

police proceeded to a place named Killavullen, three miles from Polyke, on the road to Broadford, and arrested two men named Michael Markham and Patrick Cooney on the charge of murdering Michael Higgins, at Dromod, on 5th inst. Dromod is only a short distance from where the prisoners, who are of the small farming class, resided. Markham is an elderly man, and Cooney is about 45 years of age.

Both prisoners were taken in custody to Killaloe, where at 12 o'clock they were brought before Mr P. J. Kelly, R.M., who after a short deposition from the District Inspector remanded them for eight days to Limerick Jail for further inquiry.

PRICE OF GAS TO BE INCREASED.

Another instance of the effect produced in the cost of living by the war in America is the decision arrived at by the Gas Committee, whose purpose increasing the price of gas. The present price per thousand is 3s 4d, and this is to be advanced within the course of a short time to 3s 8d. This decision, we understand, has only been come to after every phase of the question was thoroughly sifted by the Committee, who had to take into consideration in readjusting the price, the big advance in coal.

THE LATE MR ROBERT IEVERS.

By the death of Mr Robert Ievers, of Castle Ievers, a member of an old county family has passed away. He was eldest son of Mr R. Holmes Ievers, of Castle Ievers, and grand-nephew of the late Mr Richard Ievers, of Green Park, Bruff. He was a member of the County Limerick Hunt, and was a J.P. for the county. He is sincerely regretted by his many friends, who recognised in him a true friend. He passed away at his residence, Castle Ievers, at a comparatively early age on the 9th inst.

ming, and he is reported to have been captured and is willing to render information of his captor, headed by the Major General Southern and Western on a tour of inspection he urged them to extend their stay in this city carried out by him and by private and enterprise. The delegation practically received by Sir B's colleagues. Now that a bus, as stated above, has been housing, we trust that portion unmarked for Limerick, one hundred of the system, and large body of the Company's constant employment. The best accommodation for a fine example of the educational improvements there from time to time carried out Terminus and district in Clare and Limerick will be the appointment of Mr Benedict O'Brien as accountant in the Head Post Office, Co. Limerick.

A German despatch issued yesterday, the fighting in East Prussia states Russians were forced to effect a hasty of their positions in the Mazurian Lakes. Germans claim to have captured in the fighting some 26,000 prisoners, and over 30 machine guns. On the right bank, the German troops are taking the and have captured Siergotz.

Admiral Jellicoe Honoured

It was announced in the "London List" last night that the King has appointed Sir John Rushworth Jellicoe to be Grand Cross of the Order of the recognition of his meritorious services during the war.

Price of Flour in Dublin

The price of flour in Dublin was advanced yesterday, the quotations showing of 2s. per sack since Tuesday.

THE CORPORATION.

A special meeting of the Corporation was convened for Thursday night in reference to correspondence from the Asylum Committee, defaying out of a credit balance the direct labour the additions to the Catholic and Mortuary at the Asylum and the sum demanded of Committee on the Corporation contribution towards the maintenance of the Asylum.

A FALL IN WHEAT

Wheat made 5s per quarter at Northgate market to-day, a fall of from 6d to 1s per week. There was an advance of 1s per flour, barley, oats and beans at last week's