reports, says neither, that German agents are buying ammunition. It is presumed that the shipments are somehow reaching their destination, as the agents continue to place orders. It is understood that the first shipment was dispatched to South America and thence to Holland and Denmark.

ROLL OF HONOUR.

Second-Lieutenant V. G. French.

Second-Lieutenant Valentine Douglas French, 5th Shropshire Light Infantry, who was killed in action, on the 16th inst. in Flanders, was the third son of the Hon. J. French, R.M., Miramar, Queenstown. He was manager at Shelford Rubber Estate, Klang, F.M.S., and returned to join his Majesty's Forces in January. He left for the front in May. He has three other brothers in his Majesty's Forces.

A vote of condolence was passed to the Hon J. French at the Queenstown Petty Sessions, and the Court adjourned after the disposal of custody cases.

Lieutenant F. M. D. Morrogh Killed.

Lieutenant Francis M D Morrogh, Munster Fusiliers, has been killed in the Dardanelles operations, intimation to this effect having been received from the War Office by his mother, Mrs Morrogh, of Mount Grange, Douglas, by wire yesterday. The deceased officer, who was a son of the late Mr J Morrogh, at one time M.P. for South-East Cork, was a member of the Cork District Council and had also sat on the County Council.

DEATH OF MR J. RIORDAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mr John Riordan, which took place at his residence, William street, on Wednesday. The deceased was youngest son of the late Mr P. Riordan, a former Mayor and City Alderman. He had not been in the best of health for some time past, and his demise at an early age has caused genuine and sincere regret among a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Indigestion and "Nerves"

Extremely Severe Case Cured by Dr. Cassell's Tablets.

Mrs. Holmes, of 87, Bolton-Brow, Sowerby Bridge, says: "I had got into a low, run-down state, with no 'life' in me, and though I had medical treatment I only got more depressed and neurasthenic. No food agreed with me; whatever I ate caused wind and palpitation, and the splitting headaches I endured were really agonising at times. I got no sleep at night, and I was so nervous that I dreaded to be left alone. "I had suffered for over a year when I got Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Soon after I began to feel brighter. I could sleep at night, and I grew stronger and better daily. All the head
