DIANS

At Wednesday's meeting of Rathkeale Board of Guardians, Mr. J. M. Donovan presiding, the Local Government Board wrote request- ing the Guardians to take requisite action with regard to the following entry in the Shanagolden Medical Officer's report:—"The coal supply is not sufficient to keep the rooms in the dispensary buildings dry."

Engineer—And that is the appearance they have.

Chairman—They want a larger supply?

Engineer—Of course they do. I never saw such cheese-paring. Why not give the doctor all the coal he wants. Isn't he the best judge?

Chairman—Well I don't see why one dispensary should get more coal than another.

Mr. Fitzgerald—Is he getting the same supply as last year?

Chairman—Yes, and the same quantity as is supplied to other dispensaries.

Engineer—Why not give the Shanagolden Dispensary the same supply as Rathkeale.

Assistant Clerk—They are getting the same supply.

The Engineer said the Shanagolden Dispensary was a big building of dark blue limestone which was continually weeping, while the Rathkeale Dispensary was built with white limestone. That made all the difference, and if the Guardians visited both houses they would see the difference.

After further discussion, it was decided to inform the Local Government Board that the Shanagolden Dispensary was supplied with the same amount of coal as that allowed to the three other dispensaries in the union.

Engineer—Well the next time I'll meet the doctor I'll tell him what I have told the Board.

Contractor's Claim To Rathkeale Guardians

EFFECT OF THE WAR

At a meeting of the Rathkeale Guardians on Wednesday, Mr. J. M. Donovan presiding, with reference to the claim of the contractor for the supply of sugar and other articles of diet for compensation for loss sustained owing to the war up to the termination of his contract, the L. G. Board wrote pointing out that in their letter of the 16th ult. it was stated that the guardians should deal with the matter on their own responsibility. In arriving at a decision the guardians should bear in mind that the question for them to determine is the actual loss incurred by the contractor in fulfilling his agreement, and this could only be ascertained by making sure that he had to purchase the article contracted for at the higher price, and did not supply from stock or procure it under a contract entered into before the war.

Mr. Michael Mulcahy, contractor, who was present, explained the circumstances of the case, and said, having regard to the cost price of the sugar and his contract price with the Guardians, he had lost between 8th August and 30th September the sum of £13 13s 7d. He expected the Guardians would make good this loss, for already they had saved £20 by having accepted his contract.

The Chairman said the matter would be adjourned for consideration to the next meeting as the attendance that day was rather small.

His many friends in Limerick will be pleased to hear that Mr. E. C. Winter, F.R.C.V.S., has been commissioned to buy horses for his Majesty's Government, in Canada, and has already left the city to take up his duties. Mr. Winter has arranged with Mr. S. H. Power, M.R.C.V.S., to carry on his professional work, and other business during his absence. We all wish Mr. Winter "good luck in the land of the maple leaf," and a speedy return to his native land.

HAVE CURED—WILL CURE YOU

Mrs. King, Runwell-road, Wickford, states—"Duty compels me to tell all who suffer that your pills cured me after years of pain." Mr. A. Newton, of Feltham, writes—"Your pills have completely cured me after four months on my back." James Swift, Attercliffe, Sheffield, says—"The first dose gave me great relief. I can confidently say that one box of these pills have done me more good than all the medicine I have taken."

... have by their brilliancy on the field won world-wide reputation.

Very much was expected of Limerick during this year but the due want of training and combination had a telling effect, and resulted in their unexpected defeat by the Clare stalwarts, who went into the Munster Championships with an earnestness and enthusiasm that justly earned for them victory after victory, until they succeeded in winning the highest Gaelic honours in this country, the title of All-Ireland Champions. This indeed is an honour worth securing, and there could be no more popular victors than our brave Banner County men, because through an adversity they stuck to their posts until by sheer doggedness and perseverance they attained the ends for which they have been so long and gloriously fighting.

When Limerick were defeated in the Munster Championship it was stated to be due to lack of training, and ever since our men have been anxious to meet Clare to prove to them that they are the better team. Clare have not shirked the challenge, and are anxious to assert that they will make their opponents again kneel down. Sunday next will decide. Both teams are fielding their best fifteen men, and the game will undoubtedly be of a strenuous and exciting nature.

Besides witnessing the match the spectators will be supporting an object which deserves the unstinted support of every Gael, not alone in Limerick, but also throughout Clare. The receipts will be in aid of the family of the late Mr. John Malone, a man who had been always connected with the Gaelic movement, and was one of its most ardent and enthusiastic admirers. The object could not be more worthy, and it is hoped that the Gaels will appreciate the good work performed by Mr. Malone by attending at the Markets Field on Sunday next in their thousands. Several bands will attend. The match will commence at 2.30 p.m. sharp. The field is in excellent condition, and has undergone vast preparations for the great game.
