

peated attacks. The match was now full of thrilling incidents, the leather not being allowed to rest for a single second. Rob Doherty and Fox played magnificently on the light wing, and kept their forwards attacking. Spellisy, of Ennis, having wrenched his knee was obliged to retire, his place being taken by Rogers, Tulla. On resuming Leix were again called on to defend. B. Considine missed the objective by the narrowest margin. M. Inerney again saved some dangerous balls, and after a brilliant bout, in which M. Moloney, J. Power, Fox and Rogers took part, Guerin got possession, and sent in for Clare's second goal. Grace's brilliant defence work won the admiration of the spectators on both sides, and after a free, taken by Joe Power, B. Considine again got possession and scored a neat point. Clare had now asserted their superiority, and the desperate attempts made by the Leixmen to score being so often nullified made them lose courage. Fox clearing down the wing directed to M. Grath, who passed on to Guerin, who again found the net. Leix having got some openings made bad shots for the posts. After some exciting play on both sides the half-time whistle went, leaving the score—

Clare—3 goals, 1 point.
Leix—Nil.

From the throw in Leix again forged ahead, and in a few minutes scored a goal. It looked as if Clare were going to get a hard run, but the superiority of their backs was again manifest. Leix had the better of the game for the next five minutes and could prove themselves equal to the Clare men, except in the forward line where the Clare backs put up a stone wall defence which the Leix men though they tried most desperately to penetrate, failed. M. Inerney again and again saved and sent out well to the wing where Rob Doherty was always ready and further directed the leather to safe quarters. Clare made a hot attack and in quick succession scored two goals per Clancy and M. Grath. J. Fox, Newmarket, had to retire as the result of an accident and was replaced by B. Moloney. Flanagan, of Quin, was ordered off the field for rough play. The remaining stages of the game were uninteresting, Clare having matters as they pleased. When the full time whistle went the score stood—

Clare—5 goals 1 point (16 points).
Leix—1 goal (3 points).

Mr. T. Lalor, Kilkenny, refereed.

The following was the Clare team—Ambrose Power (captain), Joe Power, Michael Flanagan, Edward Grace, Thomas M. Grath (goal), Patrick M. Inerney, John Shalloo, William Considine, Brendan Considine, Martin Moloney, J. Spellisy, Robert Doherty, John Fox, James Clancy, James Guerin, Patrick M. Dermott, P. Moloney, William Rodgers.

HANDBALL

INTERESTING MATCHES YESTERDAY

AT LIMERICK HANDBALL COURT

Two interesting challenge double-handed handball matches between local players were played at the Handball Court, Patrick-street, on yesterday before a large number of spectators. The first match took place at one o'clock, the contestants being J. J. Bowles (Senior Champion of Ireland) and G. Cole v. J. J. Airey and M. Heffernan. The rubber was three out of five games. The former proved themselves far superior to their opponents and emerged winners by three games to nil. The next match lay between J. Heffernan and A. Lysaght v. W. Cole and P. Dynan (Junior Champion of Ireland). After some very interesting play on both sides, Cole and Dynan proved victors by 3 games to 1 for their opponents. As scorer and marker Mr. W. Ryan gave entire satisfaction.

SPECIAL NIGHT CLASS

AT HENRY-STREET ACADEMY

We beg to draw the attention of our numerous readers to the Special Night Class now in formation at the Henry-street Academy, where mechanics, backward students and the workmen, have ample opportunity to improve themselves. The subjects are carefully chosen, the fees are strictly proportionate to the funds of the applicants, and Mr. P. J. Rea, teaches personally. The hours are from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. nightly.

When Ireland was a victim of the Penal Laws Belgium came to our aid, and the Irish exile found a warm welcome and a hospitable home on Belgian soil. To-day Belgium is the sufferer, and Ireland is called on to pay the debt of gratitude which has accumulated during centuries. I know that the people of Cashel will not fail to do their part, when an opportunity is given to them of showing in a practical way their sympathy with a noble people who are fighting for home and country. To afford this opportunity I recommend that a collection be held in every parish of these dioceses on Sunday, 25th October. If the donations of the faithful be sent to me I shall transmit them to his Eminence, Cardinal Mercier.—I am, very rev. and dear Father, yours very faithfully,
J. M. HARTY, Archbishop of Cashel.

LATE MR. JOHN MALONE

SYMPATHY ACKNOWLEDGED

Mrs. Malone, 1, O'Connell-street, begs to acknowledge the numerous telegrams and letters of sympathy which she has received regarding the death of her husband, the late Mr. John Malone. It would be impossible to reply to each individually, and she hopes her many sympathisers will accept the acknowledgment of her best thanks for their consoling and comforting messages tendered to her in her terrible affliction.
