

articles described as special potato which had been subjected to an process in the United Kingdom, the said articles contrary to the said statute did description of the said article to be false erial particular to the prejudice of the r inasmuch as the said article was deo contain 1.69 potassium sulphate, whereas and in fact it contained not more than 90 t potassium sulphate." The second s was "For that the defendants having article as set out they did contrary to statute fail without reasonable excuse to or before or as soon as possible after the invoice required by the said Act, what were the respective percentages (if nitrogen, soluble phosphate in soluble ste, and potash contained in the said

The prosecution, Mr Gaffney said, was under Section 1, Sub-Section 1 of the ers and Feeding Stuffs Act, 1906.lood-Smyth, solr, who appeared for the nts, said it would not be necessary to go dence, as an arrangement had been come he was not going to contest the cases ffney stated that the articles were sold srs Roughtan, and the invoice received. he 2nd March last Mr J Mahony, from artment, came along and took samples, proceeded in the usual way with them. es were made by Sir Charles Cameron and idin, Agricultural Analyst, and it was hat the law had not been complied with right to say when the matter was brought notice of the defendants they at once ed an inquiry, a correspondence ensued, defendants recognised that some carelesd occurred. There was no suggestion er that they intended to do what was not , but they rightly and promptly acknow- what had occurred, and made an able admission, giving an undertaking that of the sort should occur in future, and e Act of Parliament should be complied They also agreed to pay the costs of the by the Department over the two sum-lood-Smyth said the costs and expenses reed to. That was all arranged.affney said he would ask now that the rates should impose a nominal fine, say lings in each summons, and the Depart-ould agree to let the matter rest there. fendants had promised, and given an king that their manures would be up guarantee given, and that the supply e made in strict accordance with the Act iament.

Blood-Smyth said the mistake in the was due to a printer's error, and it was ticed until attention was drawn to it. the Company became cognisant of the they at once admitted the offence.

affney said the fine asked was a small one, lings. The expenses here would be but unds, whereas in the Belfast case the hne billings and the expenses fifteen pounds. elly entered a nominal fine of 10s in each d asked as to costs.affley said he asked only for the ordinary Court.

CHARGES OF NEGLIGENCE.
 ok Ryan was charged at the suit of the ck Branch of the Society for the Prevention ility to Children with neglect of his wife ild. ese was eventually adjourned for a week a view to a possible arrangement being lat.

e was a similar charge against Stephen Mr F Fennell giving evidence, as in the as case, for the prosecution.

case was adjourned on the defendant asking to allow his wife 6s per week.

BOYS CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

distraction, and the plaintiff's mother was subject to periodic complaints, but that otherwise he was a healthy man, and well able to attend to work.

His Honor gave a decree for the full amount claimed, and allowed £2.2s expenses to Dr O'Flynn.

Mr Gaffney was solicitor for the plaintiff, and Mr O'Sullivan solicitor for the defendants.

Some other cases were heard, and the Court rose.

THE LATE MR CHARLES CROSS.

The remains of the late Mr Charles Cross, manager for more than a quarter of a century of the Clyde Shipping Company in Limerick, were removed from his residence, 4 Green Park Villaa, Ballinaaurra, on Thursday afternoon for interment at St Munchin's. The funeral was of large proportions and the oughly representative of the mercantile interests of the city by whom the late Mr Cross was very highly respected and esteemed.

The chief mourners were—Messrs. William and George Cross (sons); James Cross (brother); and Thomas Ewart (son-in-law).

The Clergy present were—Rev R H Semple and Rev W M McMillan, Presbyterian Church, and the Rev Canon Robertson, St Munchin's.

