event Reading of oral Letter.

Amsterdam, Wednesday.
eated in Belgium by the arrest r, the Primate of the Kingdom, scribe. Now the news has been e Germans, not content with able prelate under a military aken into custody the printer ter which aroused their fury. until recently Burgomaster of mans learnt that the letter had by courier throughout the nes, soldiers in motor cars at pursuit and searched all the priests had not read the letter, elled to interrupt the reading from the pulpit, while others n some villages the priests were vestry and even from the conlinal Mercier was still being alace. The printer, however, on bail.

n Antwerp have been forbidden from their pulpits, and have a declaration not to read any lit during the next few days.
Antwerp declare that the Car-teen sent to Brussels, but no be obtained of this. All the slines and Antwerp are guarded ast Sunday in some churches were posted near the pulpits ading of the pastoral letter.

Ulster Volunteers.

Inspection by Sir E. Carson.

Sir Edward Carson, at a parade yesterday of the Mid-Antrim men in Kitchener's Army at Helen's Bay, Co. Down, said that they had an honourable task before them. They had to fight a brave and skilful foe. Let them not believe a word about cowardice, incompetence, or want of equipment of the Germans. It was a scientific war, and everybody knew that in such a conflict it was efficiency and discipline that won in the long run. He knew they would be a credit to Ulster.

THE CANADIAN RELIEF GRANT.

Out of the grant of flour given to the home country by the Canadian Government towards the relief of distress caused by the war, the Mayor (Ald. P O'Donovan), has been informed by the Local Government Board that 1,000 bags will be forwarded by them to him for distribution among the necessitous poor. The Mayor, it is understood, is considering whether it would not be advisable to have the flour baked, and have the distribution a bread supply one.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A small boy named John Mason, 11, Stokes's Lane, was admitted to Barrington's Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from shock and conussion caused by accidentally falling off a donkey cart that was being driven across the square of the New Barracks sometime about half past two o'clock. The little fellow was attended to by the military doctor at the barracks, and subsequently he was conveyed to Barrington's Hospital for treatment. He gradually grew worse, and died shortly after one o'clock this morning in the institution. The facts of the occurrence were conveyed to the City Coroner, Mr J F Batry, J.P., but in the circumstances, the occurrence being purely accidental, it was not deemed necessary to hold an inquest.

MESSAGE FROM THE SEA.

John McGrath, fisherman, picked up at the Black Weir, in Youghal harbour, on Tuesday evening, a bottle containing a small piece of paper, on which was written the following:— "Monday, 29th September, 1904; lat. 28° 55' N., 15° 4' (or 15° 4' E.). Wrecked on a coral reef; crew drowned. Sea-fay 146901, 86.0, 18 h.p.—P. A.
Karter." If the latitude and longitude have been correctly given and deciphered it would appear to be a hoax, as the above figures would indicate a point on the African continent in Tripoli.

KILRUSH PETTY SESSIONS.

At the Kilrush Petty Sessions Court on Monday, the magistrates presiding were—Mr J. S.
Dowling (in the chair), Mr Batt Culligan, Mr M.
Mescall, and Mr Wm Carmody.

£430,230,726, compared with £525,245,289; decrease of £95,014,564.

PROLONGED CONFERENCE IN DOWNING STREET.

Several Ministers were in conference at 11 Downing Street this morning for over two hours.
They included—Lord Kitchener, Sir Edward Grey, Lord Haldane, Mr Churchill, and the Marquis of Crewe.

THE DUKE OF BUCCLEUCH.

The Duke of Buccleuch was received in audience by the King to-day, and handed to his Majesty the insignia of the Orders of the Garter and the Thistle, of which Orders the late Duke was a member.

CONCERT AT HOSPITAL.

On Tuesday night what proved to be a concert of exceptional merit, was held in the Hall, Hospital, under the aegis of the City and County United Aid League. There was a large audience, and the programme was up to the standard set by the promoters of these popular and enjoyable entertainments, Mr. P. Bernard conducted with his usual skill and ability. Indeed it may be said, that the various concerts, arranged by the League, owed much to his initiative and the energy he has thrown into the work. The proceedings opened with the trio "I Naviganti," rendered by Mrs J Hartigan, Messrs R Clune and J Clifford, with pleasing effect. Quintin's romantic composition "Stars remind me of you ever" was given with expression by Mrs J Hartigan, who was recalled and graciously responded with another touching little number. Mr J Clifford sang in spirited style "Bilful Tom" and was also recalled. A pretty rendering of "Till the Boys Come Home," was supplied by Miss Cissie Higgins, while Mr R Clune's cultured tenor was heard to advantage in the telling song, "Mountain Lovers," and he had to respond to an encore. The humorous element was upheld by Lieut Thorley, whose song, "My Word," created endless merriment, and, in reply to an insistent encore, he gave another refreshing novelty from his repertoire. Mrs M.
White sang with singular sweetness and taste a song which elicited rapturous applause, while Miss Ita Morony's character song, "The Quaker Girl," was again a feature of the entertainment. Miss N.
Hogan gave some graceful exhibitions of Irish step-dancing, which we greatly appreciated. Miss C.
O'Brien, who possesses a mezzo of much promise, contributed two songs, and recouped the untried plaudits of the audience. The well-knit little comedy "Dick's Sister," was very well received.
The two roles which it embodies were pourtrayed by Miss M White and Mr R Clune, who extracted every ounce of humour out of its possibilities, and by their artistic display gave its meaning an added zest. The entertainment, which was a pronounced success, was brought to a close by the singing of the popular and world wide ditty
"It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary," by Mrs J Hartigan.

Subsequently Mrs Gubbins, Kilrush, entertained the performers.
