service. Two sides-de-camp were Dublin Corporation yesterday, on the notion of the Lord Mayor, seconded by the High Sheriff, passed a resolution welcoming Dr. Bernard on his election as Archbishop of Dublin. The Lord Mayor said as Irishmen they were anxious to hold out the hand of friendship, and to do anything that made for unity.

NEWSPAPERS FOR ABROAD.

By a recent regulation the Post Office is refusing to forward papers to neutral countries on the Continent or to America, etc., on or after November 6th. No newspaper or magazine sent by an individual is permitted to leave this country under the circumstances mentioned. The authorities, however, allow newspapers to be forwarded "if despatched from the offices of the publishers." Parties who desire to send the CHRONICLE abroad in future can do through this office. The idea underlying the Post Office prohibition is to prevent individual newspapers being marked or "coded" so as to give information to the enemy.

THEATRE ROYAL.

An excellent programme was presented at the Theatre Royal last night to large and appreciative audiences. Before the curtain the orchestra played as an overture "The Toreador," which was received with applause. Then Miss Dorothy Wise, described as the "girl with the golden voice," appeared and gave a few of her popular chorus songs. "Somewhere," a delightful composition, was very sweetly rendered; also "Two Blue Eyes," another taking number. She was heartily applauded, and had to reappear. In an artistic comedy, juggling act, a garden scene, entitled "Science and Drollery," Messrs Francis and Alfred scored a great success. They kept the house agreeably surprised, and their work throughout was characterized by skill and finish.
Miss Constance Cassell, who possesses a soprano of richness and purity, sang some pretty numbers, which made a very favourable impression. An outstanding feature of the programme was the novelty instrument-
