

to carefully and promptly attended to.
 The new arrangements will come into force on SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31st, 1915.

BIRTHS. MARRIAGES. DEATHS

BIRTHS.

ROANTREE—October 8, 1915, at Hib rnian Bank House, Navan, the wife of Vincent J. Roantree, a daughter.

STEVEN—October 9, 1915, at Leeson Park Avenue, Dublin, the wife of George Steven, Fishery Officer, D.A.T.I., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

HOY and RHODES—October 2, 1915, at the Presbyterian Church, Mountmellick, by the Rev. W. Smyth, Arthur, youngest son of John Hoy, Rathmines, Dublin, to Ella, youngest daughter of Mrs Rhodes, Mountmellick.

SMYTH and LINDESAY—October 5, 1915, in Holy Trinity Church, Upper Tooting, London, by the father of the bride, Ernest Patrick, only son of the late William Fleming Mease Smyth, of Gallouy, Co. Tyrone, to Ellen, only daughter of the Rev. W. B. Lindesay, Vicar of Upper Tooting, and grand-daughter of the late Very A. H. Leech, Dean of Cashel.

DEATHS.

BARRETT—Killed in action while commanding his company, near Etreaux, France, on August 27th, 1915, Philip Godfrey Barrett, Captain, 2nd Bat., the Royal Munster Fusiliers, dearly-beloved husband of Jean Barrett, and son of the late John Barrett, and Mrs Barrett, of Dookensfield Manor, Farnham, Surrey.

CAMPBELL—Captain, Douglas Graham, 40th Pathans (attached 10th Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders), killed in France on September 25, 1915, dearly-loved youngest son of Colonel W. M. Campbell, (late) Royal Artillery, and nephew of the Right Honourable J. H. Campbell, K.C. M.P.

HACKETT—On the 10th October, 1915, the Rev. Canon S. J. Hackett, M.A., Rector of Askeaton. Funeral from Askeaton at 9 p.m. on Wednesday, arriving at the Cathedral at 12 o'clock.

McMANUS—On October 7th, 1915, at St. John's Hospital, after a tedious illness, William McManus, ex-Sergeant R.I.C., St. Joseph's Terrace, Richmond-street, Limerick. Deeply regretted by his sorrowing family. Interment took place on Saturday, October 9th, at Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.

MALLON—October 9, 1915, at his residence, Meigh, Newry, John Mallon, J.P., late Assistant Commissioner, D.M.P. Fortified by the rites of Holy Church. R.I.P.

KIDD'S SUPPLY STORE

49 O'CONNELL STREET

WREATHS, CROSSES, BOUQUETS.

Artistically made up on the shortest notice.

Telegrams—William Kidd.
 Telephone—152 Limerick

position, dimensions, and rent to No 244 "Limerick Chronicle" office. [a3016]

MEN REQUIRED.

100 MEN REQUIRED for Making Munitions of War at Newcastle-on-Tyne; no skill required. Apply C. J. Bently, Ballyvorneen, Ballybrood, County Limerick. (a2 j12)

OFFICE BOY WANTED—Must write a good hand and make himself generally useful. Apply, O.R., this office. [03o7]

PONY—For Sale Stylish Pony, about 14 hands quiet in harness; also trap and harness. Apply No 224 this office. (a3 012)

FOR SALE—Horse (black); quiet to ride and drive; would suit lady; also Ralli Trap; £35. Apply 217 this office. (a3 012)

APARTMENTS TO LET—Bath (hot and cold); moderate terms. Apply 2 Maunster Terrace, Military Road (a1 012)

TO LET—42 Cecil street, two top floors, containing three rooms, well equipped kitchen; gas and water laid on; rent £20 per year. Also basement, rent £6 per year. Apply 41 Cecil street. (a3 016)

A TEACHER is prepared to give Pianoforte Lessons at her residence; two lessons weekly; terms moderate; references can be given. Miss Cowpar, over Leverett and Frye's, 112 George Street, City. (a3 014)

MISS DOYLE'S Great Song Success, "The Song of the Irish Brigade." Copies may be had at Pigott's Music Warehouse. Price 1s. Band parts now read. (a3 014)

IRELAND'S SONGS—New edition by Boosey, containing all the standard Irish songs, and including some of Miss A. Needham's copyright songs. Price 2s 6d. The finest collection ever published. Sold at Pigott's Music Warehouse. (a3 014)

HISTORIES of Limerick and Clare Wanted; other books also bought and sold. Apply, Coleman's Mart, 6 Rutland Street. (a3014)

OLD China, Glass, Furniture, etc., purchased at Coleman's Furniture Mart, 6 Rutland Street. (a3 014)

NEW SEASON'S JAMS in 3½lb jars, at 1s 4d per jar, are good value; also marmalade in 4lb jars at 1s 4d each. Bennis and Sons, 30 George Street. (a6o21)

FOOLS—Why pay 2s 4d a bag for your coal. You can buy Best Wiggan Coal at the Arch, Denmark Street, for 2s per bag of eight stone. (a3 014)

AS Sultana Raisins are not to be had this year, we have imported the greatly superior Californian Raisins, which can be had ready stoned at 8d lb. Bennis and Sons, 30 George Street. (a3016)

LOST—Motor Rug, black and white Scotch wool. Finder will be rewarded if returned to W. M. Kidd, 49 O'Connell Street. [a3016]

WANTED—An Elderly or Resigned Male Teacher for couple of boys in farm home; small salary; comfortable home. Apply No 246 this office.

REWARD—Lost on Saturday, 9th October, a Gold Enamelled Watch in leather wristlet, between, or in, St Mary's Church and Corbally. Apply Mrs Staepole Kenny, Indiaville, or 55 George street. (a3 014)

S.V. "MAR" S.V. "ACT"

S.V. "Conf CARGO" We have Cargo Bridge Design. Cargo Genui Johnson's Lor

JAMI TIMBER, S

T Bollev A R. WALL

Harris

Awarden London Brea

Most

in

SAC RIG NEW

LARGE

C O

HIR RICH

25, 26, 2