

TAL BURNING

Child's Sad Death

in East Limerick

INQUEST AT KILMALLOCK

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

J. Cleary, M.D., and a jury of V. H. Madlen was foreman, held at the Boardroom of the Kilmallock on the body of Margaret Murphy, whose parents reside at Castle-ville, where she received burns on She was conveyed to Kilmallock on Friday evening and died arrived there. Sergeant Quirke, represented the authorities.

ner explained the circumstances, at while there was no suspicion in with the case, from the fact of the on the way to the infirmary, and s it had met with an accident, he pttter to hold an inquest. Unfor-mother was unable to attend, ey would have no one who exactly ident, but the father was in soon w the child and he would be ex-

phy, carpenter, father of the child, he was out at work, and returned p.m. on Thursday; his wife told e child was burned; he asked how d, and she said that about 5 o'clock

two children were sitting by the eased slipped off the chair on which ling alone, and in falling she tipped ot a pot of strabout that was boil- e fire, which tilted and some of the me on her back; he went to Char- at night, but did not like to ator Cremin so he got a lotion at a ll and applied it; he sent for Dr. next day and he attended and ly chance would be to bring the hospital, which witness did, in a ; having arrived at the institution, proceeding to the hospital, the child

O'Leary gave evidence of having her arms in the course of the slept the most of the way until pass- on, when it "grumbled" for a short in, Charleville, deposed that a mes- e for him at 3 o'clock on Friday; he immediately and came to the conclu- there was any chance for the child sending it to the hospital; he had e it died, and death was due to shock ive burns.

man said Dr. Cremin had acted very er the circumstances in sending it to ner reviewed the evidence and said ask the jury to bring in a verdict that died from shock and extensive burns y received.

found accordingly, and the Foreman ould like to say that they exone- phy from anything—he did his best— rished to sympathise with him.

Kilmallock Guardians

Use of Workhouse

DR TIPPERARY INMATES

LETTER FROM L. G. BOARD

mas Carroll, Chairman, presided at g of the Kilmallock Board of Guar- riday, and the names of the other present will be found in the division ring under a separate heading in rtion of this issue.

A. Tennyson (Local Government ector), P. J. Coll (Clerk), John C. (Assistant Clerk), and John Martin were also in attendance.

business was to consider a letter Local Government Board intimating Tipperary Union Workhouse was re- the military authorities within the days for an indeterminate period, and at the Board would be obliged if im- rangements were made for the re- a portion of the inmates of Tipperary e in the Kilmallock Workhouse. f the maintenance of the inmates so I would be charged to the Tipperary

nett said that that matter was under

ALL-IRELAND CHAM- PIONS

HURLING FINAL YESTERDAY

CLARE TEAM ON TOP

A Decisive Victory

The Game Described

(FROM OUR REPORTER.)

The final for the Senior All-Ireland Hurling Championship, between Clare and Leix (Queen's County), was played at Croke Park, Dublin, on yesterday. There was a large crowd in attendance, and with the exception of a slight shower about an hour before the game started, the weather was ideal. The field was in good condition, and the arrangements were all that could be desired. Both teams had a big muster of supporters. Two special trains ran from Ennis while the Leix supporters turned out in enormous numbers. A packed special also left Limerick. The Clare fifteen travelled to Dublin on Saturday night, and made Wynne's Hotel their headquarters. On yesterday morning they visited many scenes of interest, and were driven around in two charabancs. When the teams lined out the contestants appeared to be in the pink of condition, due to the training they had undergone, but the result of the game was uncertain. The Leix men were the favourites, and were heavily-backed to win. The Clare men's admirers were not to be discouraged, and they took chances even at long odds. Taken all round the match was not up to the usual standard of exciting hurling witnessed at an All-Ireland final. While there were some brilliant exhibitions off and on, at parts the game lacked any earnestness or enthusiasm. The forward lines of either team were very faulty, and "overs" were the order of the day. With a little more precision and judgment the Claremen should have at least ten scores to their credit in the first half. Their backs, however, were a tower of strength, and again and again they frustrated the attacks of their opponents. The Clare custodian saved repeatedly, and his coolness and tact saved many hard onslaughts. For the first ten minutes the game was strenuously contested, and both teams made desperate attempts to score, but try as hard as possible they could not succeed. The Claremen, with a great dash, forged ahead, and after twelve minutes' play the first score in the shape of a goal was made by Clancy for Clare. This encouraged the Claremen, who redoubled their energies, and at half-time had registered two more goals and a point, leaving Leix a blank sheet. The opening stages of the second half were entirely in favour of Leix, who were storming down on the Clare citadel, but the back division of Clare having given an opening, Leix pressed, and made their first and only score. Two of the Clare hurlers were soon injured and had to retire. The remaining stages of the game were uninteresting but were in favour of Clare who added two more goals. The Leix men made a feeble finish and Clare had them at their mercy and outmanoeuvred them in every phase of the game, and won comfortably by 5 goals and a point to 1 goal. Undoubtedly the better team won; they showed more combination, dash and speed than their opponents, who were, on their display yesterday, only a third-rate county team. The hurling was not near as good as that played for the Munster final between Clare and Cork; and if Clare played in the same form on yesterday they would have disgraced Leix. The Clare team remained in Dublin overnight and will return home this evening.

