HIBERNIAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

International Lectures at the Havergal Hall.

On last Thursday (one in the afternoon and one in the evening at 8 p.m.), two very successful lantern lectures were delivered by the Rev D H Hall, B.D., describing the work of the Hibernian Bible Society, which may be regarded as really a branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society, when Hall's words are borne in mind, because he pointed out that both these societies work together in perfect harmony, the work of neither overlapping the other. The lantern was operated by Mr Joseph Stewart, and all the lectures, without exception, were extremely interesting. Mr Hall is a very able lecturer, and his descriptions and anecdotes were delightful. At the evening lecture there were in addition to the lantern lectures some vocal items, and these added to the attractiveness of the meeting. Miss Ethel Hall was very admirably acquitted herself in singing Hamilton Gray's "Dream of Paradise." Baker sang with her wonted good taste and passion "Now the day is over," the Rev Canon Swain contributed "There is a Green Hill" (a nod), in which the fine timbre of his voice was most favourably revealed, and Mr E L Hall, we have seldom heard to better advantage than in his finished rendition of Baker's setting of "Crossing the Bar" (a nod).

ROAD MEN'S WAGES.

A circular was read from the Secretary Clare Co Council with reference to a proposal to increase the wages of the men working on the roads to 17s and 15s respectively for gangers and workmen.
The Council had already considered the question and desired to know if the increase had the acquiescence of the District Council.

Mr Meany moved a resolution, seconded by Mr Frost, approving of the increase suggested, and leaving it to the County Council as the principal administrative body in the county to put it into operation.

Mr O'Dwyer, proposed, and it was seconded unanimously, that it be an instruction to the County Surveyor in future to deposit the material in depots on the different roads under his charge before the measurement of same took place.

DISTRICT LABOUR INQUIRY

On the motion of Mr O'Dwyer, it was decided to ask the County Council to reinstate Mr M McMahon to his own district, in the capacity of overseer.

The Council then adjourned.

DEATH OF MISS CROMER.

By a wide circle of friends in the city the death of Miss Mary Isabel Cromer, a member of an old and highly-esteemed Limerick family, has been heard of with very sincere regret. Miss Cromer, who passed away at her residence, Clifton Villa, Ennis Road, on the 8th instant, after a brief illness, was a lady of a very retiring, gentle, and charitable disposition, and endeared herself to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.
Deep sympathy is expressed with her brothers and other relatives in their keen sorrow. There was a very large attendance of the general public at the funeral which took place yesterday morning from her late residence for the family burial place at St John's Church. The chief mourners were—Messrs Robert, George, Joseph, William, and Albert Cromer, brothers, and Messrs Walter and Robert Evans, nephews of the deceased. The clergy included Canon Langbridge, who officiated, the Dean, Canon Waller, Canon Swain, Rev R H Semple, and Rev A E Hewetson. As the coffin was being taken into the church "O, Rest in the Lord," was played on the organ, and at the close of the service the "Dei March in Saul." The hymn, "Rock of Ages" was sung.

Mrs O'Brien, South Hill, and others sent carriages.
