convictions having been proved endant, the magistrates en- e mouth's imprisonment with into evidence, as it was not a voluntary statement, and was extracted from the prisoner by the police. The acting-sergeant had a right to arrest the prisoner first and then take the statement.

Mr. M'Gettrick—He had no intention of ar- resting him.

Mr. Kelly, R.M.—He arrested him in a few minutes afterwards.

Mr. Moran—He knew well what he was going to do.

Mr. M'Gettrick—As a result of certain ques- tions he arrested him.

Mr. Kelly—I don't think that evidence would be received by the judge.

Mr. M'Gettrick—I will not press it.

Mr. Kelly then ruled the evidence inadmiss- ible.

The deposition of Acting-Sergeant Healy, made at the previous Court, was then read over regarding the arrest of the accused. An- swering the District-Inspector, the witness further stated that after arresting Mulqueen on the night of the 19th October he examined his clothes and found his trousers under him in bed, and both legs of the trousers were quite wet for about nine inches; his boots were drying at the fire and were also wet; the roads and the day were dry on that day; witness ex- amined the place where the cattle were al- leged to have been stolen and found a large iron gate, which had been locked, sprung off the hinges at the other side.

Mr. M'Gettrick asked to have the prisoners returned for trial to the next Assizes for the county.

Mr. Moran applied for bail on behalf of Murnane, but this was strenuously opposed by Mr. M'Gettrick.

The magistrates refused bail, and returned the prisoners, in custody, for trial to the next Assizes.

Newcastle West A.O.H. MILITIA BALLOT SCARE

ACTION OF IRISH INDEPENDENT CONDEMNED.

At a meeting of the Newcastle West Divi- sion of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held on Sunday evening, Bro. M. Murphy, T.C. (chairman), presiding.

Mr. Wm. Phelan, J.P., County President A.O.H., said he desired to draw the attention of the members to a matter which concerned them very closely. They were all aware that during the last couple of weeks a large number of young men left many districts in the wes- tern division of the county owing to the Militia Ballot Act scare. It was certainly very hard to defend those young men from the charge of cowardice. But at the same time the newspapers which were primarily responsible for the scare were much more to blame. He (Mr. Phelan) then proposed a resolution condemning the Daily Independent in reference to the Militia Ballot Act. The resolution added—"They had many causes to lead to emigration over which the country had no control, but when a paper posing to be Nationalist and asserting it was the friend of the Irish it was time that the people should speak out and do all in their power to check the influence of the Independent in this direction. The people had the power in their own hands, and it was up to them to use it."

The resolution was seconded by Mr. M. Murphy, T.C., and carried unanimously.

Rathkeale Fair

The Rathkeale Cattle Fair, which was held to-day, was of immense proportions. Buyers attended from all centres, and the demand for stock was brisk. The ruling prices were on the upward grade; in fact vendors more readily disposed of their stock than at Lime- rick Fair. The G. S. and W. R. Co. arranged for a number of special trains for the con- veyance of the cattle, and the officials promptly despatched the animals committed to their charge. The quotations were as follows:—Two and a half year old bullocks, £18 to £20; one and a half year old bullocks, £11 to £13 10s; second class, £7 to £9; two year old heifers, £13 to £20, first class; calves, £4 to £5 15s; milch cows, £18 to £22, first class; second class from £16 to £17 10s. The sheep fair was pretty well supported, the prices being from 45s to 55s per head. The next cattle fair is fixed for November 18th.

KILMIHILL FAIR

The annual November Kilmihill Fair held on yesterday was largely attended, but the demand for cattle was not as anticipated. There was a large number of buyers in at- tendance and cattle in good condition were readily purchased at remunerative prices.