THE GAME

Clare having won the toss, decided on playing towards the city goal, and were in the first few seconds invaded, when "Dodger" sent back. Leix were penalised in midfield. The puck was taken by Joe Power, who centred well, M'Grath receiving and sending wide by a few inches. Leix again attacked for Considine to make another clearance, when the Clare posts seemed dangerous. Leix continued on the offensive and sent the ball wide. Three of the Leix forwards stoned the Clare posts, and when a certain score seemed inevitable M'Inerney, the Clare custodian, made a marvellous defence and cleared in great form amidst loud applause. Anby

LATE MRS. J. W. JOYCE, KILMALLOCK

Our Kilmallock correspondent writes—The death of Mrs. Joyce, wife of Mr. James W. Joyce, Kilmallock, and mother of Mr. Rev. James C. Joyce, Westminster diocese; Rev. W. A. Joyce, do., and Rev. Michael J. Joyce, Liverpool diocese, evoked the deepest feelings of regret and sympathy with her bereaved family in their sad bereavement. She led a most exemplary life, was of a gentle and kindly disposition, and had endeared herself to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. At the Office and High Mass at SS. Peter and Paul's Church the celebrant of the Mass was Rev. James C. Joyce; deacon, Rev. Michael J. Joyce; sub-deacon, Rev. W. A. Joyce (sons); master of ceremonies, Rev. Jeremiah O'Shea, C.C., Athea (cousin). The other clergymen present were—Rev. John O'Shea, Adair Mission, U.S.A. (cousin); Very Rev. Canon O'Shea, P.P., Kilmallock; Very Rev. Canon Canty, P.P., Dromin; Rev. P. Woulfe, C.C., Kilmallock; Rev. P. Higgins, C.C., do.; Rev. G. Quain, P.P., Bulgaden; Rev. S. Culhane, C.C., do.; Rev. J. Carroll, C.C.; Rev. W. Dwane, C.C., St. Michael's, Limerick; Rev. P. Thornhill, C.C., St. Michael's, Limerick; Rev. Father Graham, P.P., Ardpatrick; Rev. D. Carroll, C.C., Dromin, and Rev. Father Harty, C.C., Effin. The remains were subsequently removed to Ballingaddy for interment, the funeral being of extremely large proportions, testifying to the esteem in which deceased had been held, and a fitting tribute to the respect that is entertained for her husband and the members of the family. The chief mourners were—Messrs. James W. Joyce (husband), R. J. Joyce and J. J. Joyce (sons), and Miss M. M. Joyce (daughter). The absolutions over the coffin in the church and the obsequies at the graveside were performed by Rev. James C. Joyce.

At the meeting of the Kilmallock Board of Guardians, with Mr. T. Mullane in the chair; Mr. J. J. O'Donnell proposed that the sympathy of the Board be tendered to Mr. James W. Joyce on the death of his wife, who was held in the highest regard by all who knew her. Mr. Joyce was a much esteemed and very efficient officer of the Board and he (Mr. O'Donnell) was sure that he was voicing the feelings of every member in proposing that they place on record their sympathy and condolence with him in the great loss he had sustained.

Mr. J. W. W. Bennett, J.P., M.C.C., said he wished to be associated with the vote. Mr. Joyce was an officer for many years and they all very much regretted his loss, and he (Mr. Bennett) begged to tender his sympathy to Mr. Joyce and family.

The Chairman and Mr. O'Sullivan, on behalf of the officers, also desired to be associated with the vote.

Mr. J. T. White.—It is unanimous. The resolution was then adopted.

At a meeting of the Committee of Management of the Kilmallock Show, with the Rev. S. E. Taylor in the chair, Mr. M. J. Mitchell, J.P., proposed, and Mr. H. R. Bailey seconded, a vote of sympathy with Mr. Joyce and family in their bereavement.

The Rev. Chairman and Mr. M. J. Hurley associated themselves with the motion, which was unanimously adopted.

Death of Mrs. Crowe, Dromsally, Cappamore.

It is with feelings of regret we have to record the death of Mrs. Crowe, Dromsally, who died at her residence on Saturday morning, 10th October. Deceased was a member of a very old and respectable family with large connections, and was always of a kind and amiable disposition, and held in high esteem by her neighbours and everyone who knew her. She lived to the good old age of 82 years, but was in failing health for some months. Fortified by the rites of Holy Church, she peacefully passed away in presence of her sorrowing son and daughter. Her remains were removed on Sunday evening to Cappamore Church where Office and High Mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock on Monday morning last. They were then removed to the family burial ground at Kileely for interment, and the funeral bore ample testimony to the high respect in which she was held. The following clergy were present—Rev. P. Godfrey, P.P., Cappamore; Rev. T. O'Dwyer, C.C., and Rev. M. O'Donohue, do.; Canon Kelly, P.P., Doon; Rev. John Nolan, Adm., Templebraden; Rev. Father O'Neill, C.C., do., and Rev. Father Noonan, C.C., Killeely.