishop Croke, and Archbishop Fennelly and himself were at College and at Thurles Cathedral together, and were intimate friends. Archbishop Fennelly visited him frequently during his illness, and was at the Parochial House as late as a few days ago. The present Archbishop, Dr. Harty, telegraphed a sympathetic message to the relatives. Deceased was uncle to the present parish priest of Cappawhite, and also to the Rev. William O'Dwyer, Adm, Melbourne.
Office and High Mass was celebrated this morning at 10.30 in Sologhead Church, after which the interment took place.

HOTEL MANAGER ARRESTED

On Thursday, Mr. Walsh, D.I., Cork, arrested Mr. Harry Koenigs, manager of the Great Southern Hotel, Killarney. The authorities made a minute search of the hotel and subsequently discharged Mr. Koenigs.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLASSES FOR WIREMEN. SESSION 1913-14.

A Course of Instruction and Manual Training in Electric Wiring and Fitting, in accordance with the requirements of the City and Guilds of London Institute Syllabus for Wiremen's Examinations for Certificate opened on Saturday, 19th September, 1914, 3.30 p.m., at this Institute, and will be continued every Saturday afternoon throughout the Session from 3.30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Previous experience in Electrical Work is not necessary as a qualification for entrance to the classes. A Special Section in Wiremen's and Cable Telegraphy will form part of the work of the above classes in preparation for Public Examinations. In this Section students will be trained in the construction of the apparatus used, and electrical instrument work generally. An opportunity will be afforded all students who qualify by attendance at the Electrical Engineering Classes in addition to the above classes in Electric Fitting to learn Armature and Field Winding. This will form part of the Workshop Training, and is an exceptional opportunity which should be taken advantage of by men who wish to qualify themselves as Armature Winders and C.
