

ry response from the British ritain, and Ireland. (Cheers.) Irishmen all over the world and glorious chapter in our fact that a settlement of long-differences was arrived at war broke out—(hear, hear)— speaker's) experience, passing ent parts of Ireland; this new ch has brought Irishmen into fight and die together must of removing for ever bitter ast relations with our cross the Channel. (Loud was only one regrettable and to be found in Ireland at the was the rash action of some es who have allowed themselves ictims of strange and myswho were never before ) It was very foolish of those should be guided by their re-o place themselves in the hands ne ulterior motive (applause) should not be divided in such while their fellow countrymen ng fresh and glorious history, seed of unity, prosperity and loved land (loud cheers). He s to say that in no place had he han in Limerick city and county, f there was any division amongst that it would disappear from plause). If they had any of red to, he could tell them with his soul, that if they wanted to eat thing they could do was to and if they did not want to leave the enemies' camp and plause.) Of the five thousand had gone to take their part in s proud honour to belong to amed Confraternity of the Holy l supplied close on seven historic fighters. (Applause.) ayer, who is also a member, at fact. (Cheers.) In con-ask any young men who m the land or the home to come the cause for which thou-ndrymen have already given e being to Cardinal Meirn, have died the deaths of rding to Cardinal Logue, Pri-ve helped to seal the doom of d trampled on the churches of d the most horrible crimes in refer they gave. The have remitted 24 10s of the surchage. There was a surcharge of £1 15s on Mr Kerin; on Mr Quin 5s; Mr McNamara, 15s; Mr John Considine, £1 8s 6d; Mr Kenneally, 16s; and what we want to see is if we can get the Local Government Board to remit these charges.

Mr Purcell—Is it right to ask him down. It costs nothing.

Mr Kerin—What is the cost of an inquiry here, Mrs Fitzgerald?

Clerk—This will be nothing.

Mr Kerin—Nothing?

Clerk—No. Once you paid witnesses expenses here at an inquiry.

Mr Kerin—Bring him down so.

Chairman—Yes, let him come down and examine the books, and see whether we are doing our duty or not.

Mr Kerin remarked that they had had lots of inquiries, and they all ended in a bottle of smoke.

Mr Purcell—But this will not be a sworn inquiry.

Mr Kenneally—We are accused of throwing away money wholesale, and we want to know whether we are or not, and that is the fairest way of doing it.

Mr Kenneally then proposed the following resolution:—"That this Board call on the Local Government Board to direct its Inspector for this district to inquire into the outdoor relief in the Einnis district, and to report fully if the Guardians representing the Einnis district are justified in the relief allowed."

The Chairman seconded the motion, which was adopted.

FREE BUFFET, LIMERICK JUNCTION.

The number of men supplied with refreshment during week ending 16th inst. was 1,191, making a total of 16,371 since the Buffet opened on 29th January, 1916.

DEATH OF MR R W A LYONS.

Very general regret is felt in the city and county at the death of Mr R W A Lyons, third son of the late Mr William Henry Lyons, of Croom Castle, Croom, which occurred a few days ago at Northwood Military Hospital, Middlesex.
Mr Lyons was formerly in the 10th Hussars, and was through the South African war. He had retired, but on the outbreak of the present war volunteered for active service. Sincere sympathy for his relatives is extended by a wide circle of friends.

Thomas McNamara, 21 Moynan
McMahon, Thomas Nix, John Mol O'Brien, Patrick McCormack, Corry.

Mr Donnellan proposed, and seconded, that the contractors be gallon, and if they refused to accept Board re-advertise.

As an amendment, Mr P Bourke Mr Hurley seconded that they recontractors.

Mr J Hassett gave notice of a fument that the contractors' price be a

On a division, the voting was—

For the amendment—Messrs P Bourke and M Hickey—3.

Against—Messrs J P Lynch, T Bourke, Miss Morony, Miss Mc O'Brien, T Bourke, Mrs McDonnell, P Lane, J Madden, P Mulquee
Chairman—13.

Did not vote—Messrs J Hassett, Sheehan, J Cauty, and P J McGrath.

The Chairman declared the same and Mr Hassett stated he would n amendment of which he had given no

The resolution was declared carried voting.

PROPOSED NEW WATERWORKS

The Local Government Board wrote 18th inst. relative to the plans preparation with the new waterworks at house, and stating in reply to the enquiry on the subject, they desired that the plans in question were not to be approved plans, as they were not the Board with a view to recommend to a loan for the works.

Mr P Bourke—What is our position
The Assistant Clerk—I don't know.

The Chairman—As far as we know have not been approved.

Mr T Bourke—Has Mr O'Malley been The Assistant Clerk—No.

Mr P Bourke—The Local Government asked for the plans.

The Chairman—I think the best thing to do is to refer the matter back to the Government Board.

Mr P Bourke—The Local Government asked for the plans the first day.

Mr Cauty—Mr O'Malley will have to No action was taken on the letter sent.

THE FLOUR CONTRACT.

The Chairman referred to the letter