Enemy Repulsed at Various Points.

French Maintain Advantage Already Gained.

Paris, Saturday. This afternoon's French Wireless says:— In Artois the French made progress towards Bois-en-Hache, and occupied portions of the German trenches. To the south of Souchez the Germans attempted to attack in the neighbourhood of Hill 140. They were repulsed. In Champagne, in the neighbourhood of La Courtine, the Germans attempted to re-take the trenches captured yesterday, but they completely failed before the resistance of the French troops, who everywhere maintained the advantage previously gained.

GENERAL JOFFRE

Visits Buckingham Palace.

General Joffre, Commander-in-Chief of the French Army, who is temporarily in London as the guest of the French Military Attache, motored today to Buckingham Palace and Marlborough House to pay his respects to the Queen and Queen Alexandra and express in person his sympathy for the mishap which befell the King while on a visit to France. General Joffre paid other visits and was at the War Office for a short period.

French Ministerial Crisis Over.

M BRIAND PREMIER.

It is announced that M. Viviani has resigned the French Premiership, and that M Briand has formed a Ministry.

Paris, Saturday.

Yesterday's Ministerial crisis was settled last night.

M. Briand's appeal to all concerned facilitated a settlement.

Greece and Rumania's Attitude.

Athens, Saturday.

The question of Rumania's attitude has aroused keen interest in official circles, and is seriously occupying the attention of the Government and General Staff. The result of the Entente's Demarches at Bukharest is eagerly awaited.