The Clyde Shipping Company were represented by—Messrs A McIntyre, Manager; W Griffiths, Quay Superintendent; T Brown, Cashier; J Casey, Canvasser; John Treacy, Shed foreman; E O'Dwyer, Stevedore; E Dillon, Collector; J Sheahan, Carting staff, and others.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs Archibald Murray, James Quin, J.P.; James H Roche, J.P., J J Halpin, W A McArthur, Wm H Owens, W G DeCourcy, Dr Laird, Wm M Kidd, E Kidd, E G Fitt, F Herriott, Wm Herriott, A King; C Downey, S K Roycroft, J Forde, P Enright, and C Whelan, Limerick Steamship Company; P Conlan, Port Inspector; Geo Owens, J Bruce, D S Waters, W Webb, P Rookby, J G Wilkinson, A E Goodwin, P Hartigan, A R Barnett, E A Wickham, E L Wickham, J F Millar, G.S.W.R.; W Cole, J Ledden, do; Geo Belahaw, M O'Sullivan, J R Wallace, W Mullen, M O'Toole, T H Diggory (Great Western Railway), J Murphy (L & N W), George Goodwin, P Snell, A G Dodds, solicitor; T rubb, W Cullen, Newport; T Kidd, D Thompson, E Ludlow, J Shannon, W G Peacocke, J.P.; J O Jones, J McClatchey, J J Johnson (Grand Canal Company), James Welply, M G Slade, C.E.; C A Slade, R Ettles, W Lauder, Wm Thompson, J Beckett, W Dunne, J J O'Callaghan, R Mulligan, T Hassett, R Despard, R Ketherington, W Cromer, W Metcalfe, J Clune, V Hewson, J Stewart, A Hollinshead, T Buchannan, W Trousdell, H Trousdell, J Riddell, Ald McDonagh, W O'Riordan, J Paul, J A Baldwin, W J C Horne, G Redding, R Lindsay, W Salmon, S Miller, Model School; A J O'Leary, V.S.; H McMahon, J Loughrey, J J Hanratty, J McNamara, (Wallace and Sons), Kennedy O'Brien, J H Todd, R Nash, solr, etc.

Carriages were sent by Mrs O'Brien, South Hill, and others.

The Rev Mr Semple and Rev Mr McMillan officiated.

There were no flowers, by request.

to pawn the machine on Saturday evening. In the attempt the police were communicated with, and Sergeant Kelly arrested the accused. There were previous convictions, including two similar cases to the present charge, and Garvey, who elected to be tried by the magistrates, was sentenced to three calendar months' imprisonment as soon from the time the Association in Limerick, and had given much of time and attention to the work, and deep interest in everything concern fare and improvement of the poor mitted consider themselves very having Mr J. Pery Goodbody tak position. The appointment was mad 9th, 1915, at a special meeting of the and subscribers held in the Chamber c Mr J. B. Barrington presiding. Nu took her usual month's holiday the e she went to Switzerland, where she s owing to the outbreak of the war. Nurse Burrows, who had been engage nurse, was able to stay on until Mi return, and, as usual, gave every She had a busy time during the six w

"The Hon. Secretary desires to Dodds and Miss Hamilton for so kind work during March and April, wh away.

"We desire to thank the followir gifts of old linen, money for nourir articles of clothing—Miss Tuokay, Studdert, Miss Mooney, Miss Betty Heaton-Armstrong, Mrs Cooper O'De F C Cleve, Mrs Dodds, Miss Watson very useful parcel from Dublin and Needlewo k Guild, per Miss Barrinl fully acknowledged.

Miss Ina Kennedy thanks the follo for help to her Clothing Guild fo patients—Mrs F W Kennedy, Mis Miss J Kennedy, Mrs J B Barrir Murray, Miss B Russell.

"Nurse Halliday has been of a connection with homes touched by a large number of her patients have hu and brothers in the service, and she immense value and comfort to them, a considerable help to the Soldiers Families Association in reporting an ing such cases, and knowing wher urgently needed.

"We trust that the public will support the Association, in spite of calls necessitated by the war, there that the nursing of the poor in the is a very important branch of the showing most gratifying results, and faction is expressed at the skill a shown by the nurses.

"For Committee of Manage
 "May, 1915," BARRY RUSSELL,

BRITANNIC INSURANCE CO

The Late Mr P. J. Mur

At a meeting of the members of t Agency Staff, held at 10 Clare Cha Bourke, P.L.G. presiding, the followi was passed, on the motion of Age seconded by J Madden :—"That t with profound regret of the death of and courteous Assistant Superint Patrick J. Murphy, we tender to h relatives our heartfelt sorrow at sustained by his death, and that cop the family of the deceased, the Inspeo Mr D. Shelley, and Mr F I Jefferson Birmingham." The late Mr P J over 20 years an energetic worker of Assurance Company, and was one of and promoters in this city. His conveyed from St John's Cathedral Burial Ground on Wednesday, and f by a large number of mourners and f showed the esteem in which he wa classes and creeds.

LIMERICK HARBOUR TID